Shot in Court.

Senator Miller introduced a bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to the Immigration Association of California, to be used for the relief and benefit of immigrants arriving at San Francisco all the moneys hereofore or hereafter collected at that port under the law for every steerage passenger who shall have died during the voyage by natural disease. The existing law provides that the money thus collected shall be distributed among the State Immigration Board, but a fund of nearly $5,000, which has accrued at San Francisco, remains in the treasury because there is no such State Board in California.

Shot in Cours.

San Francisco, 25,—D. J. Murphy, ex-district attorney, was shot through the neck in the police court this morning by John Marony, a policium. Murphy was attorney in referred to Marony as an Australian convict and thief. The latter walk-ed to Murphy in court and fired without a word of warning. Murphy fell, the blood spurting over the bystanders. Marony, while being taken to the city prison, attempted to shoot himself, but was prevented.

CAREYVILLE, Ky., 25.—A horri-ble crime committed January 28th, 1881, is just unearthed. James In Mason's case, Captain W. P. Graves testified to Mason saying: "I hope I have blown him in two." First Lieutenant E. C. T. Richmond said that Mason approaching him exclaimed: "I hope I have filled him. I do not know whether I have or not." He also said: "I did it. I tried to kill him, Lieutenant and I surrender myself to you. I am not coming out here to guard an assassin." and ran away. Mrs. Embry and two children escaped; Embry and six children were burned to death.

> LATTLE ROCK, 25.—The river continues to rise one-half an inch per hour. Pine Bluff reports the bank overflowing forty miles below. Adamsburg, fourteen miles above Pine Bluff, is inundated, and the whole of Parlonia County is under water. Mostly all the lake and river, fifty miles I clow have joined forces. From present appearances the inland will see much destitution.

Unless provisions are furnished great suffering must follow.

BISMARCK, 25.—The Tribune's Glendive special says: John Gilmore, alias Mansfield, who killed a man years ago, came to town with his brother to day. He was recognized, and the citizens gave him ten minutes to leave town. He went to the depot, where some one fired at him, seriously wounding the brother in the neck. Mansfield ran.

Senator Hoar thereupon took the floor and warmly said: While he conceded Conkling's great obligation, and that no man since Web-ster had surpassed him in intellec-tual force, he believed Conkling had used his powers for bad purposes, and he did not believe him honest. His elevation to the Supreme Bench, said Hoar, with great excitement of manner, and pounding his deak with emphasis, would be a disgrace to the judicial ermine, and he therefore interposed his objection to the present consideration of the nomination, and insisted that it should take the regu lar course of reference to the judiciary committee.

A single objection being sufficient to prevent immediate consideration the nomination was referred to that committee without Cebate or any reply to his remarks.
