They secured a lead which Butte could not evercome, although Wilmot's men made a feeble effort to catch up. The detailed McCloskeyites Walloped the Indians Again Yesterday; Score 11 to 5. Spokane, Aug. 11.—The visitors took the spokane, Aug. II.—The visitors took the shird game of the series today, hands fown. It was simply a walk-away from the start, and the victory was won by superior hitting on the part of the Boise batters, alded by many raw errors by the Indians. The Boise tailles came in bunches, while the local team was playing horse. The seventh inning was most disastrous, as every man in the Boise tail had a turn at the bat and smashed the ball all over the lot. Score:

FUNNY STORY FROM LOS ANGELES

Says That Pacific Coast League Will Absorb the Pacific National.

STRANCE THINGS MAY HAPPEN.

Statement That Spokane Wants to Get Into the League is Repeated-We Are Left Out.

"News" readers of this page will recall that several weeks ago we published, stories from northern papers to the effect that Williams of the Spokane club was trying to get into the Pacific Coast league, and desert the Pacific National, organization, of which Sait Lake is a member.

The statement was hotly denied by the gentleman in question. Next, Dame Rumor had it that the Boise club was in the throes of dissolution, and the death of the league was only a question of hours-to hear the gossips tell it. It was said that the McCloskeyites would not come here for the last series with Salt Lake. But they came and did fair-ly well. McCloskey declared that the team would stick as long as there was any team to play with. And they are sticking. The next terrible tale was that Salt Lake was about to disband, and would never leave Sait Lake for the present series with Butte: But the team did leave, and from all accounts is doing right well at Smoketown. Now we hear that the Butte team is about to perish. But the best piece of fiction comes from Los Angeles, published in the Times of that city. It is to the effect that the Pacific National league's death is only a matter of hours, and that when it happens, the coast people will have everything to themselves; that Spokane will probably be taken in. The story is published herewith for what it is worth:

"Stranger things have happened in sports than one baseball league absorbing another, but it begins to look now as if this might be possible as a result of conditions in the northwest. The finish of the Pacific National league is about due, and any day may see the end, and when this comes it will mean the control of the entire coast by the Pacific coast league.

Pacific coast league,
Just how fast the northerners are on the run may be imagined from the fact that the Spokane banker who is the good angel for the Spokane team, was in San Francisco last week trying to make a dicker with some of the Pacific Coast magnates on a scheme whereby Spokane could be taken into the coast league next year. This Spo-kane "angel" practically admitted that the Pacific National was a failure and that the Spokane team was the only one that had made any money above expenses. This northern emissary was given little encouragement by President Bert and Harris and Pwing, because Spo-kane could not be taken in unless some other city in the same territory also came in, to make an even number of

"If Spokane should be admitted, a good California city might be found in Stockton, which is in the central part of the state, close to San Francis-co, and was once a fine ball town in the state league some years ago, when Phil Knell and Jim McDonald were stars. It would be a half-way break in the long jump from here to Seattle or Tacoma, and as a winter town would do away with the necessity of playing games in Fresno.

games in Fresno.

"Manager Morley of the local team stated yesterday that there had been some talk when he was in San Francisco last week about taking in Spokane cisco last week about taking in Spokane next year, but the discussion had not led to anything denite. In all probability some such action will be taken for the northern circuit, as arranged at present, is not entirely satisfactory and an effort will be made to patch it up next year, for the coast league magnates will not give up the territory they have not in Seattle, Portland and Tacoma."

JACK MUNROE TALKS.

Which Statement is Not Intended as Sensational-What He Expects.

According to a statement coming from San Francisco, Jack Munroe had a packed house to see him train yes-terday. The miner's headquarters, at terday. The miner's headquarters, at Sheehan's, was the scene of some lively work on the part of Jeffries' opponent, and, although the fight is about three weeks off, Munroe is working as earnestly as though it were to come off tomorrow. Advices from Harbin today were to the effect that Jeff spent a comparatively quiet day and entertained several visitors from Frisco. He says he will put in much of his time the coming week in the gymnasium.

Interest is increasing day by day and the club management now looks for the club management now looks for-ward to a big house on the night of the fight. The referee cuestion has not been settled, but will likely be patched up this week some time. Eddle Graney is generally conceded to have the call, and it is said Jeff will insist on that official judging the bout, or there will be no fight. On the other hand Harry Pollak, Munroe's manager, is dead sore on Graney, because he claims Graney gave Young Corbett the worst of it in his go with Jinmy Britt, but as Jeff is the champion, his word will go a long way toward bringing Poliak to Jeffries has never relished the no-pas never permitted nimen to get argry at an opponent, and he has not been cruel to men who have stood before him in a helpless condition and practically at his mercy. With Munroe, however, it may be different, for if he decides to put Munroe out he will no doubt give the miner the worst beating of his life.

