

ladies' auxiliary to the B. of R. T. gave a grand quadrille ball, which was greatly enjoyed by about 100 couples.

Herbert Kincode, who has been visiting in Ogden, the guest of J. T. Hurst and family, has returned to his home in the east.

The home of Professor and Mrs. William Z. Terry on Kingston avenue was the scene Thursday evening of a most enjoyable party given in honor of the faculty of the Weber State academy, together with their wives and friends. The evening passed quickly away at various kinds of games and music. A delicious repast was served in the dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hardman have returned home from a month's pleasure trip through the east.

At the First ward hall last evening a very enjoyable card party was given in honor of Elmer C. Jones, who departs soon on a mission to California. There was a good attendance of his many friends.

The Agolia will have an afternoon next Tuesday on Dickens. Each member is expected to give a short sketch of one of Dickens' characters, which will make a very interesting and enjoyable program. They will meet at the home of Mrs. Sullivan, 2742 Grant avenue.

This week—Rubin Evans and Elder

PROVO.

Provo.—Mrs. Mattie Vogel of Ogden has been visiting friends in Provo during the week.

The opening session of the Parents' class, under the direction of the principals and teachers of the public schools, was held last evening. A number of interested parents listened to a splendid lecture given by Prof. Osmond of the U. Y. university, subject, "Parent, Home and School."

The Lulu Gates concert, given at the tabernacle last Monday evening proved a rare treat to the music loving people of Provo. The lower part of the house was well filled, with admiring friends of our sweet singer, and as each number was finished she was called and recalled by the enthusiastic appreciative audience. Miss Gates is always assured of a hearty welcome from the people of her home city, not alone on account of her sweet voice, but her charming personality has won the hearts of scores of people, who are fortunate in having met her. The proceeds of the concert was given by Miss Gates to the domestic science department of the B. Y. university.

The Ladies' Republican club met at the club rooms last Monday afternoon. Mr. Hyndman of Salt Lake City delivered a most interesting address. Subject, "Why I am a Republican." Forty-five members were present, and after the lecture, enjoyed a delicious luncheon and social afternoon together.

The marriage of Miss Mattie Elliott and Mr. Adamson took place at the home of the bride Thursday evening, after which a beautifully arranged reception was given their many friends. The home was a perfect bower of fall flowers and autumn leaves, which, together with the many electric lights, presented a pretty picture. Miss Elliott looked very sweet in her pretty little gown of white, and together with Mr. Adamson made the evening a pleasant one for their many friends.

President Brimhall spent Tuesday in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Gates have been visiting friends in Provo during the week.

The Mysic club met at the kindergarten rooms Thursday afternoon, an interesting session was held.

Mr. William Young of New York, a member of the board of the B. Y. university, spent Friday visiting the different departments in the school. Mr. Young was charmed with the order, excellent class work and splendid progress he found there. A dinner party was given in his honor, where he had an opportunity to meet, personally, the members of the faculty.

The students of the B. Y. university, and citizens of Provo are looking forward with great anticipation to the celebration of Founders' day next Monday. The students will form in procession, and march down to the old home of the institution, and then to the train to welcome the visiting friends.

President and Mrs. Holbrook left Provo Tuesday for St. Louis. They expect to visit the fair and several eastern cities before returning.

Miss Alice Reynolds, Mrs. Ida Smoot Dusenberry, Miss Reids, Mrs. Culler, Mrs. Barnick, Mrs. Ald, Mrs. Gates, Mrs. Speckart and Miss Beulah Buchanan were the delegates who attended the state federation, held in Logan on Thursday and Friday. The ladies were met at Brigham City by Mrs. Fleming and Mrs. Champ of Logan, and from that moment, throughout the entire session of the federation, every thing was planned, even to the smallest detail, for the happiness, pleasure and comfort of the visiting ladies. The Provo delegation has nothing but the highest of praise for the hospitality of the ladies at Logan.

Mr. Wesley Evans spent Sunday visiting friends in Provo.

Mr. Douglas Swan and Thomas Giles of Salt Lake City kept each other company at the Lulu Gates concert last Monday evening.

