

EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, March 4, 1888.

FRAGMENTS.

AN annual eclipse of the sun tomorrow.

THOS. R. CARTER, of this city, left for New York this morning.

T. KELLEY, a drunken soldier, was lodged in jail this morning by the police.

OLEY HALEYSON, a soldier, was arrested last evening, for disturbing the peace.

THE "Pirates of Penzance" will be repeated on Friday, March 12th, at the Theatre.

GEO. GORDON was arrested this morning, drunk. The usual fine of $5 was imposed.

The Carless Opera Company will meet at the Theatre tomorrow evening, at 7:30.

THE Knights of Labor in California are preparing to make things lively for John Chinaman.

SEVEN carloads of sulphur were shipped last month from the sulphur mines in Millard County.

The ladies of Salt Lake City should not fail to attend the mass meeting in the Theatre on Saturday evening.

A LADY's cameo breast-plate has been lost, which the owner is very desirous of recovering. See the advertisement.

A MISCELLANEOUS entertainment is to be given in the Thirtieth Ward Assembly Rooms tomorrow evening.

To-morrow evening, at 7:30, Kirkham's Book of Mormon Panorama will be exhibited in the Twenty-first Ward meeting-house.

A SERGEANT appeared at the City Hall this morning with a private of Company K, heavily drunk, for the police to take care of.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Ogden Herald says the opposition party in the municipal election at Logan on Monday last was run by water.

TEN party who borrowed a brown silk umbrella from this office some time since, with the initials G. C. L. on the handle, will oblige the owner by returning it.

THAT yesterday was payday at the Fort, was indicated by the unusual number of drunks and rowdy soldiers that infested the city and disturbed the peace last night.

TWO other cases of diphtheria were reported from the First Ward this morning—making six in that locality—one at the Goddard farm, and the other in the family of Mr. Hawkins.

EDWARD BRAIN's term of imprisonment in the penitentiary, less the copper for good behavior, expires tomorrow morning, when he will again breathe the air of freedom.

THE San Francisco Bulletin and Call have been boycotted by the Typographical Union, which claims to have received the support of all workingmen's societies in California.

THE Seventies of the 23d quorum of Seventies and scattered members of other quorums residing in the 4th, 5th, 7th and Farmer's wards will meet this evening in the Seventh Ward Assembly Hall at 7:30. A full attendance is desired.

THE deserter and thief, Tom Murray, was pardoned from the penitentiary by Governor Murray, and was before the grand jury yesterday, where it is surmised he paid a price for the liberty he enjoys. His fellow thief, Phil Shuman, was also examined.

THE Eighth Quorum and all Seventies living in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Wards are requested to meet tomorrow (Friday) evening at the usual place, at 7:30 o'clock. Full attendance required, as there is important business to transact.

WE have heard of no "conspiracy to murder" the prosecuting attorney today. Perhaps he may have reached the sensible conclusion that nobody, at least among the "Mormons," has any desire to have him injured, or has any other feeling but that of pity for him.

In the House branch of the Legislature this afternoon, a bill to prevent bulls running at large in Rich County, passed by unanimous vote. A bill further providing for the punishment of sexual crimes passed to the third reading and was ordered printed. A bill providing for official reporters was read third time and passed unanimously, as did also a bill amending the charter of Smithfield City, in Cache County.

In the Legislative Council this afternoon, the following messages were received from the House: That they had received a communication from his excellency the Governor, vetoing the bill to lessen the imprisonment of convicts for good behavior. That the bill amending the act incorporating Morgan City had been revised with amendments. Mr. Francis moved that the amendments be not concurred in, and asked for a committee on conference; granted, and Messrs. Francis and Grover appointed on behalf of the Council. That the House had passed another bill on the same subject, a bill on mining claims, a bill on fish and game, and a bill amending the city charter of Ogden City. The general appropriation bill was read the first time and referred to the committee on appropriations. The judiciary committee reported back the bill revising the code of civil procedure in justice's courts. The committee on claims and public accounts reported favorably on the bill of the Treasurer, New Comptroller, and the amounts were ordered placed in the general appropriation bill. Mr. Heyborne introduced a bill to amend the act incorporating Cedar City. The bill revising the code of civil procedure passed on its third reading.

LOCAL NEWS.

MASS MEETING.

