The ledge is over five miles long and 400 feet wide, containing a fine grade of marble, ranging over seventeen shades from pure white to black. The mine was valued at one million.

PARIS, June 25.—A water spout burst to-day near Guays at Toulouse, submerging the wash houses, in which were eight persons, all of whom were drowned.

NIAGARA FALLS, June 25.—Steve Peer, a local celebrity who

OUTDID BLONDIN

In his daring feats around Niagara, and who recently crossed on a five-eighth inch cable, is dead. Ever since he did the daring act he has been drinking very heavily. This evening about 7:30 Peer went out unobserved with John Gillespie and a stranger, and later was seen in the same company near his home. As he did not show up by 8:30 p. m., and no trace of him could be discovered elsewhere and it was concluded he must have got on his rope and fallen from it, or turned over the bank, ropes and lanterns were procured and Peer's brother and another man lowered down, and near the bottom of the incline found his lifeless body badly cut about the head. The body was raised to the top of the precipice by means of ropes. The general belief is he attempted to walk out on the cable and lost his footing and fell into the abyss below.

NEW YORK, June 25.—On the request of the district attorney, the judge has ordered that Jacob Sharp be hereafter kept in CLOSE CONFINEMENT.

The cause of this was the district attorney's statement to the court that he had been informed that an attempt would be made to carry Sharp beyond the jurisdiction of the court.

Sharp, this evening in conversation, said: "I am a very sick man, and it is a question which will last the longest—my strength or the trial. My family has been urging me to consult a physician, but I have not yet consented for fear his prescriptions might make me so ill that I would not be able to attend court. No, it isn't the change of quarters from my home to this place that has knocked me out. It is the result of an illness that has been steadily gathering strength for two years. I am suffering from an affection of the heart, kidney trouble and diabetes."

JUDGE BARRETT

to-night modified his order to the extent of allowing one member of the prisoner's family to remain with him in jail. In accordance with this Mrs. Sharp is the sharer of his confinement to-night.

SALINA, June 25.—E. T. M. Simmons, charged with arson in having set fire to the Hotel del Monte this year, was this afternoon acquitted on the first ballot. The Hotel del Monte, situated in Monterey, was the principal summer resort of the coast, and the structure, costing over half a million of dollars, was totally destroyed by fire on the night of April 1st last. Suspicion rested on E. T. M. Simmons, the former manager of the hotel, as having fired the building, and he was arrested on the CHARGE OF ARSON.

The motives alleged for the act were revenge for his removal and a desire to conceal a shortage in his accounts. The evidence was purely circumstantial, and the defense submitted the case without the production of a witness.

READING, Pa., June 25.—The Berks County grand jury, which has been investigating frauds among the tax collectors, to-day returned bills of indictment against eleven collectors, all prominent citizens, for misappropriating and misusing public funds, aggregating $30,000. About thirty others will in all probability be indicted.

"BUFFALO, June 25.—Detective Curtin, who started a week ago for Salem, Oregon, to identify the man arrested there on the suspicion of being Bryant B. Crandall, supposed to have committed suicide at Niagara Falls, but reported to be alive in the west, telegraphs that the man in custody is not Crandall.

GALVESTON, June 25.—A dispatch from Eagle Pass to the News says: Intelligence was received here at a late hour last night, that a sanguinary conflict was in progress between the river guards and the smugglers at a point 15 miles below Piedras Negras in Mexico. The conflict is still in progress. A scouting party of river guards and police numbering 25 men surprised a band of about well armed, with a cavalcade of twenty pack mules. The smugglers at once showed fight and at the first volley two guards fell dead. The guards fell back and dispatched a courier for reinforcements. The smugglers fell back toward the Rio Grande with the evident purpose of crossing the river to the American side. The smugglers in their retreat are keeping up a desultory skirmish with reinforced guards, who are pressing them in the rear. A courier arrived in Piedras Negras late this evening from the scene of the action and reports the fight still in progress and one more guard killed. The loss the smugglers is not known.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The following is the weekly crop summary printed in this week's issue of the Farmers' Review:

Although no change has taken place in the condition of the ripe and fast ripening winter wheat crop since our report last week, it is gratifying to note that no material damage is being done to crops by rust. Harvesting operations are progressing rapidly and the weather is everywhere favorable for work.

