The Priesthood meeting of the Parowan Stake of Zion was held in the Parowan meeting house. There was a very good attendance.

Prest. Thos. J. Jones, instructed the brethren to be careful of the Stake to be careful and make correct and full reports and forward the same to the Clerk of the Stake in due time to make up the same. He also exhorted them to encourage others and members to be united and faithful in all things.

Prest. Edward Dalton reminded the brethren on their duties as officers, to be exemplary men of God before the people whom they might have any influence over.

Prest. Morgan Richards, Jr. made a few remarks expressing great pleasure in learning that the Elders during the year had effected the organizations necessary in their several wards, such as Rollers, Y.M.C.A., U. M. L., Primary, Relief, etc., and that all the children had been good and efficient schools, made ingled in the snow, so deep that they stuck fast. After arduous efforts, they managed to extricate themselves and get back to their tents, hounded and bleeding; and their quarrel healed. No matter what the future has in store for these two men, they will never forget the time when they were whirling down the snowy skirts of the Continental divide of North America, and a snow-drift saved them from landing fifteen hundred feet below, in a condition in which none but the coroner and undertaker would feel any practical interest in them. There are the best friends now, and will doubtless continue so.

Quailing before the efforts of Mr. W. M. F. Qiu-min, superintendent of Glass Works, Crystal City, Mo., to cure himself of a most troublesome sore on his knee. One week's faithful use of St. Jacobs' Oil cured him completely, much to his great comfort.

After enjoying themselves for one hour and a half in dancing, the girls were handed around among the many expectant and eager participants candies, cakes, etc. and then their hearts with joy. After another hour's dancing the superintendent closed the audience to order and announced that the Santa Claus would arrive in a few minutes. All now was anxious expectancy when all on a sudden Santa Claus disappeared, making his appearance from the snow-clad mountains of the north, laden with another supply of luxuries. At this time the little girl made her appearance, and in a very kind regard to her having followed him, she seemed delighted in viewing so