A mass meeting of the ladies of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be held in the Salt Lake Theatre, on Saturday, March 6, 1888, at 2 p.m., to protest against the indignities and insults heaped upon the ladies of the District Court, and also against the disfranchisement of those who are innocent of breaking any law. A general invitation is extended to all ladies interested therein, and a full attendance is desired.

Mrs. M. L. HOGAN, Mrs. E. L. WHITNEY, Mrs. R. S. TAYLOR, Dr. B. B. PRATT, In behalf of the committee.

Looking for Witnesses. — Yesterday deputies appeared at the house of Mrs. Caroline Young Crossell, and inquired for the lady and her two daughters. Upon being informed that they were not in, the deputies subpoenaed Mr. and Mrs. Don Carlos Young, who reside in the house, to appear before the grand jury. The crusaders are evidently determined to hunt up a wife for President Cannon.

"Mexican Typical Orchestra."

We had a call to-day from James T. Clyde, the business agent of this musical organization, which is soon to favor Salt Lake City with a visit, being booked for performances on the 8th, 9th and 10th inst., in the Salt Lake Theatre. We learn from him that this company of artists, who number 30, have created quite a sensation among lovers of music, wherever they have performed. The Los Angeles Herald fairly bubbles over with enthusiasm and praises of their entertainment, which it claims is the finest of the kind ever produced in that city. It is not confined to instrumental music, and that too of a typical Mexican character; by no means, though that is an important and interesting feature in their performance, and one which will be appreciated here because of its novelty and sweetness and the curious instruments used, but fancy dancing, for which the Mexicans are famous, and vocal music will also constitute a part of the performance, and many of the tunes played will be such as are familiar to American and European ears. The costumes in which the performers will appear will also be interesting and novel.

Beaver Court.—The following comes to us as a special per Deseret Telegraph line:

BEAVER, Utah, March 4, 1888.

Editor Deseret News:

District Court opened on Monday, March 1st, at ten o'clock, and a jury is now empaneled. It required three days to pack it. Foreman's charge was vindictive and low. Referring to the jury as a "body of fools," he stated that Utah was a paradise of licentiousness. A man could seduce his sister and there was no law to reach him, and the Territory would be a hell if the Priest-hood held full sway. Those who practice polygamy were not sincere in the claim that the law of God required them to live with their wives. They would set up this plea in court, yet live with others—their own wives. If honest, they would say: "These women are my wives, and I live with them, thus obeying God's law (as they claim)." They always choose the young wife, discarding the old one. Their God is their own.

The Court is evidently getting rid of a vast amount of filth.

MOONSHINE.

Mobbing in Tennessee.—Rumors were afloat in this city and Ogden on Monday last to the effect that some of the Latter-day Elders laboring in Tennessee had almost if not quite killed by lawless mob. Efforts to trace the rumors to some authentic source failed, and lest they should be without some foundation in fact, we refrained from publishing them. The report probably had its origin in the following dispatch in the New York Sun of the 22nd ult., which, as it has not yet been confirmed by letters from any of the Elders laboring in the South, we still hope is not true, though we fear it is:

Knoxville, Feb. 21.—Yesterday two Mormon Elders preached in a church in Grunville, a negro settlement in the upper edge of Hawkins County, and were to have held another service the night following, when a mob of church members, armed with clubs and stones, broke in, and, after a struggle, killed the two Elders, and then proceeded to burn the church.

Garden Seeds.—D. M. Ferry & Co.,

of Detroit, Mich., send us a few samples of the flower and garden seeds which are grown and put up by them. We can say nothing as to the quality of the seeds, but from the attractive manner in which they are put up, with pictorial illustrations on the covers of the packets, we should imagine they ought to sell readily. The illustrated and descriptive catalogue of the firm is sent on application.

Pool Arrangements.—This morning, Receiver W. H. Bancroft and Gen. Pass, Agent S. W. Eccles, of the D. & R. G. W., and Gen. Supt. John Sharp, Asst. Supt. James Sharp, and Gen. Pass, Agent Francis Cope, of the Utah Central, held a meeting, at which matter pertaining to the local Utah pool were considered. Some slight changes in existing arrangements were made, and an agreement entered into by which the pool will continue until March 31st, 1887.

