

OGDEN DEPARTMENT.

MANAGER, - E. A. LARKIN. Telephone 138-K.
CIRCULATOR, - M. H. THOMAS. Telephone 697-K.

The Daily and Saturday News delivered by carrier. Any complaints as to service will be promptly rectified by the circulation.

OGDEN, UTAH, - APRIL 25, 1904.

WEBER STAKE CONFERENCE.

Interesting Addresses by President Joseph F. Smith and Others

OGDEN SCHOOLS NEED $109,300

Wanted Two Months After Marriage.

The quarterly conference of the Weber stake was held in the Ogden tabernacle yesterday. President L. W. Shurtliff presiding. After the opening devotionals exercises President Shurtliff made a brief address. He expressed a glad gratitude that the Lord has preserved the rising generation in the faith of their fathers, and that the young men and women are laboring so zealously in the work of God. He urged the Saints to be faithful and loyal to every trust, to shun temptation and avoid all evil; to devote their time to the accumulation of worldly wealth.

"My Father" was beautifully played on the violin by J. E. Ellerby, accompanied on the organ by Miss Della Lusk.

James M. Ferrin, Charles T. Wood, Joseph E. Ward and Josiah M. Ferrin spoke briefly bearing faithful testimonies.

Anthony H. Lund next addressed the assembly. He urged the importance of the Saints shunning the very appearance of evil, and showing such example as would be worthy of emulation. Example speaks louder than words. The power of example is great, and we should examine our hearts and our thoughts and see if we are living lives of righteousness. Evil thoughts might come to us but we should not harbor them. Every sin begins in our thoughts; in fact our thoughts are mighty powers for good or evil. If our thoughts are pure we need fear no sin, for the Savior said "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."

The choir sang "End of the Way," "My Mary Farley singing the solo; President L. W. Shurtliff made a few choice remarks and the choir and congregation sang "Praise God from whom all blessings flow." Benediction was pronounced by Elder Louis A. Kelch.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon service was commenced at 2 o'clock by the singing of "Thank Thee, O God, for a Prophet," by Elder W. W. Burton. The choir sang the anthem "God of Heaven."

Patrick John Smith bore testimony to the truth of the great latter-day work, that Joseph Smith was a prophet of God, and that the Redeemer lived, and showed the necessity of living lives of righteousness, and being able to discern between good and evil, so as not to be in sin.

The resignation of Sup't. L. F. Moench from the Ogden stake was accepted, and the following members were sustained as the superintendent of the stake religion class work: William R. Langlois, superintendent; William T. Terry and Wilford L. Brannum, as assistants. Each of the members of the new superintendency made remarks.

President Anthony H. Lund explained the object and purpose of the religion class work. He warned the Saints that the remarks of the previous speakers in religion class work and its benefits. He said, it is to implant in the mind of the child the principles of eternal life, and to correct wrong ideas and teachings that are current, and correct principles may be taught to children, for we are here to save children. Our efforts to save should be at home. Let the true plan of salvation be planted in our own hearts and homes and then when it has borne fruit, let it go out into the world, and good and the salvation of mankind. If we can put ourselves into this position we need have no fear of our spiritual salvation as well as our temporal salvation. If any of us desire to be saved, let us first be saved in our hearts, and then let us be saved in our lives, and then let us be saved in our families, and then let us be saved in our world.

The speaker exhorted the Saints to be more careful of that unruly member, the tongue. It should be governed and controlled. He warned the Saints to keep free from the tattling and scandalous tongue, and urged a better observance of the "Mormon" creed: "Mind your own business, and let the business of others alone." The Saints should not be meddling with the business of others, but let each of us mind our own business. We should observe that principle to be as wise as serpents and as harmless as doves, and control our tongues, so that we have anything to say, let it be as edifying as possible. Let our neighbor's personal affairs be none of our business, and should be respected as such.

President P. Middleton made a few choice remarks, endorsing what had been said and encouraging the Saints to be more faithful discharge of their duties.

The choir sang the anthem, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," pronounced by President M. C. Pygare.

NECESSARY FOR SCHOOLS.

It will require $109,300 for the maintenance of the Ogden public school system.

SCHOOL EXHIBIT OF 'MANUAL TRAINING.

Magnificent Display Reflecting Credit on Pupils, Teachers and Promoters.

USEFUL AND ARTISTIC WORK.

Making Practical Application of School Instruction - Interesting Closing Exercises.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Utah Co., April 23.—The public school children of the county, the teachers and many of the parents and trustees were welcome visitors to Provo, Saturday, on the occasion of the closing exercises of the county schools, and the event was a most enjoyable one, the only feature that was in the least unpleasant being the weather, and that was almost forgotten in the enthusiasm of the young people, and the pride of the parents and teachers, which was shared by all who visited the exhibit of manual training and other school work at the Brigham Young university training building and attended the splendid exercises at the tabernacle in the afternoon.

