CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 25.—On motion of Sargent the President was asked to furnish information concerning the occupation by British subjects of land on San Juan Island or other islands acquired under the recent award, and whether legislation on the subject is necessary.

Sargent also presented a minority report in the matter of the Sutro tunnel. Ordered printed.

On account of the ravages of the late ice floes and floods in many of the tributaries of the Delaware river, large amounts of lumber have been carried away, dams destroyed and roads obstructed, by the immense deposits of ice by the receding water.

EASTERN.

NEW YORK, 25.—The specie shipments to-day amounted to two and a quarter millions.

WASHINGTON, 25.—In the Poland investigation to-day, Ames stated that he thought he promised, in the latter part of October 1867, to let persons have stock, and the stock assigned to him by the company was to carry out engagements previously made. He thought he had promised some gentlemen in Congress stock prior to December 1867, as he had been trying to get persons interested in the Union Pacific road and the Credit Mobilier, and he had sacrificed some of his own stock in order to fulfil engagements he had previously made up. When he found he could get more stock from the company to fulfil those engagements, he did so. He could not remember if he had any conversation with Colfax in reference to letting him have Credit Mobilier stock. Prior to December 1867, he did not think that he had any conversation with Wilson. Patterson said he had spoken to Wilson previously, but witness could not remember. He thought he had conversation with Bingham and Scofield, but did not remember as to Garfield and Kelly.

JUDGE POLAND: "I understand, Mr. Ames, that you have some further papers which passed between yourself and Patterson?"

"I have."

Ames then read the following receipts: "Washington, June 22nd, 1868.

"Received of Oakes Ames, eighteen hundred dollars, on account of dividends received by him, as trustee on stock held for my account.

"Signed, J. W. Patterson."

POLAND: "You saw him sign it?"

"I wrote the receipt and he signed it."

Ames then read the following:

"BOSTON, May 6th, 1871.

"Received of Oakes Ames two hundred shares of Union Pacific Railroad stock, and seven hundred and fifty-seven and twenty-four hundredths dollars in cash on account of the Credit Mobilier stock. There is still due on the transaction thirty shares in the Credit Mobilier of America, two thousand dollars in income bonds of the Union Pacific Railroad.

"(Signed), J. W. PATTERSON."

Witness said this paper was in his hand writing, but Patterson signed it in his presence.

Witness here handed a letter written him by Patterson. He said he had received several others, which he destroyed. This letter was written since this investigation commenced. He wanted me to make my testimony conform to it. I had lots of conversation with Patterson. The letter read as follows:

"WASHINGTON, Jan. 24, 1873.

Oakes Ames—

"My dear Sir—The facts in regard to the Credit Mobillier, as far as I had any connection with it were as follows: You came to me one day, knowing that my want of means was a chronic evil with me and said, 'Patterson, if you would like, I can let you have thirty shares of stock in the Credit Mobilier, which I think will be a profitable investment and it will be a good thing for you.' My reply, in substance, was that if you had anything which I could properly invest in, and out of which I could make some money, I could be glad to take it, but that I had not the money at that time, and must defer it till I could get it. Your reply was that you presumed I could have it, and pay for it when it might be convenient. You regarded it as a perfectly legitimate transaction. At that time you did not and could not anticipate that you should ever ask for further legislation from Congress in respect to the road, you never did expect it. When it was forced upon you by the Secretary after this conversation with me, you may have had the impression that I should take the stock at some time, but for some reason or other, perhaps for want of funds, and never took any stock, and if I never had any stock in the company I could not, as I did not, have any dividends. If pressed to know if I purchased at any time any bonds or stock of the road, you can say I did, at the time they attempted to embarrass you, when the value of the stock was depressed, and that I paid you the full market value for it. I paid you seven thousand dollars for stock and bonds. The stock was put into the hands of Morton immediately to sell as soon as it should go up reasonably in the market, which he did. I saw Morton on my way through, he said he had never held any stock in Credit Mobilier for any one, but he did not wish to have his name brought into examination if it could be avoided. You said, 'I am going to Ohio, and will see you on my return. Don't fail to correct your original statement before the committee, it must not be reported as it now stands.'

"Very truly &c.,

"(Signed,) J. W. PATERSON."

Ames stated in reply to a question that there were no members of Congress except those he had already testified to, except Logan. He did not mention him before, because he was not a member of the House. Ames said, I want to say further, to the committee, that I have been asked why I held this stock, and why I did not give it to the members themselves. The reason was that the Credit Mobilier stock itself was not entitled to dividends. The stock was held by trust, I having signed a contract making myself personally responsible, and I was the only one who could draw the dividends.