That "Tea Company."—The manipulators of the "Merchants' Tea Company," who held forth in this city for some time, and then shipped to San Francisco, seem to have struck a snag. The Chronicle says:

"In the impelling of a jury to try the members of the Merchants' Tea Company on a charge of conducting a lottery, before Judge Burke, out of a panel of 150 jurors only four citizens were found to be competent. The jury, Geo. W. Menonny, John Slesinger, G. E. Wilson and S. A. Hussey were sworn, and Judge Burke ordered that another venire of fifty jurors should be returned before him on the 8th of March. The defendants objected to the continuance, but the calendar up to that date was crowded."

Honor to a Worthy Man.—By correspondence from Heber City we learn that John Duke, of that place, left there on Monday morning to go to Provo and stand his trial before Judge Powers on an indictment charging him with unlawfully cohabiting with his wife. On the evening of the 30th ult., a host of friends and relatives assembled at his house as a surprise party and spent a pleasant evening, during which music-making, singing, feasting, etc., were indulged in, and the good feelings and confidence which the Saints acquiesced with Brother Duke universally entertain for him were expressed and blessings showered upon his head.

The Witness Miss Winters.—After the questions propounded before the grand jury yesterday, Miss H. A. Winters and her mother were allowed to return home, which they did this morning. The first named, however, was not released from her bonds, but is required to appear before the Commissioner upon "due notice" being given. Formerly witnesses began with the Commissioner and were then sent to the grand jury. Now the order is being reversed, and in cases where there is no other reason than to harass a woman, as Mr. Dickson must be fully aware of what evidence Miss Winters can give, and holding her to appear before the Commissioner indicates that there is nothing upon which the grand jury can act.

First District Court.—In the First District Court yesterday, before Judge Powers, in the case of Patrick Tregan vs. John Baker, defendant was allowed ten days additional time to plead, answer or demur.

The People vs. Elizabeth Craig, indicted at the September term for murder. The indictment being faulty, the prosecution moved its being dismissed, and the grand jury were instructed to reconvene.

The People vs. David Miller, grand larceny. Defendant was arraigned and the statutory time being waived, he pleaded not guilty.

Wm. Litchfield was admitted to citizenship.

WHILE several cars loaded with granite rock were being pushed up South Temple Street by a locomotive this morning, one of them left the track at the crossing on First West Street.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

—Land-jumping has become quite a profession in Beaver during the last few weeks, having been carried to the extreme. Nothing, however, of any special nature.

—Annie Allen, of Tombstone, Arizona, who, last December, shot and killed in the face of George Berryman, has been tried and found guilty of assault to do bodily injury.

—A mass meeting was held at Tombstone, Arizona, on Saturday night, and strong resolutions were passed, with-drawing patronage from all employing Chinese in any capacity.

—On Friday, the 18th inst., Christian Peck's hay corral, stable and outbuildings, which were worth about $300 worth of property at Mount Pleasant, Cause, matches in the hands of small children, were burned.

—Week before last some one entered Alfred Erickson's house in Mt. Pleasant, taking $50 dollars in cash, several dozens of eggs, a needle case and a purse containing 15 cents. A day or two after the thief took place the stolen money was returned to the house through the window. On the 23d inst., George Meyrick, a lad in his teens, was tried and convicted of stealing the other articles.

The Tucson Star says: "If the Government will make an estimate of how much it has cost to hunt hostile Indians in Arizona and New Mexico during the last three years, it will find the sum would have paid the expenses of removing every Indian from the San Carlos reservation to some other territory, and purchased every square a sewing machine and every pupose a rifle and a modern prayer book."

—Alonso W. Laird, brother of Congressman Laird, of Nebraska, was killed on the night of February 27th by a freight train, at the Adams and Pacific Junction, near Albuquerque, New Mexico. He was on his way to Old Mexico to inspect some mining property belonging to his brother in that country. Having relatives living at or near that junction, he had stopped over to pay them a visit. He visited the place in the evening was run over by one of the freight trains.

—On the evening of the 19th ult., in Ephraim, Sanpete County, Nick Nielson, a boy 15 years of age, who has only been in the country a few months, got a rifle belonging to his father's uncle, Mr. Andrew P. Olson—with whom he was living—from a drawer, and in examining it the pistol was accidentally discharged, the fatal contents entering his brain just above the eye. He breathed for about one hour after being shot, but never spoke. The boy's father is in Denmark, and his mother is dead.
