LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

WEATHER ITEM.—The highest point reached by the thermometer to-day was 50.

THEATRE.—Mr. Carroll, and his three talented children, Little Dick, Master Eddie and Master Bennie, have been engaged for a few nights and will make their first appearance to-night, in some of their clever performances, introducing numerous songs and dances.

The entertainment to-night will open with the historical drama, "Blanche Heriot," and conclude with performance of the Carroll family.

BENEFIT OF MR. PHIL. MARGETTS.—The ever humorous Phil. takes a benefit on Friday night, when, doubtless, the house will be filled. Phil. is popular both on and off the stage. A very attractive bill is being prepared for the occasion, and all the best talent within reach will be brought into requisition. That very artistic and clever actress, Miss Couldock, will give a recitation, and Mr. Charles A. Gerald, the champion skater, will appear in one of his skating acts. One of the pieces which will be presented is "The Rose of Estrick Vale," in which that talented and favorite actor, Mr. David McKenzie, will appear as "Wandering Steenie." Miss A. Adams will personate "the Rose," and Mr. J. A. Thompson, who has not been on the boards for some time, will also appear in the same play.

WHY NOT?—The Omaha Herald asks, "Why did not the virtuous McKean, when in Congress, do something to reform the morals of his own State in the course of his life?"

AN ABSURD POSITION.—Judge McKean has placed himself in a very absurd and consequently unenviable position with regard to some of the cases pending before him. In alluding to the charge against President Young, he said it was not really "The people of the U. S. in the Territory of Utah vs. Brigham Young," but would be better named "The United States vs Polygamic Theocracy." In taking this position he assumes that polygamy exists in Utah. If a man is a polygamist he must have more wives than one. In the Hawkins case the Judge asserted that a man could have but one wife. In fact the matter stands thus: The Judge assumes that a "Polygamic Theocracy" exists, that there are men who have more wives than one, tries, fines, and imprisons a man, as in the Hawkins case, for "committing adultery with his wives," and, in order to so adjudicate, repudiates his former position which has been published to the world, by saying that a man can have but one wife at a time. These are facts, and we wish the public to note them.

ACCIDENTS AT OGDEN. — Yesterday morning, Mr. Flygare, the builder, while engaged on Mr. D. H. Peery's new house on the bench, fell from a ladder to the ground, a distance of about ten feet. He had a triangular bit in his hand at the time, and this striking him while falling, inflicted three wounds above his left temple. A piece of board cut open his scalp to the skull near the top of the cranium. Mr. Flygare received other minor wounds in his head. He was also hurt in the small of the back. Dr. P. L. Anderson was called on to attend him, and Mr. Flygare is progressing favorably. His many friends will be glad to learn that he is not in any danger.

On Wednesday morning last a switch engine on the U. P. got on to the wrong track and ran into a U. S. mail car; one drawhead was broken, another bent, and the tender of the switch-engine slightly damaged. Nobody hurt.—Ogden Junction, Oct. 28.

ACCIDENT TO BISHOP WILDE.—The following was received on Saturday evening, too late for publication in the NEWS of that day:

COALVILLE, Oct. 28.—Editor Deseret News: Bishop H. B. Wilde met with an accident yesterday p.m. He had started for the kanyon, the horses became frightened, and he was thrown from the wagon, one of the wheels passing over his left arm and breaking it. He was conveyed home, where assistance was procured. He is in a fair way of recovery.

NOW IS THE TIME, and it may not last long, for men to prove that they fear God more than they fear fine or imprisonment or even the fulsome piety of a sorrowful judge.

QUERY FOR THE SORROWFUL JUDGE.—If a man must be severely fined and imprisoned for "committing adultery with his own wife," against which there is neither law nor commandment, what must be done to the man who has committed adultery with his neighbor's wife, against which there is both law and express commandment? If the Judge cannot answer that question satisfactorily, he may very appropriately assume the character of the Judge with the "Rueful Countenance."

WE had an evidence this morning in Court of the high estimate the prosecution place upon President Daniel H. Wells. The assistant prosecuting attorney, the expression of whose face—we say it with all due respect—reminds us of a heavy villain in a melodrama, blurted out, when bail was mentioned, that it ought to be $500,000. This is only five times the amount required of Jeff Davis. We think President Wells was honored by the expression.

IN the argument on admitting Mayor Wells to bail, heard this morning in the District Court, the prosecuting attorney concluded as follows:

"I think that this Court has no legal authority to admit these parties to bail, and, therefore, having no legal authority, I am unwilling that they should be admitted however much my sympathy might prompt me to act otherwise, because my sympathies are always in favor of a man who is in trouble and arraigned for crime, and I would always rather defend than prosecute a man. It is only in extreme cases and when the public benefit requires it, and I think that a certain class of crimes ought to be prosecuted for the benefit of the public, would I ever appear in the capacity of a prosecuter."

These remarks, coming from such a source, called forth a general snicker from the audience. The idea of the speaker having any sympathy with an accused man, especially if the accused was a Mormon, was decidedly ludicrous and every one who knew him laughed. The echo of his words had scarcely died away, when they were palpably falsified by the speaker himself. No sooner had Judge McKean delivered his ruling, which we publish in another column, than this person seized his hat and cane in a most angry and contemptuous manner, as though on the point of leaving the court room. He plainly showed the audience how much sympathy he had with the prisoner. The expression on his face was that of brutal malignity, as though nothing less than the annihilation of the accused would satisfy him.

SHOT DEAD.—On the night of Friday last a man was shot and killed by Philip Jones, while in the act of stealing and running off the latter's horses. An inquest was held on the body, on Saturday, by Coroner H. S. Beatie and a jury, when the following verdict was rendered:

Coroner's Inquest.

Territory of Utah, County of Salt Lake, South Cottonwood Precinct, Oct. 28th, 1871.

We, the jury, having been duly empanelled and sworn to inquire into the cause of the death of an unknown person, whose body lies here, from the testimony before us, on our oaths, do say the deceased, a man about thirty-five years old, and five feet eight inches in height, came to his death, Oct. 27th, at about 10 o'clock p.m. by pistol shots from the hand of Phillip Jones, while in the act of riding away the said Jones' horse.

JAMES WINCHESTER,
MARION H. BRADY,
CHARLES WILKINS.

I certify the above is a true copy.
H. S. BEATIE, Coroner.

A copy of the evidence given at the inquest and a full description of the deceased are in possession of the Coroner.

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

MILLIONS BEAR TESTIMONY TO THE WONDERFUL CURATIVE EFFECTS OF

J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS

Which are a Iron Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFEGIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

Never let the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.
