

House and nominated George M. Scott for mayor. The other men on the ticket were mostly questionable characters, such as had taken an active part against the "Mormons" during the campaign.—The dead body of William W. Seymour was found in Uintah County, Utah. He had been shot a few days previous.

Wed. 15.—Judge John Lee Logan, associate justice of the Supreme Court, of Idaho, died.

Thurs. 16.—Great Liberal ratification meeting at the Walker Opera House, Salt Lake City.—Elias A. Beckstrand, of Meadow Creek, Millard Co., released from the Utah Pen., after serving 115 days for unl. coh.—John H. Giles accidentally killed at Littleton, Morgan Co.—Six murderers were hanged at Fort Smith, Ark.

Fri. 17.—Boston, Mass., was visited by a destructive fire.

Sat. 18.—Robert H. Ford fell from a window on the Temple, Salt Lake City, thirty feet to the ground below, receiving fatal injuries, from the effects of which he died on the 23rd.

Sun. 19.—Considerable blockade on the railways in Utah and in the whole western country because of snow.

Mon. 20.—In the several primary meetings held in the different Bishop's Wards, in Salt Lake City, delegates to the People's municipal convention were chosen.—Judge Zane sworn in as chief justice of the Territorial Supreme Court.

Tu. 21.—The Supreme Court decided against the election of aldermen for Salt Lake City.

Wed. 22.—James Anderson released from the Utah Pen.—A terrific storm raged in Dakota and surrounding Territories and States on this and following days.

Thurs. 23.—Mons Anderson, of Lehi, Utah Co., released from the Utah Pen., where he had served a term for unl. coh.

Fri. 24.—Six people killed and thirty injured by an explosion of natural gas in Columbus, Ohio.

Sat. 25.—The People's Party of Salt Lake City, had their second parade in a heavy rainstorm.—William Webb, of American Fork, released from the Utah Pen., where he had served a term for alleged adultery.—George Seamons committed suicide at Rockport, Summit Co.—Nellie Bly of the New York World, arrived in New York from the west, having traveled around the globe in 72 days, 6 hours and 11 minutes.

Sun. 26.—O. J. Spencer and George A. Peart were arrested at Randolph, Rich Co., on charge of unl. coh.

Mon. 27.—The People's Party municipal Convention convened in the Theatre, Salt Lake City, and the following day agreed upon a ticket, headed by Spencer Clawson, as candidate for mayor.—William McFarland, sen., a Church veteran, 95 years old, died in West Weber, Weber Co.—Elder Samuel M. Lee died at Panacea, Nevada.

Tu. 28.—John Frantzen, of Spring City, released from the Utah Pen., where he had served a thirteen months' sentence on a conviction of adultery with his wives.

Wed. 29.—An enthusiastic People's Party ratification meeting held in the Theatre, Salt Lake City.—Thomas Broadbent emerged from the Utah Pen.

Thurs. 30.—C. S. Varlin confirmed as U. S. attorney for Utah.—In the First District Court, at Ogden, William Archibald, of Clarkston, Cache Co., was sentenced to 21 months' imprisonment and $50 fine and costs and imprisoned the same day.

Fri. 31.—The grand bridge over the Firth of Forth, on the line of the Midland Railway, near Edinburgh, Scotland, was opened.

FEBRUARY.

Great floods devastated Oregon.

Sat. 1.—Edison perfects a device for photographing a flying bullet by electricity.

Sun. 2.—The dead body of an unknown man frozen to death was found north of the Hot Springs, in Davis County.—Sidney B. Kent, of Lewiston, Cache Co., and Thomas H. Winder released from the Utah Pen.—Ten persons burned to death at a fire at Boston, Mass.

Mon. 3.—A new baptismal font located in the basement of the southwest portion of the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, dedicated.

—Grand go-as-you-please parade by the Salt Lake City Liberal clubs.—Henry W. Naisbitt arrested in Salt Lake City on a charge of unl. coh.—The Supreme Court of the United States rendered an opinion affirming the constitutionality of the Idaho test oath.—Secretary Tracy's house at Washington, D. C., burned; his wife and daughter perished.

Tu. 4.—Elder Edgar D. Simmons, of Salt Lake City, who labored as a missionary in the Turkish Mission, died at Aintab, Syria, Asia Minor.—The appointment of Ellsworth Daggett, surveyor general of Utah, confirmed.—Reuben Gurr released from the Utah Pen.

Wed. 5.—P. L. Quist, of Monroe, Sevier Co., released from the Utah Pen., having served five months for unl. coh.

Thurs. 6.—One hundred and fifty miners killed by an explosion at Abersychan, Wales.

Fri. 7.—An outdoor People's Party meeting held in front of the City Hall, Salt Lake City. It was the largest political meeting ever held in Utah.—Last Liberal parade of the campaign, in Salt Lake City.—Joseph P. Barton, of Paragonah, released from the Utah Pen.—The dead body of Haus Clausen was found in the rear of Mr. Auerbach's "Progress Building", Salt Lake City.

Sat. 8.—The third and last parade of the People's Party took place in Salt Lake City.

Sun. 9.—Elder Alexander S. Izatt died at Logan.

Mon. 10.—The municipal election in Salt Lake City, for which so much planning had been made, resulted in victory to the Liberals, who through the grossest fraud managed to steal the city.—Albert M. Baker emerged from the Utah Pen.—Nine million acres of Sioux lands opened to settlement in South Dakota.

Tu. 11.—Salt Lake City Ry. Company granted a franchise by the city Council. The Rapid Transit Company was also given a franchise.

