Unknown Man Dives Into a Fiery

Furnace. Connelisville, Pa., April 15.—Leaping high into the air, as an expert diver would in taking a fancy plunge in the water, an unknown man committed suiolde this morning at the foundry works of the H. C. Frick Coke company by diving into a coke oven. In less than a minute what had been a man apparently in the full vigor of life had mingled with the curling smoke of the ovens, distinguished only by its bluishbrown color and nauseating odor from the gas smoke of the burning coal, more tragic death never occurred in

The coke-workers saw him only for an vant them. instant as he prepared for the lead. He yesterday after- was well dressed, of medium height and weight, and smooth shaven.

For the slightest space of time he seemed to pause on the sloping ground behing the ovens, then, quick as a flash, he ran down the slope, taking the quick, short step of a trained athlate.

Eight feet from the oven top the man hot into the air, his hands poised above is head in the fashion of a diver, and, descending swiftly, dropped head first into the trunnel head of an oven that had burned to the sizzling white heat of coke just before it is drawn. For an instant the body clogged the trunnel hand and the best weighted as the body head and the legs wriggled as though a desperate effort was being made to

All there was to show of the man who but a few seconds before had been in life was a ength. There is nothing about it that could be used as a means of identification. It will be buried tomorrow.

In part

"A widely prevalent sentiment in our home churches is that civillation—not in its essence even, but in the mere trappings of it—forms a large, if not the chief part of what the coming of the kingdom means to the heathen nations. If this were true, then the world rather than the church would be the proper agency to conduct missions, and the best evangelists to be found in China would be her great viceroy and diplo-matists, not converted even, but only westernized-if such a thing were con-

To de-Confu-cianize him will usually require, not only regeneration, but also quite a lengthy period of progressive sanctifica-tion. The new strike is aimed directly at

"We decided it best to take action which would make it impossible for the fighting contractors to continue to have e work of such buildings as Marshal

"So we decid-ed by a unanimous vote to call a new strike of the union pulmbers who were llowed to continue at work when the other 300 union plumbers were locked out by the members of the building contractor's council. Not a union plumber will be at work in this city tomorrow. We will see if the bosses can't be forced to arbitrate."