The exhibit of school work had been arranged the day before by the teachers of the various schools and made a magnificent display, reflecting credit alike upon pupils and instructors. It excelled any former display of the schools both in quantity and quality, consisting largely of manual training products, such as drawings, needle work, wood work, clay work, maps, charts, etc., for which prizes were offered. Prizes were also offered for original compositions, oral review of the history of Utah, and many other exercises. The progress made in the manual training, and the general interest the children take in this branch of education is especially gratifying, as it is a means of directing their energies along lines that will be useful to them through life, and teaches them the value of practical application of that which they learn, and Superintendent Brown and Instructor Eastmond deserve great credit for the high degree of efficiency to which this work has been brought. They have been ably seconded by the teachers, and encouraged by the trustees, and the eagerness with which the pupils have taken hold of the work have all helped to bring about the fine results that were presented to the people on Saturday.

At 9 o'clock about 2,000 pupils and parents came in on excursion trains (it is estimated that about 1,000 came by train) to the school work exhibit, and were met at the depot by the B. Y. U. band and some of the local educators. A procession was formed and the march taken up for the university. The forenoon was spent in viewing the exhibits and in enjoying an impromptu intertainment in the college hall by those who were not able to gain admittance to the exhibition rooms, visitors having to be admitted in sections. At 2 o'clock the tabernacle was filled with the young people and their friends for the closing exercises. Among the prominent citizens seated on the stand were State Superintendent Nelson, President Brigham, Professor William M. Stewart, President David John, Hon. Abel John Evans, Superintendent Brown and principals and trustees of the several schools. The many beautiful class banners arrayed along the railing of the stage occupied by the choir made a picturesque background for the sea of beautiful, smiling, laughing youth that filled the large building.

Superintendent Brown called the assembly to order and the services were commenced by the audience, led by Principal J. A. Vance, singing "There's No Time Like the Present Time." Prayer was offered by Hon. A. J. Evans.

Prof. W. S. Rawlings, superintendent of the Provo city schools, delivered an earnest address of welcome. "Guardian Angels" was sung by the schools, led by Music Instructor Aaron Roylance.

A lengthy and well prepared program followed, consisting of addresses, essays, historical sketches, songs, etc., from the various schools of the county, which reflected great credit upon all who took part, and upon the schools they represented.

DEATH OF CHRISTINE JEPPESEN. Sister Christine Jeppeesen, believed to be the oldest lady in Utah, died at her home in the Fifth ward yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, of old age. She was born April 16, 1807, at Krokholm, Lolland, Denmark. She joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1857. She and her husband then prepared to emigrate to Utah, selling their estate, by which means they helped a number of the Saints to emigrate with them in the year 1859. On arriving in Utah after a long and tedious journey of five months, they settled in Pleasant Grove, where they remained for the winter. In the spring of 1860 they moved to Provo, where Sister Jeppeesen resided up to the time of her death. She retained the use of her faculties up to the time of her death, and enjoyed good health, considering her great age. She was a true and faithful Latter-day Saint. She leaves four children and four grandchildren to mourn her departure. The funeral services will be held in the Fifth ward Relief society hall Tuesday, at 2 o'clock.

JENNINGS ACQUITTED. The Jennings arson case occupied all day Saturday in the Fourth district court, being mostly devoted to hearing evidence in rebuttal introduced by the state.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

GARDEN CITY NOTES. Suit for divorce has been commenced by Lora Amanda Gates, of Provo against James H. Gates, of Provo.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

PLAIN CITY.

MISSIONARY FAREWELL.

Snow Storm Hinders Beet Planting and Other Spring Work.

Special Correspondence.

Plain City, Weber Co., April 21.—The people were surprised this morning to find a heavy fall of snow on the ground. Sugar beet planting and other spring work will receive quite a setback, as farmers were pushing things with all possible speed owing to the lateness of the spring.

A farewell party was given in the meetinghouse last night in honor of Elder Jos. Haxson, who departs today for a mission to England his native land, and where he has previously filled one mission. A very fine program was rendered and at the close, a well-filled purse was handed to the departing missionary, with the best wishes of the Saints.

Lyman Skeen who has for some weeks past been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, is slowly recovering.

Messrs. George W. and Franklin Moech of Logan City, visited their sister Mrs. L. R. Jenkins this week. The latter is soon to depart for a mission to Great Britain.

"I had a running, itching sore on my leg. Suffered tortures. Doan's Ointment took away the burning and itching instantly, and quickly effected permanent cure." C. W. Lembarat, Bowling Green, O.

MALAD, IDAHO.

YOUNG LADY'S SUDDEN DEATH

Missionary Farewell—Republican Primary—Hollingshead-Jones Wedding.

Special Correspondence.

Malad, Oneida Co., Idaho, April 20.—The sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. Benjamin Price of Malad reached here Friday morning. The deceased was stricken with heart failure and died almost instantly.

