for the "News" is permitted to reproduce the following letter from a young man who has written to his grandfather, D. Osborn of Payson, Idaho. The young man comes from Montrose, Idaho, and is but 18 years old. He writes:

Aero, Syria, Turkey, Oct. 19, 1907.

My dear Grandfather,

I am still with Brother and Sister Booth and they treat me very kindly.

Sister Booth has been a great help to me in the past four months. She treats me as her son, as does Brother Booth, and I greatly love them for their kindness to me.

The time is just flying were rendered by Sister Helene Fyhn and Elders Victor E. Macken and N. C. Christensen, Jr. The choir rendered appropriate music in a commendable manner. The saints of Copenhagen are very proud of the talent that exists among the young people of this city along musical lines.

President Christensen expressed satisfaction in the progressive state of this branch of the Church, and was proud of the good work being accomplished by the elders.

During the past month a retired army officer, his two daughters and a son, also one more have been added to the flock, and others are expressing a desire to become initiates.

Much prejudice is being alloyed by the good work of the elders in this city. What opposition we meet comes from the priests, the ignorant and the religious fanatics. During the past six months the elders have done more work here in the city in the line of distributing tracts and literature than has ever been done in the same length of time since the gospel was introduced into Denmark. The following report will show the amount done during the past six months: Copenhagen City: tracts distributed, 24,403; books distributed, 411; strangers houses visited, 28,407; conversions, 1,407; baptisms, 11; missionaries laboring in the city were only five. Following is the report of the conference with the city included: Tracts distributed, 55,074; books distributed, 1,652; strangers houses visited, 46,782; gospel conversations, 1,539; baptisms, 16.

The elders are in the city and outside are doing their very best to spread the truths of the gospel.

The Sunday schools and the Mutual Improvement associations are in excellent condition and a good work is being done in this section. We are generally favored with large congregations to pray for. All the elders are enjoying perfect health and the spirit of their calling.

President J. M. Christensen and Elder Victor E. Madsen, secretary of the mission, have been honorably released to return home after a labor of two and half years in the ministry. A fare-well party was tendered them and Elder H. C. Wilkerson in the large assembly hall Thursday evening. About 200 assembled to pay their respects to the departing brethren. All family was put aside and friends and saints alike joined in what proved to be an extremely pleasant evening's entertainment.

A very appropriate program was rendered. The departing brethren were each presented with a token of remembrance from the missionaries and the members of the branch. At 12 o'clock the evening's enjoyment closed with expressions of best wishes and God-speed on every side for the departing friends.

President Christensen, Elder Victor E. Madsen and a number of others also will leave here on Friday for a sightseeing trip to Germany. While en route they will visit Paris, London and all the principal cities along their line of travel. They will sail for home from Liverpool on the ship Canada, Nov. 21, and the port of entry will be at Portland, Maine.

The brethren will leave with the love, esteem and the best wishes of the elders and friends in Scandinavia.

A very successful program was given Friday evening by the members of the choir in honor of their leader, Victor E. Madsen. There were many beautiful songs rendered by the choir and speeches by a number of the brethren.

Very pleasant evening was spent by all in partaking of refreshments and in a general converse. Elder Madsen was presented with tokens of respect from the members of the choir. N. C. Christensen Jr. has been sustained as choir leader and Hugo C. A. Peterson as organist.

Elder Hyrum Grant followed, speaking of the duties of the saints in every-day life, and the course necessary to obtain and retain the spirit of the gospel.

NEBO STAKE CONFERENCE.

The regular quarterly conference of the Nebo stake convened in the stake tabernacle Nov. 23 and 24 President J. S. Page, Jr., presiding. There were present of the general Church authorities Presidents Joseph E. Smith, Atherton H. Lund, Francis M. Lyman, Patriarch John Smith and Asst. Church Historian Andrew Jensen, also a full attendance of the stake presidency, together with a large representation of high councilors, bishops, presidencies of wards and presiding members of auxiliary organizations.

The special and very important feature of the conference was the dedication of the new stake tabernacle. The saints generally throughout the stake were pleased with this building, and the visiting brethren were well pleased with it, especially did they commend its simplicity and moderate cost.

