LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE MINISTRELS have arrived. They will without fail appear to-night. If any empany can draw audiences at the preand season, there will be no doubt about the success of this noted troupe. We heard a lady, herself a capital judge, who knew them in San Francisco, say that each memher of the company was a gem of himself, and her idea was that if any fault could be round with them it was because they were too good, all being so excellent. There was not enough contrast between them for the

A CALL.-We had a call to-day from Mr. that Engelbrecht, whose name was in our vesterday's issue as having been fined for selling liquor on Sunday. His name would not have appeared on the police record had he not magnanimously come forward when his employe was summoned, and assumed the responsibility of the transaction and paid the fine. We understand Mr. Dollin did the same, Mr. E. thinks the names of the other two principals should appear as his and Mr. Lollins did, instead of their employes. This we concede, and had we known them yesterday we should have published all the mames or none; but as it is more than likely, if we publish them, they would have their explanations to make also, which we or the public do not care about listening to, we think it best to let the matter drop. We may add, however, that we hope this practice of selfing drink on Sunday will be stopped. No matter who the seller may be it is offensive to the sentiments of the community and is in opposition to the minance of the city.

Still WARM .- We learn through the Descret Telegraph line that yesterday the thermometer rose to 116 degrees in the shule at St. George.

IN TIME. - Those of our citizens havng friends in the company of Saints-who eft England by the steamship Colorado, should be making preparations to meet them, as they will most probably reach ugalen some time to-morrow.

ENGLAND. - We have received advices from Liverpool of the safe arrival of Elders Charles Wilden, Howard O. Spencer, Levi Garrett and Thomas Rogers at that town. The first three landed in England on the 19th ult., Brother Rogers two days later. President Carrington appointed them to labor as follows: Elders Garrett and Spencer in London, Elder Rogers in Glasgow and Elder Wilden in Sheffield.

GENERAL CONVENTION .- We understand that a general convention of about fifty delegates, coming from every precinct in Utah county, meets in Provo to-day to take into consideration the graduation of prices of agricultural I roduce and mechanical and unskilled labor, to suit the present market. Provo sends six members to the conven-We heartily endorse this movement as one that, if controlled by the spirit of wisdom and temperance, will effect great results for the good of the entire community.

no title of a popular work, which we have received from Messrs, McAusland Bros, of Omaha, containing the game laws of the different States of the United States and the provinces of Canada, to which is added much information valuable to gunners and anglers. Those feeling interested in these subjects will do well to consult Messrs. McAusland's book.

THE MINSTRELS. - This evening the Theatre re-opens with Murphy and Mack's Company of Ethiopian Minstrels, from Maguire's Opera House, San Francisco. We have never seen this troupe of min-strels ourselves, but from all we hear, we believe our readers may expect highly in-teresting and amusing entertainments during the ten nights this company appear on our boards.

Provo. -President Geo. A. Smith, who coturned last night from a visit of several Provo. - President Geo. A. Smith, who days to Provo, informs us that the Provo Bench Canal has proved a perfect success this season, supplying water in abundance to those having farms on the bench. It is proposed by the members of the Provo Bench Irrigation District to take out another ditch this fall about two miles lower down the bench for the benefit of the settlers living nearer the lake. The grasshoppers are doing considerable damage to the late crops in the vicinity of Provo. The crops on the Provo Benchare very good, the cane especially so, it is probably equal to any ever raised in the Territory. On Sunday President Smith delivered two historical discourses in the bowery at Provo, and visited the Sunday School, where he made a few remarks to the scholars.

THE ANCIENT INHABITANTS OF UTAH. -We clip the following item from the Springfield Republican of the 7th inst.:

"Professor Scott of Kentucky, acting on the belief that the mound builders of Ohio and Illinois had another oulders of Ohio and Illinois had another route to Mexico and Central America than that down the Mississippi, has for some time past been conducting explorations in Utah, with the hope of throwing light on the subject. His labors have lately been rewarded by the discovery, near Evanston, Utah, of a mound of extraordinary dimensions, and of as fair proportions as any described by Squier or Davis. The work of excavation was speedily accomplished and scribed by Squier or Davis. The work of excavation was speedily accomplished, and a vault was laid bare eight feet long, three feet wide and four feet deep, in which were the skeleton of a man, a cone-shaped earthen pot, an iron bracelet, and two medicine stones, cigar shaped and full of holes. On the right side of the skeleton was found a plate of pure silver, the size and shape of an artist's pallet. There is positive evidence that this vault is more than 1500 years old. The professor is confident that this discovery, to be followed by others under the direction of the Smithsonian institution, will establish the fact that the mound builders crossed the Missouri River, and passing over the plains of the Great West, found their way into Central America via the gulf

THE MAIL TO THE MUDDY, - We have received a communication from H. A. Skinner, Esq., Postmaster at Beaver, on the above subject, in which he states that the mail sacks for Arizona are never opened at the Beaver office, and that all are sent from that office via St. George, consequently if the St. Thomas mails manage to travel around by Pahranagat as the agent there states, the fault lies somewhere else than at Beaver. We are pleased to publish Postmaster Skinner's statement, as it vindicates his office from whatever blame there may connected with the non arrival of Muddy mail.
