

Mattie Best, a child of Gallagher and an infant of Andrews. Nineteen business houses, railroad depot and twenty buildings were destroyed. Only five houses in the place are not damaged. Physicians, nurses, medicines, coffins, provisions and everything is being furnished. The scene beggars description. The earth is covered with debris and the groans of the wounded are heart-rending.

LARAMIE CITY, May 29.—Fred B. King, the courier who arrived on Thursday with intelligence that the Utes were in North Park, started back yesterday. Getting to Cummins City, thirty miles southwest, he met three men just from the Park, with letters and dispatches. Taking a fresh horse he returned, reaching here at 10 o'clock last night. Next day after, Burlingame was driven into Walden's by the Indians. Walden and O'Brien started out with Burlingame to verify his story. Near Illinois Creek they saw 400 or 500 ponies and a large band of Indians, thought to be Utes. The Indians were separating their ponies from the herd, as though preparing for some expedition. The three men returned, and the entire party of men, women and children at Walden's camp, numbering about thirty-five, packed and retreated to Pinkham, in the north end of the Park, where they are fortified.

The mail carrier from this city to Tyner, in the North Park, reports seeing several bands of Indians at a distance on his last trip in. Nothing has been seen or heard of Carr or Dow. They have undoubtedly been killed. King brought dispatches from Walden and others to Governor Pitkin for help.

General Flint, of Ft. Sanders, telegraphed to Fort Steele for pack horses to be sent by special train, and two companies will be sent to the rescue to-morrow. The party now at Pinkham's is poorly armed and great fears are entertained for their safety. There are several hundred miners and prospectors in the North Park, and the Indians will probably kill a great many before they can get together in sufficient numbers to oppose them. The North Park is some distance from the reservation, and the only way into it from the north is via Laramie City. No one feared Indians, and consequently those who have gone in have but few arms.

General Pope telegraphs he will send a large number of troops in as soon as possible to protect those who leave from here.

PHILADELPHIA, 29.—John Vincent, second mate of the British ship Sophia, Richard Hendricks, seaman, and two apprentices, John Barber and George Chapman, were amusing themselves in the oil room of the ship to-day while awaiting dinner, when one of the parties when into cook's galley adjoining, and making a poker red hot, returned with it to the oil room. As this demonstration did not stampede the party, the poker was thrust at a barrel of kerosene. An explosion immediately followed, the oil room and galley were demolished, and the cook, Joseph Lewis, mate, seaman and boys were covered with burning oil. The cook, seaman and boys leaped overboard, but only the seaman succeeded in swimming to the pier, the others were drowned. The mate stripped off a portion of his blazing clothing, and with the assistance of the captain and other officers on board, the flames which enveloped him were extinguished, but not before he was seriously if not fatally burned. The seaman is also believed to be fatally burned. The bodies of three of the drowned were recovered. The ship was only slightly damaged.

WASHINGTON, 29.—In anticipation of the early resumption of diplomatic relations between France and Mexico, Senor Zamacona's name is prominently mentioned as the probable minister to Paris, and his election to the presidency of Mexico is considered doubtful because of his pronounced friendship for the United States.

Enrique Vallez, now Spanish secretary of legation at Berlin, leaves Germany soon, as minister plenipotentiary at Lima, thus restoring relations between Spain and Peru.

Decoration Day was observed to-day by a procession of soldiers and veterans. At Arlington, the orphan children of soldiers joined in the procession and in bestrewn the graves with flowers. Emily Hawthorne read a poem and George C. Hazelton, of Wisconsin, delivered an oration.

CHICAGO, 30.—The action of the national committee at its meeting to-morrow evening is anxiously looked forward to because it is expected to take some action respecting the plan to be pursued in conducting the convention. It is alleged that the anti-Grant members of the committee who have a considerable minority, are determined to exact a pledge from Senator Cameron to carry out their instructions, and then to substantially abolish the unit rule in the preliminary organization. It is said by some delegates that in case Cameron should refuse to consent to this arrangement he would be deposed. Several propositions, looking to the settlement of the vexed question, are supposed to have been made to-day, but nothing is known to have been accomplished. It is predicted to night that the real contest will be in the committee meeting and that the convention itself is likely to be harmonious.

Senators Hamlin and Blair arrived to-day.

Indications multiply that the first fight will be had to-morrow at the committee meeting, and that it will probably result in Cameron being deposed. So little faith have the opposition in Cameron carrying out any programme they may lay down, that they generally seem to prefer another man. To-day full developments show that extravagant claims have been made by Grant's friends respecting the Southern delegations and that not one of them will give Grant a solid vote. In North Carolina, where Grant has been claiming everything, the delegation stands, according to the chairman, Thurman, 16, Grant, 4. Alabama is likely to give several Sherman votes despite the instructions. The Anti-Grant leaders had a colloquy with McPherson, (Penn.), to-day respecting the parliamentary questions likely to arise, and expect to be fully prepared. It is asserted that Cameron has handed five names which would be satisfactory to the Anti-Grant men for chairman, viz.: Ben Harrison, Mitchell, (Oregon), Hoar, Foster and Butterworth. The Blaine men from Maine are decided and enthusiastic to-day and cannot see that it is possible to defeat their man. There has been stiffening of upper lips all round to-day, preparatory to the grand pull to-morrow, which possibly may be more important a day than that on which the convention meets. For if it decides on the abolition of the unit rule, Grant is almost necessarily beaten. The California and Colorado delegations have arrived.