Wed. 12.—R. M. Humphrey, of Salina, Sevier Co., released from the Utah Pen., where he had served four months for having lived with his wives.—George W. Kistler, a brakeman on the Utah Northern Ry., was run over by a train and fearfully mangled. He died in the evening.—Elder Russel K. Homer died in Clarkston, Cache Co.—In the First District Court, at Ogden, Orson J. Spencer, of Randolph, Rich Co., was sentenced to three months' imprisonment and $100 fine and costs, and imprisoned next day.

Thurs. 13.—John F. Beck, of Spanish Fork, Utah Co., released from the Utah Pen., where he had served a five months' term for unl. coh.

Fri. 14.—John H. Tippets, one of the Pioneers of 1847, died in Farmington Davis Co.

Sat. 15.—Judge Powers was banqueted by the Liberals in Salt Lake City, and presented with $10,000.

Sun. 16.—The inmates of the Utah Pen. were locked in their cells and a general search inaugurated.

Mon. 17.—Newman Van Leuvan, of Aurora, Sevier Co., released from the Utah Pen., where he served a term of 100 days for unl. coh.—Bishop George L. Farrell, of Smithfield, Cache Co., arrested on a charge of unl. coh.

Tu. 18.—The Liberals take possession of the municipality of Salt Lake City, and commence an inglorious government.

Wed. 19.—J. H. Van Natta arrested in Salt Lake City on a charge of unl. coh.—Grand Liberal jollification parade and fireworks in Salt Lake City.

Thurs. 20.—John Dunn, an aged man of Three Mile Creek, Box Elder Co., was arrested in Salt Lake City, on a charge of unl. coh.

Fri. 21.—Judge Zane rendered a decision that prisoners under the Edmunds law could not be held over their term of sentence for costs alone.—Thomas R. Jackson released from the Utah Pen.

Sat. 22.—Jens Jørgensen, of Mt. Pleasant, released from the Utah Pen., where he had served a long term for having lived with his wives.

Sun. 23.—Seven prisoners made their escape from the Salt Lake City jail.—Forty people were drowned by the bursting of a dam, of a storage reservoir, at Walnut Grove, Arizona; loss $1,000,000.

Mon. 24.—John Quarnberg of Scripio, Millard Co., Thomas Johnson, of Glenwood, Sevier Co., and C. W. Mann, of Bountiful, Davis Co., were released from the Utah Pen., where they had been imprisoned for unl. coh.—Chicago, Ill., selected as the World's fair site by the U. S. House of Representatives.

Tu. 25.—Bishop Joseph Pollard, of the Fifteenth Ward, Salt Lake City, died.—In the First District Court, at Provo, Teancuna Pratt, of Spring Glen, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and $100 fine and costs, J. C. A. Weibye, of Manti, to six months and costs, both for unl. coh., and Henry Teaples, of Burrville, to eighteen months and costs, for "adultery".

Wed. 26.—Fifty striking laborers in Russia were so cruelly tortured by the government that they suicided.

Thurs. 27.—The appointment of Blackburn, as associate justice of Utah was confirmed. On March 8th following he took the oath of office in Provo.

Fri. 28.—Elder Heber K. Perkins died in the Seventeenth Ward, Salt Lake City.—Peter C. Anderson, of Huntsville, Weber Co., released from the Utah Pen., having served out an 18 months' sentence for alleged adultery.

MARCH.

The Old Constitution Building, Salt Lake City, was torn down to make room for a new five-story building to be erected immediately.—The remains of the late Willard Richards and others were removed from the family burial ground, east of the Deseret Museum, in Salt Lake City, and placed in the cemetery.—Foster R. Kenner, of Manti, Sanpete Co., buried a dog and found a fortune.—Great floods along the lower Mississippi inundated waste tracts of land, and did an immense amount of damage.

Sat. 1.—Bishop Charles Jensen, of Koosbarn, Piute Co., Hans C. Nielsen, of Salina, Sevier Co., and Hans Sørensen, of Aurora, Sevier Co., having served their terms of imprisonment in the Utah Pen., for unl. coh., were set at liberty.

Sun. 2.—Walter E. Wilcox released from the Utah Pen., having served his term for breaking the Edmunds law.

Mon. 3.—Elder John C. Hall died at Rockville, Washington Co., Utah.

Tu. 4.—The Utah Supreme Court made an order terminating the lease of the Gardo House and hereafter renting it to the highest bidder. The following day the lease of the Tithing House grounds was terminated the same way.—Barth, probate judge of Salt Lake Co., in connection with the estate of the late Orson Pratt, rendered a decision in favor of polygamous children.

Wed. 5.—Salt Lake Clearing House Association organized.

Thurs. 6.—Seven passengers were killed by an accident on the Lake Shore Ry., near Buffalo, N. Y.

Fri. 7.—In the First District Court, at Provo, by Judge Blackburn, Andrew O. Andersen, of Glenwood, and Henry M. Payne, of Aurora, Sevier Co., were sentenced to six months' imprisonment and $300 fine and costs, each, and William A. Stewart, of Central, to four months and $50 fine, all for unl. coh.—Charles W. Hempstead committed suicide by shooting himself in Salt Lake City.

Sat. 8.—Bishop A. A. Janson, of Brigham City, emerged from the Utah Pen.

Sun. 9.—Søren Madsen, of Monroe, Sevier Co., died in Salt Lake City, from the effects of poison.—Mrs. Gnesine Collette, wife of a wealthy farmer, and her seven children were burned to death in a horrible manner, at Cote St. Michel, Canada.—Half a million people at London, protested against the barbarous treatment of Siberian exiles.

Mon. 10.—The Gardo House rented to Bishop John R. Winder for $450 per month, he being the highest bidder. Hence the building will remain in the hands of the Church for the time being.—John W. Young's railroads in Utah incorporated under the name of the Utah Central.

Tu. 11.—Father William Park, of Mill Creek, Salt Lake Co., died.—Maggie McDonald, a six year old child, was crushed to