'Jeffries will have a hard contract or said Munroe in discussing his plans for the coming battle. "You know Jeffries is a great fighter, but isn't it strange that he has never put his men out clean? Take his fights with Fitzsimmons and Corbett, toth of them have fought him twice and neither was knocked out.

"Corbett was knecked down in his first battle by a blow on the jaw, but he was practically out from a body walloping before he received the blow. In his hist encounter it was the body punishment alone that beat him. Fitzpunishment alone that beat him. Fitz-simmons was work down by body blows and Sharkey and Rualin were likewise beaten about the body by the champion. If I can stond the gaff in the stomach, and I am sure that I can, I don't think Joffries will be champion after our little argument."

Billy Delaney, who is looking after the champion, is well pleased with his condition and he says that he will enter the ring in excellent condition.

The Butto Intermountain has the following:

A gentleman who places his autograph upon the hotel register as "J. Erry McCarthy, late of Colorado and Utah," has arrived in the city and taken a suite of rooms at Teague's training quarters, where he will indulge in some violent exercises during the coming week, including numerous road runs and other healthful and wind-deeveloping stunts. Mr. McCarthy has the contract to poke a few sink holes into the lurid countenance of one Mr. Mose Lafontise, who is something of a phiz-spoiler himself.

These gentlemen will appear in a kissing bee to be held in this city at an early date, where the osculation will be passed to and fro on the tip of their suede gauntlets, weighing each in the aggregate five ounces. Mr. La Fontise strongly resents the assertions of Mr. J. Erry McCarthy that his countenance will look like a Hamburger steak without onlons after the exchange of compilments, and will resent such rudeness by slapping his friend various times acrosss the pate with his mitt straight games. In spite of all that has been said about the lengue breaking up; about Butte fall-ing by the waysine, and the story pub-lished in the Los Angeles Times, local fans have been assured that Butte would stick to the end of the season.

Hurrah for the home team! It walloped he miners again yesterday, making ave

Kid McCoy, accompanied by Mrs. Kid, have gone to Ogden, where they expect to spend a few days at the Oaks resort before going to the coast. McCoy said he intended going to San Francisco, but would probably make his headquarters at Los Angeles. He feels confident of securing some good matches there.

There will be automobile races at Og-den Sunday afternoon. The meet has been arranged for by Ogden auto drivers assisted by local men, and they feel sure of a successful time. A large crowd of local chauffeurs, with their friends, will leave here early tomorrow morning for a run to the Junction city. Tomorrow evening there will be a grand parade of automobiles at Ogden.

After an association of six years John Hertz and Benny Yanger have dissolved relations. The manager and boxer have concluded that they would better separate, as differences, which have been small in the past, have continued to grow wider during the past few months.

As for the reasons for the dissolution of co-partnership, neither Yanger nor Hertz was disposed to be very explicit. "I simply thought it best to start out for myself," said Yanger.

"Benny thinks he can do as well by himself," said Hertz, "and, it he feels that way, I am disposed to let him try it. I managed his affairs for six years, and I think, with credit both to himself and to me."

Here is another one on Tim McGrath; Several years ago Tim noticed that the Jewish population of San Francisco closed their shops for a holiday. Tim asked some of his friends what it meaut. "They are observing Yom Kippur." vouchsafed one.

vouchsafed one.

Tim forthwith went to his pince of business, closed it as tight as a corked bottle and put out a sign reading: "Closed on account of a holiday."

"What are you doing?" asked Joe Corbett bett.

"Observing the holiday," returned Tim.
"But you are not a Jew."

"That does not make any difference; I never heard of Yom Kippur before and I'm going to lay off and play the game if I have to give three to one to get a bet."

The next day after the holiday was over, all the Hebrew population of the city was around to find out when Tim changed his religion.

Jim Corbett has issued a challenge to Bob Fitzsimmons. He is willing to meet the Cornishman at any place and under any conditions.

"Ever since that Carson City affair." said Corbett, "I have been trying to get him to give me another chance. He has ignored all my challenges, and I now issue a final one in the hope of getting a match before he retires from the ring or before he takes on somebody else.

"I am going to Europe next spring to fill some theatrical engagements, and would like to fight Fitzsimmons before I depart. He can name his own term. I will agree to meet him on the coast in a twenty-round bout, but I do not object to a six-round bout in Chicago or Philadelphia.

"I will be ready to take on Fitz six

"I will be ready to take on Fitz six weeks after my bout with O'Brien is decided. I am prepared to sign articles of agreement now."
