

LOCAL SPORTS AND SCHOOL ATHLETICS.

JOHNSON, YALE'S STAR QUARTERBACK.

Judging by the great strength Yale has displayed in the last few games, both on the defense and offense, it looks as if the Elis will capture the premier honors of the gridiron in the east this season.

Yale's present victories have given the experts a splendid chance to size up the possibilities of the eleven. Yale is producing the most by the early selection of her team.

This was made possible by the large number of negatives retained from last fall. It has given Yale a line which from end to end is composed of heavy cut boys.

And Lilley, the two tackles; Andrus and Goebel, the guards; and Cooney, the center, complete a line of forwards that should equal the record of any day afternoon, the contending teams being the seniors and freshmen. By the hardest kind of play the seniors managed to defeat their rivals by a score of 11 to 0.

team that Yale or any other university ever turned out. The possession of such splendid material for the line has left Yale free to develop her back field.

The return of Captain Coy, little the worse for his operation and hospital confinement, obligated the necessity of finding a man for his place. Philbin, Dinning, Daly and Murphy comprise two sets of half-backs that are doing unusually fine work. Ed Johnson has made an excellent quarterback as Yale would want Yale has also an excellent sub in Howe.

PITTSBURG LOSES TWO GOOD MEN

A Chicago dispatch says: Now that the baseball season is over and Pittsburg has won the world's championship and fulfilled the dream of President Barney Dreyfuss' heart, it seems that the victory has been bought at a price which the owner of the Pirates does not wish to pay.