It is learned that the anti-Grant members of the national committee who are in this city, and who number 16, held a meeting to-day, at which telegrams and letters from 15 other members were read, agreeing to abide by the decision of this meeting on any matters coming before it. There was a formal motion, which was carried, that at the full meeting Don Cameron should be asked for a categorical answer as to whether he would follow out the instructions of the committee, if he refused he would be deposed forthwith. The meeting then decided to have the call of States in the preliminary organization made so that each individual delegate should express his preference. This would practically abolish the unit rule. The information is regarded as authentic and indisputable.

Yesterday the anti-Grant men achieved their first victory, acting under the guidance of General Garfield. Several anti-Grant men held a conference and decided to call on Senator Conkling and his friends to renounce the unit rule in organizing the convention, subsequently they had an interview with the Senator, and at his instance they submitted names for the temporary chairmanship. Senator Cameron has become less defiant. The colored delegates are changing sides.

A good illustration of the feeling among the anti-Grant men now in Chicago, and their determination not to have a third term candidate forced upon the party by unfair means, or by a disregard for precedents, was given to-day by a meeting of 24 members of the national committee, at which a resolution was unanimously adopted that Cameron should be deposed from the chairmanship of the committee. If he was not disposed to represent its views in what he does in the convention. At least half a dozen other member not present to-day are known to be of the same opinion.

The California delegation met this morning and organized by the election of Frank Pixley as chairman. A. D. Sharon was absent, and Benson, alternate was elected to act in his place. D. S. Payne, of Santa Clara was selected as the choice of the delegates for a place on the committee on resolutions, with instructions to work for the insertion of an anti-Chinese plank in the resolutions of the convention; Haymond for a place on the committee on credentials; Mansfield for the committee on organization. The delegation are unanimous against the unit rule, and will probably be for Washburne if Blaine drops out of the contest. The Pacific Coast States will select headquarters to-day.

Large numbers of delegates and others arrived this morning, at the Grand Pacific, 400 newly registered. Among them Col. R. G. Ingersoll who will speak to-night at the anti-Grant meeting provided the weather clears which now seems improbable. It is believed that four-fifths of the delegates are now on the ground and a considerable number of the alternates. The New Jersey delegation and most of Illinois delegates arrived this morning. Nothing definite has transpired as to the action of the National Committee to be taken this evening but the streets are full of rumors, which mention compromise, abolition of the unit rule, deposition of Senator Cameron and many other expedients for settling the question of the unit rule.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, 28.—A private telegram from Ragoon reports a rebellion among the natives of Burmah. Fighting is in progress between Minlah and the British frontier, it is supposed between adherents of the Burmese princes now at Calcutta and the Burmese government troops.

It is said that Waddington will not succeed Leon Say as ambassador to London.

It is rumored that Moor Berdi Khan, leader of the Tekke Turcomans, is dead.

A Montreal dispatch says: An open air meeting in behalf of a commercial union with the United States, was held last night in the French quarter. After speeches, a resolution in favor of a commercial union was carried unanimously.

Prince Leopold, of Canada, is making arrangements, privately, for a trip to the Western States, traveling as much as possible incog. He leaves Montreal on Monday morning for Chicago, and will likely be accompanied by the Princess Louise. The latter arrangement is not fully settled.

It is now considered that Bismarck's ecclesiastical bill will pass the Prussian Diet. One hundred and fifty Conservatives support the bill, and the Government will probably obtain fifty more necessary votes, from the National Liberal party. There are some prospects of a section of the Catholics supporting the measure.

Louis Blanc, Clamenceau and Barodet acting on the resolution of the Deputies, waited on Constans, Minister of the Interior, who informed them that the police measures taken in regard to the Communist demonstration, Sunday, were previously decided upon in a cabinet council. Constans said the Government could not allow any manifestations which might cause a disturbance in the streets. The Government preferred to take preventative rather than repressive measures. The Minister declared he could not admit that the foreigners organized the manifestation with the object of bringing the Government into disrepute.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Vermont is the greatest maple sugar producing State in the Union. Its annual yield is about 9,000,000 pounds, worth $700,000, or about an average allowance of thirty pounds for each inhabitant.

Serious destitution prevails in several counties of Kansas, along the line of the Kansas Pacific Railway, no grain having fallen in that locality during the past six months. The wheat crop is a failure there, and no spring crops will be cultivated. The people are suffering, and contributions are being raised for their relief.

Splashing water on passers by has become the correct thing in the Quaker City circles of hired-girls. The reason of this is that "A Philadelphia servant girl who was engaged washing windows spattered some water on a passing stranger, but immediately apologized and bestowed ed on the vagrant one of her most gracious smiles. The pedestrian was smitten, and in four weeks they were married. He turned out to be worth $200,000."

Don't fool with old cartridges under the impression that they are harmless. The other day a ten-year old boy at Oakland, picked up a cartridge that had been dropped in the street, and commenced picking it with his fingers. The cartridge exploded, tearing the ends of the two first fingers and thumb into shreds. A physician was called in, and it was found necessary to amputate the thumb and half of each finger.

The loss of the Atlanta remains one of the mysteries. It will perhaps never be solved until the day when "the sea shall give up the dead which are in it." The Atlanta was an English training ship, and went out with three hundred youths on board to be trained for seamen. Nothing has been seen or heard of her for several months. An investigation is now going on in England to find out whether she was seaworthy. It seems as though this inquiry would have been a little more consistent if it had been instituted before she started.

Gen. B. F. Butler is in town. He is one of the celebrities of the age. A man of brains, courage, political and military experience and great force of character. Like all men of mark, he has been much abused, but no one ever accused him of being a fool. We hope the General will have a pleasant trip to the Pacific Coast, and that if he cannot be President of the United States nor Governor of Massachusetts, he will not long be deprived of a voice in the affairs of the nation. He was always a power in Congress.
