ARGUED DEMURRER.

In Case of Man Charged With Selling Liquor to Indians.

A demurrer in the case of George Boss, charged with selling liquor to Indians, was argued yesterday in the United States district court. The accusation against Boss was that last September he conveyed a wagon load of whisky to the Indian reservation, which, it is alleged, he unlawfully disposed of to the reduction in the vicinity of the Utah agency. He was indicted by the federal grand jury, and a demurrer was filed in the case on the ground that the Indians were at that time citizens of the United States and are no longer wards of the general government.

Attorney M. M. Kalish appeared for Boss, and made a lengthy argument on the demurrer. The principal cases cited by him are those of Hoff and Viles, which he maintained were directly in line with the case at bar.

United States Attorney Joseph Lippman represented the government, and argued against the demurrer. The case was taken under advisement by the court.

A suit was filed yesterday in the federal court by Thomas England for damages against the Ogden Waterworks company to the amount of $21,875, for the alleged wrongful taking of water from defendant and more than fifty other persons. England represents the others in the suit, as their claims had been assigned to him. The complaint alleges that the defendant company wrongfully diverted and used water from the Ogden river and its tributaries to the detriment of plaintiff and others.

WRIT WAS DENIED.

John Kooymann Failed in His Habeas Corpus Proceedings.

The petition for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of John Kooymann was denied by Judge Lewis yesterday afternoon. Kooymann is not quite 19 years of age and was sentenced by Judge Whitaker of the city court on Jan. 13 to 129 days in the county jail for the crime of embezzlement. In the petition for a writ of habeas corpus Attorney R. B. Porter contended that Kooymann should have been tried before the juvenile court on account of his age. In his argument the attorney insisted that a person was still 18 years of age until he had reached his 19th anniversary and as the juvenile court has jurisdiction of all cases against persons 18 years and under Kooymann should have been tried in that court.

Judge Lewis held that when a person passes his eighteenth birthday he ceases to be 18 years of age and hence is not within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court. Therefore he decided that the city court had jurisdiction in the Kooymann case and the writ was denied. The case does not affect Kooymann's liberty, as he was pardoned by the state board of pardons on Saturday.

CURED CONSUMPTION.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." See ad and E. & S. sold by Z. C. M. I. LECTURE FOR STUDENTS.

Those At University to be Entertained By Dr. Mitchell Carroll.

A lecture will be given next Thursday morning, before the students at the state university, by Dr. Mitchell Carroll, associate secretary of the Archaeological Institute of America, who is making a trip through the west in the interest of his institution. The doctor is to be given a reception at the University club, and in the evening, will lecture at the University hall, on the Athenian Acropolis.

The object of the institute is to further archaeological research, and it is interesting to know that the institute has accomplished great things in research in Egypt, Palestine, and southern Europe. Its roster contains the names of many distinguished citizens.

TO MAKE IT PERMANENT.

Directors of Y. W. C. A. Want Home For Association.

The directors and advisory committee of the Y. W. C. A. met last evening in the rooms of the Manufacturers and Merchants' association, to talk over the prospects for the permanent establishment of the association. Reports were made as to the results of committee work in looking up a building, and as to the best method of procuring the same. The idea of securing the Salt Lake Collegiate institute building was considered, but the institute corporation is desirous of selling the building for less than $6,000 down, in order to build elsewhere, so that plan was out of the question. The idea of securing the estate dealers and owners were reported, to build for the association, and receive pay in installments. It was decided that no definite step could be taken at this time. But so far, the most feasible scheme seems to be to secure rooms for rent and meeting, and then branch out. The board will meet again next Monday night, and by that time some more formal plan of action will have been outlined.

TOOTH SOME SALADS.

Promote Health and Please Palate.

A lover of good living writes from Chicago:

"The favorite salads in my family," he says, "are prepared with Grape-Nuts, according to your recipes. We regard them as healthful and delicious. We are also fond of Grape-Nuts with cream as a breakfast food, and use it daily."

"I was a great sufferer for years," he continues, "from stomach trouble, which gave rise to painful headaches, and I was at last completely prostrated and bedridden with ulceration of the stomach and bowels. I suffered untold agonies while the doctors were trying to cure my ailment with medicines."

"I could retain nothing on my stomach but an occasional sip of cold water, or a teaspoonful of olive oil, and at last even these could not be kept down. The doctors then gave me up—said there was no hope for me."

"In this strait my good angel induced me to try Grape-Nuts food, and it may sound ludicrous to say of this initial experiment that the sensation was simply 'heavenly' but nothing milder than that will express it."

"My recovery was rapid and in a very few days I was up and about, and in a few weeks was a perfectly well man again. And it was all the work of the Grape-Nuts food, for, as I have said, the doctors had ceased to give me medicine, considering my case hopeless."

"Since then Grape-Nuts has been, and always shall be a staple article of diet with us." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
