himself had been a sort of Napoleon for fighting and conquering in his younger days. Many of the women were very pretty, and like all the beautiful ones of that age, much prettier if they had only let themselves alone. Fortunately the deers could not change charming black eyes, beautiful foreheads, nicely rounded limbs, well shaped forms and small hands and feet, but they must adorn themselves, and this they do by filling splendid teeth to points like cats' teeth. They are not black, but of a brown color. The Queen of the Moris, Nyombe by name, would be esteemed a real beauty either in London, Paris or New York, and yet she had a small blot through the cartilage near the tip of her fine and slightly aquiline nose.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

SAN FRANCISCO, 20.—G. B. Waldron, a factor, leaves here by steamer tomorrow for Portland.

The Floral Mill and Mining Company, to operate in Ploese, El Dorado, Nevada, with a capital of $1,000,000, in shares of five dollars each, was incorporated today. The capital stock of the Belcher Mining Company from $104,000 to $100,000 was also fixed.

The meeting of the committee of one hundred, this p.m., was not largely attended. The proposition to continue the present officers of the committee for three months was voted down. A somewhat stormy discussion over the question of defining the position of the committee on the several railroad projects was indulged in for some time, and the committee then went into the election of a new board of officers and an executive committee with the following result: President, Wm. Alvord; first vice, John S. Hager; secretary and treasurer, John C. Merrill; first vice, W. W. Montague, L. Pickering, T. L. Rutherford, Richard Tobin, Alfred Wheeler, T. G. Phelps, R. G. Senath, Dr. L. L. Gates, E. F. Hayward, Charles Main, Ed. F. Northman, A. F. Pope, Wm. Sherman, R. J. Tiffany, P. H. Waterman, Alex. Well, J. C. Winterling.

Charles Gillett, an old offender, who received a respectable young lady Astoria into marrying him recently, was arrested here for stealing a watch from his landlady, and confessed to the theft. The poor wife, who was frantic at the discovery of the character of her husband.

A hunter reports having seen alive alligator on the banks of the San Joaquin last week.

EUROPEAN.

PARIS, 20.—Thiers sent a dispatch to the prefects of the northern departments, where the miners are on strike, praising them for the energetic measures taken to prevent the spread of disorder, and telling them they can have 100,000 men, if necessary, to suppress the disturbance, especially where they are produced by foreign instigators.

The cavalry regiment of a large body of rioters at Denain, taking a hundred prisoners. Strong military cordons have been drawn around the disaffected districts, and the aspect of affairs is improving.

PARIS, 25.—Stanley, correspondent of the New York Herald, arrived here today.

BREVITIES.

A bad style of arithmetic: Division among families.

Rev. Hugh Stowell Brown, for twenty years the most popular Baptist Minister of Liverpool, England, sails for this country August 8th.

"I don't care much about the bugs," said Walter, the head of a general boarding house, "but the fact is, madam, I haven't the blood to spare; you see that yourself."

Government advertising is a constant thing in the Territories. Hence we have to the Grand Canyon an installment of fifteen or twenty dollars worth of enthusiasm every week.—Colorado People.

The Cornhill Magazine draws a fine distinction between English and French pictures. The English are called heavy, without sensuality. The French are brilliant, and generally immoral; but the latter, says the Magazine, usually preferred.

During a recent trial at Rockport, Michigan, the judge interrupted the testimony of a lady witness, remarking that it was not relevant. The lady raised her head, and with a look of innocence inquired: "Well, sir, am I telling this story, or are you?" The judge smiled.

A little boy was sent to a store for some eggs before reaching home he dropped them. In answer to his mother who asked, "Did you break any?" He replied, "No, I didn't break any, but the shells came off from some of them."

The Antioch Ledger says that "trees are the life and beauty of a country village." We have numerous ornamental trees here, but nevertheless, in our young ladies' "parlors" the tree that constitute the life and beauty of the city. That Ledger man must be an uncivilized, unappreciative individual.—Recess Reviewer.

The Rev. Lyman Coleman, D. D., says of the Lyman family, "The earliest generation, in all their hands, was a public worship, they were religious. The ratio of increase has steadily decreased as successive generations have increased in wealth and luxury. The same thing may be noticed, as a general rule, in a matter worthy of serious reflection."

Pious impulses in a Squall.—By a squall in Delaware Bay last week, while sailing in a yacht, two young men were overtaken. At Rockport Church, on Twelfth street, Philadelphia, as public worship, they were religiously being present. From the way things looked, the captain of the ship was very near inevitable.

"Bill," said one of the others, "isn't he a good fellow?" "No, I can't say he is," said the other, "but I can say he is a good fellow."

"No, I can't say he is," said the other, "but I can say he is a good fellow."
