September 23, 1871 We clip the following from the I have read carefully the article on the Mormon question by "M," his statement that he believes in the right of all to vent their opinions and get others to adopt them, gives any one who may see fit, the right to answer his remarks.

His comments on your article I am not called on te answer, you can do that to your own liking.

Speaking of Christian crusaders of high character, he says "they see the sensual, brutalizing influence which prevails in Utah. The women are slaves, the children are, or have been kept in ignorance." I do not understand "M" to be speaking of individuals, but in general terms. I wish to answer the the same. The first assertion I will answer by comparison. The Jews saw in Jesus Christa being they felt justified in crucifying and so sure were they that they were right, that they defied all testimeny in regard to him by his disciples whilst his followers testified that he was the Son of God come to redeem the world, this testimony they bore even to the laving down of their lives. That Profitable Stock Investments. testified that he was the Son of God come to redeem the world, this testimony they bore even to the laying down of their lives. They in their day were judged and executed by the law administered by the bands of the majority. There are as many witnesses to-day in regard to the righteous and elevating influences of the gospel, polygamy included, as there was to the divinity of the Savior in his day. As to the children being kept in ignorance, if "M" will search for facts, if he is a true frontiersman, he will be ashamed of the remark. The Mormons who first settled Utah were almost entirely poor, and for a good many years had to scratch hard for a living, Under those circumstances it is not to be the investment of $300 hast month.

Other customers are doing better till. $25 pays $125 during the month, $200 returns $1,200, or 6 per ent. on the stock, and so on as the market moves. New circular contains "two unerring rules of success," and full instructions for any one to operate profitably. All the

AN ORDINANCE those circumstances it is not to be wondered at that the education of the children could not possibly be attended to with that care that in IN RELATION TO BILLIARD AND attended to with that care that in after years, when prosperity crowned their labors, could be bestowed upon them. All people who settle new countries know how this is, and we of Arizona have not lived past the recollection of this fact.

The writer of this went to Utah in [1850, and at that day almost every settlement had its schoolhouse, where the small children went to school in the summer and the larger ones in the winter season. Night schools were common. OTHER TABLES. went to school in the summer and the larger ones in the winter season. Night schools were common, where not only the youth, but many gray-haired elders sought learning in the common English branches.

As for the wemen being slaves, that is an old worn out story, in the sense that "M" presents it. The women of Utah enjoy the franchise; they are among the leaders of women's rights. For testimony "M" will please subscribe and pay for the Woman's Exponent, published in Salt Lake City, and read it carefully, then he can judge; provided he is a man of family he knows that woman cannot be made the say anything she does not want has any business with this woman question.

"M" says, "We deny that the Mormons at heart are citizens of the United States." Now if "M" also "An Ordinance in relation to had stopped here, this assertion in the state of the state of the state of the United States." Now if "M" also "An Ordinance in relation to had stopped here, this assertion in the state of the state Billiard and Other Tables, and to Pin Alleys," Passed, May 20th, 1879, be, and the same are hereby repealed.
