LOCAL NEWS.

Pleas Not Guilty.—This morning F. W. Anderson, the shoemaker who is charged with an assault with intent to commit rape on Mr. Williams' little girl, was arraigned and entered a plea of not guilty.

Did Not Plead.—When Mr. A. Miner was arraigned yesterday afternoon on the charge of unlawful cohabitation, he availed himself of the time allowed by law, two days, in which to make a plea. His case will be called to-morrow morning.

"A Rag Baby."—The second performance of the "Rag Baby" company last evening was witnessed by a fair sized audience. The piece went smoother than the night before, and was greeted with hearty applause. It will be presented again this evening.

Arraigned.—While the jury in the Brain case were out, Andrew W. Cooley was called, and the clerk read the indictment, charging the defendant with unlawful cohabitation with Rachel Cooley and Ann Hagan Cooley as his wives.

The defendant was allowed until Monday to plead, his attorney, Mr. Brown, being absent.

Removals.—H. J. Grant & Co., insurance agents, and the Contributor office, have removed into the Contributor building, one door south of the store formerly occupied by them.

Messrs. Young Brothers have refitted the rooms vacated, in the Old Constitution building, and have transferred their sewing machine business from their old stand, south of Z. C. M. 1, across the street to their new premises.

An Austrian Visitor.—We had a call this morning from Mr. Julius Debelincke, of Vienna, a professional correspondent and a member of the Geographical Society of Amsterdam, Vienna, etc. He arrived in this city last evening and expects to remain here a few days. He is delighted with the appearance of the city and considers it one of the most beautiful for location and design that he has ever seen; and that is saying a good deal, for he has been an extensive traveler.

A Bad Bridge.—A bridge across the canal on the main road leading through Brighton is broken so badly as to render travel across it impossible, and there is no alternative for persons traveling by teams except to ford the canal, the banks of which are steep and the channel deep and miry. A party traveling to this city from the west night before last happened to discover the opening in the bridge before they reached the animals by driving on it, but in attempting to avoid it by driving through the canal, the vehicle was broken and its occupants narrowly escaped being pitched out into the water.

The Stock Convention.—The meeting of the stock raisers of Utah re-convened at 10 a. m. to-day in the large room on the second floor of the City Hall. Dr. H. J. Faust in the chair. The attendance in point of numbers was somewhat improved over that of yesterday, and represented considerable in the way of substantial wealth and social standing. A large amount of business was disposed of at both the morning and afternoon sessions, and it was believed at a late hour that when the Convention adjourned this evening, it would be without delay.

The proposition of Mr. Tebbets, representing the Union Pacific Railway, to take all the members who wished to go to the St. Louis Convention free of charge, will be generally accepted.

TRIAL OF EDWARD BRAIN.

THE POLYGAMY COUNT DISMISSED, AND A VERDICT OF "GUILTY" OF COHABITATION.

JUDGE ZANE INDULGES IN MORE ABUSE OF TONGUE WHO DIFFER WITH HIM IN BELIEF.

The work of securing a jury to serve in the Brain case was commenced yesterday afternoon. Twelve names of the regular panel were called, and the usual "crusade" tactics sent every one out of the box. Twelve more were called, and of these W. A. Lyne and Adolph Anderson were retained. All "Mormon" claims were excused. This morning two more jurors whose names are on the list were accepted—Wm. Skewes and C. A. Armstrong.

An open venire issued last evening brought into the jury box this morning F. Bradley, J. W. Smalley, George Barr, Edward H. Jones, C. L. Harris, Jas. Edmister, J. H. Nounnan and Jos. Forcman. The defense accepted all without examination. Mr. Varian went through the force of asking J. E. Bradley whether he believed in a man to have more than one wife, and inquiring of the others, and receiving a shake of the head from each.

The clerk then administered the oath to assist the jury, and looked at a set of "twelve good men and true" that ever graced a jury box, and read the oath to each of them. He then, with the offenses of polygamy and unlawful cohabitation. Last, having a list of names of living and deceased persons, the defendant did marry Jansie Peters; and that the defendant did live and cohabit with Mary Bailey, Mary Ann Johnson and Jansie Peters as his wives.

Joseph D. Brain was the first witness called. He is 22 years of age, and has two brothers and one sister. He was born in England, and came to Utah in 1867. He is now a resident of the Twelfth Ward. He was married to Jansie Peters in 1884, and has two children. He was also married to Mary Bailey in 1884, and has two children. He was also married to Mary Ann Johnson in 1884, and has two children.

After the close of the proceedings in the Brain case, the Judge, unable longer to suppress his chagrin at being unable to browbeat a number of those against whom the present anti-Mormon crusade has been directed, made a long and bitter tirade against the "Mormon" religion, and the "Mormon" people, and the "Mormon" government.

to live a straightforward life all my days. I have not wronged any man, and I will restore unto him four-fold. I have been a straightforward man all my days; and I can say and bear my testimony that although the Edmunds law was passed to convict us as a people, I read in the Constitution of the United States that Congress shall make no law against my religion, the religion of my forefathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; and I stand as a free man, a servant of God and know for myself that God Almighty revealed that to me individually, independent of President Taylor, Brigham Young or any man on the face of the earth. I married my wives in lawful wedlock, and I stand as a free man, a servant of God and know for myself that God Almighty revealed that to me individually, independent of President Taylor, Brigham Young or any man on the face of the earth. I married my wives in lawful wedlock, and I stand as a free man, a servant of God and know for myself that God Almighty revealed that to me individually, independent of President Taylor, Brigham Young or any man on the face of the earth.

The evidence shows that the women were not individually independent of President Taylor, Brigham Young or any man on the face of the earth.
