DESERET EVENING NEWS | GEMMELL RESIGNS FROM COUNCIL

Former Aspirant.

WHO THE NEW MEMBER IS.

Rio Grande Western Wants $8,000 to Move Tracks from Eighth and Ninth South.

The feature of last evening's Council meeting was the tendering of the resgnation of R. C. Gemmell, the Repubican member from the Fifth, and the mmediate appointment of Arthur J. Davis to succeed him.

The resignation of Mr. Gemmell was ouched in the following language:

On account of my continued absence from town and the uncertainty as to when I can return. I believe that my duty to my constituents demands my resignation. I therefore hereby tender my resignation as councilman from the Fifth precinct. I regret exceedingly to do this, but believe that the interests of the people whom I represent require more attention than I am able to give them. Thanking you all for your courteous treatment while I have been member of the Council.

Immediately following the reading of ne communication. Robertson moved nat it be received and filed and that the resignation be accepted. Speaking to the motion, the member from the Fifth said he regretted having to make it. The Council was tosing one of its most efficient members. He was prepared to say that Mr. Geminell's associations with the other members had been of the pleasantest kind, and it was only recently that he told the speaker of his sorrow in having to take the step he had taken. Councilman Gemmeil, the speaker further said, was a conscientions man and believed, in view of the circumstances surrounding im, that to resign was a duty he owed o bimself and all constituents. The tion carried unanimously, Robertson, as one of the representa-tives of the Fifth precinet, then presented Mr. Davis's name, and moved he be confirmed.

Heweti seconded the motion. While he did not know the gentleeman personally he had been represented to him that he was a good sterling business man, one who could always be relied Fernstrom, when his name was called by the recorder, said he would vote aye, although it was the first time in his life that he had voted to put a Repub-lican into office. He had enquired of his friend Robertson If Mr. Davis beged to the "unit: rule club," reply received was far from being Industrial School Receives an Opinion from Attorney General Bishop.

In answer to a query from the board of directors of the State Industrial school as to whether it had the right to use a portion of the $3,500 appropriated by the Legislature of 1897 for the purchase of a site and cottage for the female department and whether the ap-propriation would revert back to the State if the board should not build the cottage before December $1, 1900, or i the appropriation could be used for any other purpose. Attorney-General Bishop resterday afternoon gave a negative opinion.

Mr. Bishop further explained that the State Auditor had, in compliance to the statute, converted into the State treasury all unexpended balances of said aptation, and that there is therefore

AN ADDRESS TO THE PUBLIC.

Joint Committees Engaged in Formulating One This Afternoon

REGARDING BOND ISSUE.

Will be Published Tomorrow - Outline of Matters Discussed-Election Occurs On Monday Next.

A special committee-one from each municipal ward of the city-is engaged this afternoon in rendering assistance to a special Council committee in the formulation of an address to the public on the proposition of issuing $250,000 in bonds to be expended in the improvement of the waterworks system. It is expected that when the committee rises this evening it will have completed its labors in drafting the address which

The citizens' committee, as stated, consists of one member from each mu-nicipal ward, its personnel being as follows: C. W. Penrose, First; M. H. Walker, Second; W. J. Newman, Third; W. B. Barton, Fourth; and J. E. Dooly, W. B. Barton, Fourth; and J. E. Doby, Fifth. At the preliminary meeting held yesterday afternoon Mr. Dooly was ab-sent, but was represented by W. A. Neiden. Mr. Walker was also absent on account of illness, and was unrepresented. The gentiemen present had been specially invited to attend the conference of the special committee, which consists of Councilmen Thomas, Cottrell Reid Tuddosham and Passack ottrell, Reid, Tuddenham and Beatty who represent the various municipal wards in the order named.

The meeting was held in the office of the board of equalization, of which Councilman Thomas is the secretary. City Engineer Kelsey was present with facts and figures of interest. J. Fewson Smith, the well known civil enginon Smith, the well known eith engineer, was also present in an advisory capacity, and by invitation. The question of what should be done with the bonds, if voted, was discussed in detail, as were also the facilities for obtaining an extra supply of water. All of the improvements necessary in the present avisem were gone into at length present system were gone into at length and the work on the reservoir, the utilization of the Jordan and Salt Lake Canal, street sprinkling, the lowering of the channel from Utah Lake, and the of the channel from Utah Lake, and the possible use of the flowing wells at Liberty Park received consideration, as did also the increase of water that will come to the city from Parley's canyon when negotiations are completed with the farmers along that stream for the water now being used for irrigation. All this resulted in the determination to issue the address referred to regarding the bonds which will be voted upon ing the bonds which will be voted upon by the people on Monday next,

SCHOOL BOARD CONTRACTS.

Oliver Hodgson.

At the meeting of the committee on buildings and grounds of the board of education, the contract for building the annex to the Lowell school was let to Oliver Hodgson for $4,493, for changing the heating and ventilating plant from the main building to the annex to Hig-son, Anderson & Rossiter for $695, and the plumbing connected with it to the same firm for $760.

YESTERDAY'S FIRES.

The Recordis Demolished-Fire Laddies are Kept Busy.

Never in the history of the Salt Lake fire department has there been so many fires in one day as occurred yesterday. There were seven in all, and one this morning. There was the crematory lire, the destruction of William Baltling's barn and residence, and numer-ous grass fires. The Baitling residence was valued at $1,750 and the barn at $300. The loss to the contents of the house, belonging to Alexander McPherson are placed at $250 with no insurance. On the residence $1,250 insurance was carried and $200 on the barn. Some vehicles were insured for $100. All by the Home Fire Insurance Company. Station No. 4 got the first alarm to Tenth East and Third South to extinguish a grass blaze. Soon after there was another one at the corner of Ninth South and Eighth East and another at Thirteenth East and First South. Then the stable of John Blakemore on Fourth and A called out the wagons.

Next was a shed at 142 East First South This morning No. 1 was called to 425

East First South street to extinguish the flames in a frame kitchen. The loss was $10, no insurance. The place is occupied by J. S. Russell. Cause of fire, defective flue. Next!