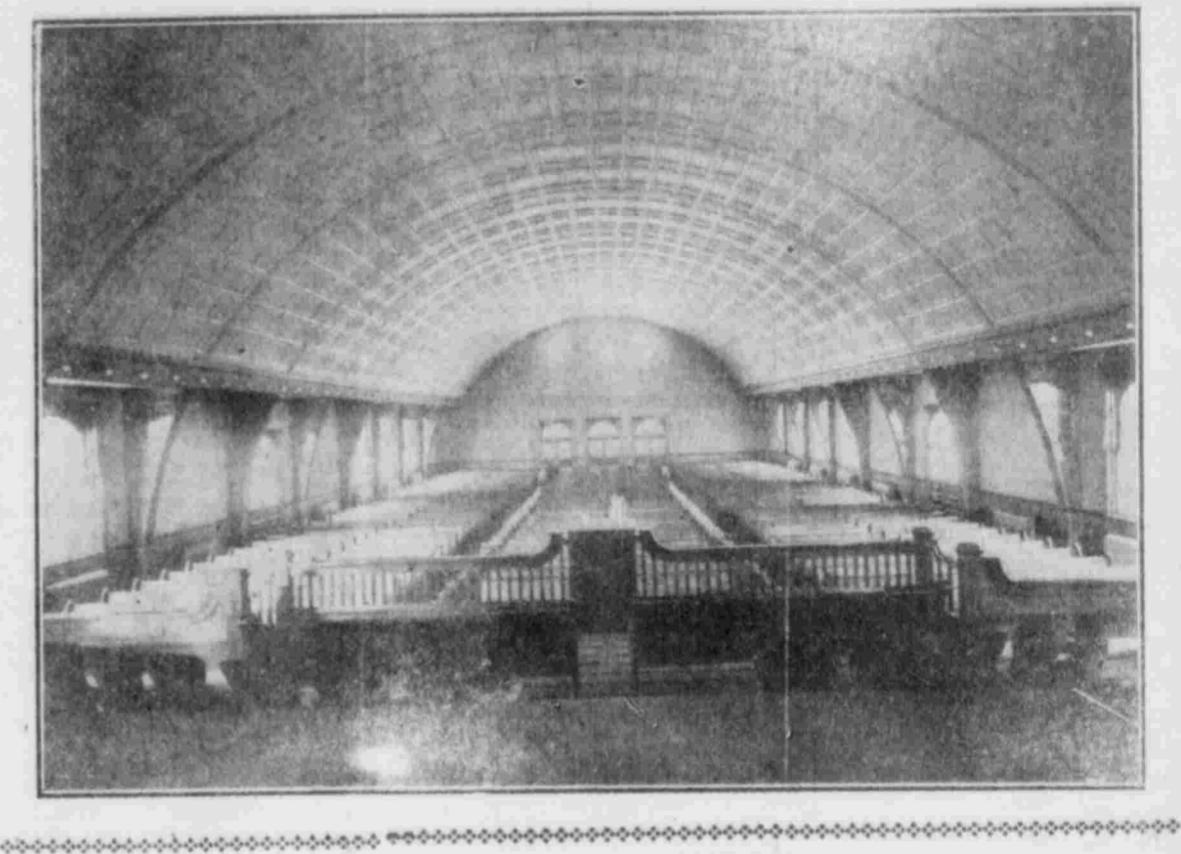

By way of explanation it might be well to mention that the building was erected, paid for and dedicated within 18 months' time. The cost being $22,000. One pleasing feature which is worthy of note is that the second offering was most abundant and the people more appropriated their means willingly and there is no feeling that it has been burdensome to them. The seating capacity is something over 1,600.

At the dedicatory services which were held Sunday afternoon, President Joseph E. Smith, after delivering a powerful and impressive discourse, offered the dedicatory prayer.

The musical program of the whole conference, under the direction of State Chorister George H. Done and Asst. C. Hale, was rendered in a most creditable manner, especially are the following anthems which were written for the occasion worthy of mention: "Hymnogram," "Dedication," by George H. Done, and "Praise the Lord," by O. P. Husch.

The discourses and counsel given were appropriate and highly edifying, the attendance especially on Sunday was large and the people enjoyed the meetings and feel that they have had a time long to be remembered.

GENEALOGY.

States mission presiding. Regardless of the incident through the dense fog and the slow transportation brought about by the weather, there was a large attendance at every session of the conference. The statistical report showed marked improvement, both in the Sunday school and branch membership. The gospel is spreading in Seattle, and the elders are making a host of friends by their earnest and zealous preaching.

The discourses delivered at the conference were all inspiring. President Pratt and visiting elders from Tacoma conference, Elder V. Bran, Elder Cowley, Elders Swindell and Hooper, and Elder Kirby of Seattle being the speakers.

Miss Cora Hawley assisted by Miss Anna Mason sang a beautiful solo.

There are so many letters for this department this week that most of them will be answered privately, and those which have some general interest will appear here for the present.

The Daughters of the Pioneers wish to express this beautiful Thanksgiving week their profound gratitude to the Father of us all, who has answered their souls and public offerings.

VIC. F. H. SNOW.

Carson, Alberta, Canada.

WARNER.

Samuel B. Warner of Riga, Idaho, wishes to know if there are any of his name in the Church, who have genealogical information. He did a little work in the Logan temple in 1896. He had at that time some 50 names, but his father informed him that there were only 17 of his kindred dead ready to receive the gospel. And when he came to compare his list he found just that number with sufficient data for the work to be done. Any Warner who is interested may address Elder Warner at Riga, Idaho.

INTERESTING INCIDENT.

Elder William Wright of Centerville, Utah, writes as follows: "I have seen many marvelous things in this Church and have experienced some, but I have done little to write up, I have done considerable work in the temple for my kindred, and the work goes on; for I cannot find all that I secure, for lack of time and means. I started my work in the Logan temple, but continue it in the Salt Lake temple. At one time I had a growth in my left side which came to a very large lump. I went to several doctors, but got no satisfaction. At last I decided to go to the temple and seek for my kindred. After entering the temple I went to sit down, and the work I was sick to go on with the work. I was at last conducted to Prest. Lorenzo Snow. He came to me and he read me as if I were an open book. He looked me through and through. Then he asked me if I had the Word of Wisdom. I told him that I did all but in the matter of drinking tea. He asked me if I couldn't quit my tea. I told him I would try. Then he asked Elder William Salmon to anoint me, and Prest. Snow blessed me and confirmed the anointing. He told me I should be healed if I would keep the Word of Wisdom. That growth has stopped from that day to this, it has never grown a particle."