BRIGHAM CITY.

Mr. Will Teller of Ogden was the guest of Miss Lola Nichols Saturday and Sunday last.

Miss Willie Butt has returned home, after residing in Salt Lake City for over a year.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. N. Stahl, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fishburn, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rindson and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Jundson all departed for a visit to the fair at the beginning of the week.

Judge O. W. Powers was in Brigham

ANGLO-AMERICAN BRIDE.

When Pauline Astor, daughter of William Waldorf Astor, the expatriated American, becomes the bride of Captain Spender Clay this month, she will become the possessor of a collection of jewels that is equalled by few, if any, collections of royalty.

Madson returned home from three years' missions in Germany.

The next attraction at the Grand Opera House comes Tuesday evening—"Pretty Peggy."

The Woodmen of the World gave a most enjoyable party at the Kiesel hall Wednesday evening.

Isaac Flinders and his charming young bride, Miss Hendrickson, who were married this week, were given an elaborate reception at the Kiesel hall Tuesday evening, which was participated in by about 150 guests.

GIRL TO STUMP FOR PARKER.

Miss Margaret Ingle, a pretty and talented girl of Paris, Ky., has tendered her services to the National Democratic committee and her services have been accepted.

party at the theater on Thursday night, and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton and party also occupied a stall on the same night.

Mrs. Geddes entertained informally at the Country club on Monday night.

The reunion of the Wells family in honor of the birthday of Daniel H. Wells will take place Thursday, Oct. 27, at the home of Mrs. Edna Wells Sloan.

Mrs. Duncan MacViehl will entertain at an anniversary breakfast Friday, Oct. 28.

The recital by Mrs. Lecheheart of selections from "A Kentucky Cardinal" last night at the Presbyterian church was a delightful affair. Prof. Skelton adding to the pleasure of the occasion with his musical renditions.

Mrs. Frank Clark entertained the members of the J. B. McKean Woman's Relief corps at her home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Callow will be at home to their friends at an informal reception at the Kenyon hotel Friday evening, Oct. 29.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Rogers are pleasantly located at their new home, 532 East Sixth street.

Count Leon Labadie and Philip W. Livermore are visiting Samuel Newbome and will probably remain for some time.

Mrs. Albert Walker, Mrs. J. R. Walker and Mrs. Walter Jones were among the Salt Lake people who left this week for St. Louis.

Mrs. Helen Worthington and her father, W. E. Cotton, are spending some time in Philadelphia.

Mrs. R. H. Chubb, formerly of Rowland Hall, is now at home at 25 R street.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Warren are in their new home at 187 F street.

Mrs. J. M. Callow and children leave for a trip to Europe on Saturday, October 29, via Montreal and Glasgow, leaving Montreal on Nov. 3 on the steamship Corinthian, to be gone twelve months.

Mrs. Claudia Morris has returned from a two months' visit with friends in Portland.

Mrs. F. E. Kleinschmidt and daughter have returned from a pleasant trip to the world's fair. They were away a month visiting Mr. Kleinschmidt's family, and his mother returned to the city with them to pass a few months here.

Mrs. George P. Holman is home from a month's visit with her daughter in Portland.

Mrs. Victor M. Clement expects to leave for London about Nov. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Harfenstein are in their new home at 30 P street.

Mrs. I. Marks has returned from California.

Miss Kitty Harris is home from a month's visit to the fair.

Mrs. James C. Leary and daughter Leora, leave this week for the east where Miss Leary will continue her studies.

Miss Mayme Noble left this week for Omaha to spend the next two months in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Morrow of Kansas City are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jung for a short time. Mrs. Morrow and Mrs. Jung are sisters.

Miss Elizabeth McMillan will leave tomorrow for Los Angeles to spend the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. Katherine C. Belcher and her son, Paul, are now at home at the Keith apartment house.

Miss Cordelia Green is in the city from Idaho for a short visit with friends. She is at the home of Mrs. Harry Knowles.

Mrs. George Thompson of Ogden is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Spitz, 157 First street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Richmond have returned from Bingham, where they spent two days as the guests of Andrew Molloy of the Bingham and New Haven mines.