Growing crops are in need of rain in Illinois and the western states. The hay crop is very light. Corn prospects are excellent. Fruit prospects are fair. Our reports on the condition of the winter in the different states are as follows: Fifteen counties in Illinois report an average condition of 83 per cent, with slight injury in six counties by fly and by rust, and by fly in Lawrence county. Eleven counties in Indiana report the condition at 88 per cent., and injury from insects in three counties, and rust in Spencer Co. Twelve Kansas counties place the average at 60 per cent, and complain in nearly every instance of severe injury to crops by chintz bug. Winter wheat is almost a failure in Sedgewick County. Fourteen counties in Ohio report the average condition at 76 per cent., with very little complaint of fly. Kentucky counties place the average condition at 96 per cent. Michigan counties report an average condition of 95 per cent., with damage by insects in Van Buren and Lenawee counties. Thirteen counties in Missouri report the average condition at 105 per cent. The crop in Bates County is reported a total failure by chintz bugs and drought. No other counties complain of injury by insects. The crop is in shock in Christian County. The condition of in the different states is as follows: Wisconsin counties report an average condition of 83 per cent. Pippin county complains of chintz bug. Eleven Minnesota counties report an average of 79 per cent. Nine counties in Nebraska place the average at 89 percent. The crops are in good condition in Dakota.

The oat crop has been quite liberally damaged by drought and insects. Indiana, Michigan and Ohio alone report the crop in good condition.

LONDON, June 25.—Fire broke out in a tenement house on Oxford Street this morning and the flames spread so rapidly that several inmates were unable to make their escape. Frightful scenes were witnessed by enormous crowds of people attracted to the spot. One youth jumped from the top story to the ground and was instantly killed. His mother followed, striking upon the railings in front of the house, and rebounding on the heads of the crowd. Another woman appeared at a window holding a child in her arms. A moment later she fell backwards into the flames. The charred remains were afterwards found.

CHICAGO, June 25.—A million and a quarter dollars went up in smoke at the Union Stock Yards to-day. Early this morning an employee of the Chicago Packing and Provision Company discovered fire in the tank room. In a few minutes one of the tanks exploded, scattering the burning lard over the adjacent buildings. A dozen fires were soon competing with the other in the destruction of the immense establishment. The fire was not struck out till this evening, fourteen and a half hours after its start, and a five-acre oven will remain on the premises red hot for a couple of days. In this territory were of the packing company. The main building was 300 by 175 feet. This, with the exception of the curing room, which was saved with the contents—19,000,000 pounds of short ribs, in a damaged condition—is a total loss. On the east side of the main building was a warehouse, four stories and a basement, and containing 17,000 barrels of mess pork belonging to Armour. The building and most of the pork was totally destroyed. Between 600 and 700 hogs were also cremated. Back of the main building was a fertilizing factory 100 feet square, and an engine house 50 by 65 feet, both of which structures were completely destroyed.

The fact that no wind was blowing was probably the only circumstance that saved the

from destruction. Before the fire department could respond to the first alarm, the flames had gained headway, which no amount of water could reduce. Twenty-six engines and every reservoir in the yards were soon brought into play. All of the firemen and hundreds of stock yard employees' efforts were bent toward keeping the conflagration confined to the works of the Chicago company. About this time more tanks exploded and a heavy beam went smashing into a freight car where several firemen were stationed, breaking pipeman Baker's ankle and knocking Lieut. Elliott unconscious. Soon afterwards the walls of the warehouse fell to the ground, disclosing great heaps of mess pork which two or three hundred of Armour's men went to work removing as best they could. After the flames had consumed most of the wood work of the buildings, the fire still held sway in the great mounds of burning meat. The suffocating fumes from this and the blinding dust from falling walls of brick made the task of the firemen a terrible one; many of them were well nigh overcome.

THE MOST EXCITING

scene of the day was presented when the men were attempting to drive out the five hogs in the upper stories. Below were scores of workmen rolling out barrels of pork and down on the crowd pell mell leaped dozens of hogs maddened with burning, jumping from the windows and through the hatchways. The workmen below were compelled to flee for their lives. In the afternoon, when a number of firemen were trying to save the short ribs in the curing room, a division wall fell, injuring Thos. Murphy so seriously that he died four hours later. Five other firemen received severe wounds.

Armour places his loss at $360,000, but thinks the salvage and insurance will make him even. The plant of the Chicago company was valued at $300,000, and the stock at $700,000. About half of the two thousand employees will be thrown out of work.
