Harris. During the entire conference we enloyed ourselves greatly in our associations together, and feel to thank our Heavenly Father for the spirit and instructions received. Much credit is due the people of this locality for the kind hospitality ex-tended to us; for which we feel to tender our sincere thanks, and invoke the blessings of God upon them, with all others who have ministered to the wants and comfort of fills servants. We all leave for our fields of labor feeling much refreshed by the good time we have had together. Ever praying for the welfare of Zion liremain your brother in the Gospel of Christ. A. H. WOOLLEY, Clerk of Conference.