Mr. and Mrs. William Frackwinkle and daughter are at home at the Keith apartment house.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hirsch and Miss Hirsch of Philadelphia, who have been guests for a few weeks at the Siegels, left this week for their home.

Mrs. W. H. Jones and Mrs. E. D. Bickford went to Logan with the Salt Lake delegation.

Mrs. R. B. Berryman and daughter, Mildred, left Wednesday night for a six weeks' visit among friends and relatives in New York, Brooklyn and Poughkeepsie.

Mrs. Victor M. Clement has returned to the city after a lengthy stay in the east, and is at home with Mrs. Woodward at 35 Fifth East street.

Mrs. Wesley Paul left Sunday morning for Goldfield where she will join Mr. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Trent have moved to 280 North Main, the old Fritch home where they will be at home to their friends after November 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Irvine have returned from a short hunting and fishing trip up Provo canyon.

Charles Hollingworth of Ogden spent yesterday in the city with friends.

Miss Rosa Cheeseman, Miss Helen Gillespie, Miss Miller, Miss Margie Miller and Miss Beattie have returned from the Walker farm where they spent the past fortnight under the chaperonage of Mrs. J. H. Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bell and their little daughter left yesterday for St. Louis.

Benner X. Smith has returned from a hunting trip through Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bransford are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Evans for a short time.

Mrs. Caroline Gibson will arrive in the city shortly to visit her son, George J. Gibson.

on Wednesday in the Salt Lake Temple, and a reception was held in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, at 557 west North Temple street. A large number of the relatives and friends were present to express their good wishes and there were many choice presents. An enjoyable time was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Alexander have announced the engagement of their daughter Lila to Wing Bancroft Allen. The wedding will take place soon in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Enslay announce the engagement of their daughter Maud and Roy Watrous, the marriage to take place this month.

The wedding of Miss May Carter and Mr. A. E. Osbourne took place on Monday night at the bride's home, Rev. C. E. Perkins of St. Paul's officiating. The rooms were effectively decorated, and a large number were present to participate in the pleasant affair. Mr. and Mrs. Osbourne will be at home after Nov. 1 at No. 12 Kendall square.

Miss May Ewe and Mr. William Darke, soliciting agent of the Burlington, were married on Wednesday, and left in the evening for an eastern trip, after which they will return here to reside.

One of the surprises of the week was the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Effie Russell Hayward and Mr. Ewell Kendrick, which took place last week at Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick have gone to the world's fair on a wedding trip and will return here to make their home.

The wedding of Miss May Carter and Mr. A. E. Osbourne took place on Monday night at the bride's home, Rev. C. E. Perkins of St. Paul's officiating. The rooms were effectively decorated, and a large number were present to participate in the pleasant affair. Mr. and Mrs. Osbourne will be at home after Nov. 1 at No. 12 Kendall square.

Miss May Ewe and Mr. William Darke, soliciting agent of the Burlington, were married on Wednesday, and left in the evening for an eastern trip, after which they will return here to reside.

One of the surprises of the week was the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Effie Russell Hayward and Mr. Ewell Kendrick, which took place last week at Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick have gone to the world's fair on a wedding trip and will return here to make their home.

The wedding of Miss May Carter and Mr. A. E. Osbourne took place on Monday night at the bride's home, Rev. C. E. Perkins of St. Paul's officiating. The rooms were effectively decorated, and a large number were present to participate in the pleasant affair. Mr. and Mrs. Osbourne will be at home after Nov. 1 at No. 12 Kendall square.

Miss May Ewe and Mr. William Darke, soliciting agent of the Burlington, were married on Wednesday, and left in the evening for an eastern trip, after which they will return here to reside.

One of the surprises of the week was the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Effie Russell Hayward and Mr. Ewell Kendrick, which took place last week at Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick have gone to the world's fair on a wedding trip and will return here to make their home.

