PROVO, UTAH, Sept. 29, 1894.
FIRST DISTRICT COURT.
Business in Legal Quarters in the Garden City.

H. G. White, charged with adultery, was found guilty by the jury and will be sentenced on Oct. 15. He received a young girl under promise of marriage, and she afterwards learned that he was a married man.

A jury was called yesterday to the case of the People vs. George T. Clark, of Pleasant Grove. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Thurston presented and J. W. N. Williamson defended. The case is one wherein defendant is accused of taking possession in a case of property belonging to some one else. The case is expected from the Justice's court at Pleasant Grove. After the jury was called it was discovered that the papers in the case could not be found, and another date was set for the trial. Mr. Thurston stated to the jury that he was willing to let the jury return a verdict of not guilty to return a verdict of not guilty, and such a verdict was rendered.

The first case called was that of the People vs. George T. Clark, with a deadly weapon. Defendant was called but failed to appear. The case was returned to go to the next session at the next term of court. His recognizance was declared forfeited, and a bench warrant ordered to be issued for him. The People vs. Peter Greenwald, et al. was then called and a jury empaneled. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Thurston and F. H. King presented and M. M. Warner and John Greenwald defended.

The defendant, Peter Greenwald, and Nathan Jennings, Aves Jennings and Thomas (all are included for receiving $2,000 from Albert H. Johnson, of Hill City, for an interest in a mine in Detroit mining district, by taking possession of the mine, and that a certain money was made on the mine from said mine. The case was introduced in evidence, a witness testimony was given, and the case was returned to go to the next term of court. The case was returned to go to the next term of court. The case was returned to go to the next term of court.