Ames was then questioned about the Dubuque and Sioux City road, named in Stevenson's resolution. He testified that he knew of no members of Congress having received in that road stock as a gift, and there was nothing corrupt in the management of the road.

John B. Alley was called and corroborated this statement.

In the Wilson committee Oliver Ames was examined in reference to the expenditure of a large amount of money on account of Congressional expenses. He did not care to inquire into the particulars of the expenditures, but he approved the report of the committee on the subject. He supposed some money was spent in getting legislation through Congress for the benefit of the Union Pacific road.

REVAIRAH.—A destructive fire occurred at Darlengo, last night, in the Court House, the public records and other property being burned.

NEW YORK.—This evening Richard Kelly, colored, 17 years of age, in passing through Park street, was assaulted by an Italian named Chauncy Levi, without provocation and was stabbed in the right side. The Italian immediately ran away, and ten minutes afterwards stabbed another boy in the breast. Both the injured boys were sent to Park Hospital. Levi was arrested.

WASHINGTON, 25.—In the Caldwell senatorial investigation to-day G. G. Goge, of Topeka, Frank Denny of Waukeua, and A. M. Thomas were examined.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 25.—In the Poland committee to-day Oakes Ames said that Logan agreed to take ten shares stock, that subsequent dividends, as in the case of Kelly and Garfield, paid for it, and left a balance due to Logan of $329, which amount Ames paid, but Logan subsequently returned it with interest. Witness greatly preferred that they call Logan and take his statement why he returned it. Ames produced receipts from Senator Patterson, signed in his own handwriting, for dividends of the Credit Mobilier. Ames said Speaker Blaine had friends in Maine who invested for him, and that he considered Blaine as much a stockholder as himself.

WASHINGTON.—The Senate committee on elections, to-day, were engaged in the examination of a large number of witnesses for the defence in the Caldwell case, including a number of members of the Kansas legislature and a large number of lobbyists. The evidence was mainly rebuttive. The testimony of the witnesses for the prosecution was of a negative character.

Sumner is still feeling doubtful if he can appear in the Senate again this Session.

EXETER, N. H.—Shute took only thirty-five thousand from the National Granite State Bank, but a large amount from the Exeter Savings' Bank.

CINCINNATI.—Yesterday a boiler in the drying house of McVoy & Allison's lumber yard, Mansfield, exploded, killing Adam Kohn, mortally injuring John Rismond, and severely wounding two others.

ST. LOUIS.—J. C. Gurning's wagon factory, at Heilsboro, Ill., was burned yesterday; loss $30,000.

NEW YORK.—A Havana letter says the conviction has come over all that slavery in its present form will be abolished, but not a single step has been taken to secure any other system.

NEW YORK.—The steamer Mors Castle, of the Atlantic mail line, was seized on her arrival from Havana this p.m. for debt. Other steamers of the line are still under seizure.

The coroner's jury to-day rendered a verdict against Michael Nixon, for shooting Charles Pfeifer.

Judge William H. Tracy, of the Marine Court, died this a.m.

Owing to the non-arrival of Judge Boardman in the town to-day, the bill of exceptions in the Stokes case was not proceeded with.

BUFFALO. — The Jersey street Methodist church was burned this morning by an incendiary. Loss $10 000.

BOSTON.—The funeral of Mrs. M. Grey Otis was largely attended.

Shute, cashier of the National Granite State Bank, at Exeter, N. H., has absconded, and is a defaulter in $125,000.

There have been 134 cases of small-pox this week and 35 deaths, being a decrease of more than 5 per cent.

WESTERN.

SAN FRANCISCO, 25.—Professors Lay and Cow and Mr. Kule, of the Bulletin, made a balloon ascension from Woodward's Gardens in the presence of about five thousand people, this afternoon. When last heard from, the aeronauts had landed in the tide marshes, east of Redwood City.

There were eighty-two deaths in this city during the week.

John Stock, who was so badly injured by a horse, a few days since, died to-day.

The Western Union Telegraph Company announces that on and after February 1st, the highest charge for ten word messages, between any of its offices in America, will be two dollars and fifty cents, an important reduction to its patrons.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Active operations will not be undertaken against the Modocs till reinforcements arrive. The settlers in Hot Spring Valley fear a raid upon them as the Indians who had been friendly are missing, and it is reported, have joined Captain Jack's band.

In central New Hampshire the thermometer was below zero eight successive mornings in December.

The inmates of a western hotel all locked their doors recently because a crazy woman shouted through the corridors, "Prepare ye, the Lord is coming."