The wedding of Miss May Carter and Mr. A. E. Osbourne took place on Monday night at the bride's home, Rev. C. E. Perkins of St. Paul's officiating. The rooms were effectively decorated, and a large number were present to participate in the pleasant affair. Mr. and Mrs. Osbourne will be at home after Nov. 1 at No. 12 Kendall square.

Miss May Ewe and Mr. William Darke, soliciting agent of the Burlington, were married on Wednesday, and left in the evening for an eastern trip, after which they will return here to reside.

One of the surprises of the week was the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Effie Russell Hayward and Mr. Ewell Kendrick, which took place last week at Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick have gone to the world's fair on a wedding trip and will return here to make their home.

The wedding of Miss May Carter and Mr. A. E. Osbourne took place on Monday night at the bride's home, Rev. C. E. Perkins of St. Paul's officiating. The rooms were effectively decorated, and a large number were present to participate in the pleasant affair. Mr. and Mrs. Osbourne will be at home after Nov. 1 at No. 12 Kendall square.

Miss May Ewe and Mr. William Darke, soliciting agent of the Burlington, were married on Wednesday, and left in the evening for an eastern trip, after which they will return here to reside.

One of the surprises of the week was the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Effie Russell Hayward and Mr. Ewell Kendrick, which took place last week at Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick have gone to the world's fair on a wedding trip and will return here to make their home.

The wedding of Miss May Carter and Mr. A. E. Osbourne took place on Monday night at the bride's home, Rev. C. E. Perkins of St. Paul's officiating. The rooms were effectively decorated, and a large number were present to participate in the pleasant affair. Mr. and Mrs. Osbourne will be at home after Nov. 1 at No. 12 Kendall square.

Miss May Ewe and Mr. William Darke, soliciting agent of the Burlington, were married on Wednesday, and left in the evening for an eastern trip, after which they will return here to reside.

One of the surprises of the week was the announcement of the marriage of Mrs. Effie Russell Hayward and Mr. Ewell Kendrick, which took place last week at Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick have gone to the world's fair on a wedding trip and will return here to make their home.

HANDSOME FOR AFTERNOON AND EVENING.

Saturday last and in the evening delivered an eloquent address on Democratic principles in the opera house.

Mr. S. C. Wilson left last week for a few weeks' visit with relatives in Oregon.

Messrs. Fred Nihort and E. R. Sherman of Trenton, were in Brigham Monday.

John Anderson was a visitor to Salt Lake Tuesday.

Dr. Tilton of Columbus, Ohio, who has been visiting in this city for some

SALT LAKE CITY'S EXCLUSIVE FURRIER.

270 MAIN. 270 MAIN.

The Center of Popular Interest.

There's an intrinsic worth to every piece of FUR we sell—a superior quality that insures lasting satisfaction, and when you consider that unprecedented low prices are being quoted on high grade furs you'll appreciate it's even more.

OUR PLAN OF GIVING EXCELLENT, UP-TO-DATE AND GUARANTEED FURS AT PRICES THAT EVERYBODY CAN AFFORD TO PAY IS SO GENEROUSLY INDORSERD BY THE PUBLIC THAT THERE ARE MANY DAYS WHEN WE ARE TAXED TO THE UTMOST TO WAIT UPON OUR FRIENDS.

We maintain a series of coats in the newest models of Broadtail, Seal, Persian Lamb, Astrakhan, Mink, etc.

Also a special showing of Ermine, Russian—Hudson Bay Sable, Baum Marten, Mink, Fox stoles, pelures ties, scarfs, etc.

Latest style muffs to match. Elegant fur sets for the little ladies.

SPECIAL! $3.25 Monday, Oct. 24th. 50 Isabella blended Scarfs at . . .

GARMENTS TO ORDER A SPECIALTY. REPAIRING, REMODELING, CLEANING AND REDYING OF FURS.

Any small deposit secures you your Fur until you are ready to wear it.

270 Main Street.

Telephone Connections. Mail Orders Promptly Filled.

"A babe in the house is a well-spring of pleasure" if he is properly fed and well nourished, then he is happy and "everybody is happy."

Your baby will be healthy and happy and a well-spring of pleasure, if you will give him Mellin's Food.

Sample bottle sent free of charge.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.