Mrs. Price was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neph Campbell of this city, where she was born in 1851. She leaves a husband and little boy, and many friends and relatives to mourn their loss. The funeral services were held Sunday from the family residence, Elder Brigham E. Jones and Bishop W. W. H. Richards were the speakers. Each spoke in glowing terms of the deceased and of her excellent character.

The progress made in the manual training, and the general interest the children take in this branch of education is especially gratifying, as it is a means of directing their energies along lines that will be useful to them through life, and teaches them the value of practical application of that which they learn, and Superintendent Brown and Instructor Eastmond deserve great credit for the high degree of efficiency to which this work has been brought. They have been ably seconded by the teachers, and encouraged by the trustees, and the eagerness with which the pupils have taken hold of the work have all helped to bring about the fine results that were presented to the people on Saturday.

At 9 o'clock about 2,000 pupils and parents came in on excursion trains (it is estimated that about 1,000 came by train) to the school work exhibit, and were met at the depot by the B. Y. U. band and some of the local educators. A procession was formed and the march taken up for the university. The forenoon was spent in viewing the exhibits and in enjoying an impromptu intertainment in the college hall by those who were not able to gain admittance to the exhibition rooms, visitors having to be admitted in sections. At 2 o'clock the tabernacle was filled with the young people and their friends for the closing exercises. Among the prominent citizens seated on the stand were State Superintendent Nelson, President Brigham, Professor William M. Stewart, President David John, Hon. Abel John Evans, Superintendent Brown and principals and trustees of the several schools. The many beautiful class banners arrayed along the railing of the stage occupied by the choir made a picturesque background for the sea of beautiful, smiling, laughing youth that filled the large building.

Superintendent Brown called the assembly to order and the services were commenced by the audience, led by Principal J. A. Vance, singing "There's No Time Like the Present Time." Prayer was offered by Hon. A. J. Evans.

Prof. W. S. Rawlings, superintendent of the Provo city schools, delivered an earnest address of welcome. "Guardian Angels" was sung by the schools, led by Music Instructor Aaron Roylance.

A lengthy and well prepared program followed, consisting of addresses, essays, historical sketches, songs, etc., from the various schools of the county, which reflected great credit upon all who took part, and upon the schools they represented.

DEATH OF CHRISTINE JEPPESEN. Sister Christine Jeppeesen, believed to be the oldest lady in Utah, died at her home in the Fifth ward yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, of old age. She was born April 16, 1807, at Krokholm, Lolland, Denmark. She joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1857. She and her husband then prepared to emigrate to Utah, selling their estate, by which means they helped a number of the Saints to emigrate with them in the year 1859. On arriving in Utah after a long and tedious journey of five months, they settled in Pleasant Grove, where they remained for the winter. In the spring of 1860 they moved to Provo, where Sister Jeppeesen resided up to the time of her death. She retained the use of her faculties up to the time of her death, and enjoyed good health, considering her great age. She was a true and faithful Latter-day Saint. She leaves four children and four grandchildren to mourn her departure. The funeral services will be held in the Fifth ward Relief society hall Tuesday, at 2 o'clock.

JENNINGS ACQUITTED. The Jennings arson case occupied all day Saturday in the Fourth district court, being mostly devoted to hearing evidence in rebuttal introduced by the state.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

PLAIN CITY.

MISSIONARY FAREWELL.

Snow Storm Hinders Beet Planting and Other Spring Work.

Special Correspondence.

Plain City, Weber Co., April 21.—The people were surprised this morning to find a heavy fall of snow on the ground. Sugar beet planting and other spring work will receive quite a setback, as farmers were pushing things with all possible speed owing to the lateness of the spring.

A farewell party was given in the meetinghouse last night in honor of Elder Jos. Haxson, who departs today for a mission to England his native land, and where he has previously filled one mission. A very fine program was rendered and at the close, a well-filled purse was handed to the departing missionary, with the best wishes of the Saints.

Lyman Skeen who has for some weeks past been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, is slowly recovering.

Messrs. George W. and Franklin Moech of Logan City, visited their sister Mrs. L. R. Jenkins this week. The latter is soon to depart for a mission to Great Britain.

"I had a running, itching sore on my leg. Suffered tortures. Doan's Ointment took away the burning and itching instantly, and quickly effected permanent cure." C. W. Lembarat, Bowling Green, O.

MALAD, IDAHO.

YOUNG LADY'S SUDDEN DEATH

Missionary Farewell—Republican Primary—Hollingshead-Jones Wedding.

Special Correspondence.

Malad, Oneida Co., Idaho, April 20.—The sad news of the sudden death of Mrs. Benjamin Price of Malad reached here Friday morning. The deceased was stricken with heart failure and died almost instantly.

Mrs. Price was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neph Campbell of this city, where she was born in 1851. She leaves a husband and little boy, and many friends and relatives to mourn their loss. The funeral services were held Sunday from the family residence, Elder Brigham E. Jones and Bishop W. W. H. Richards were the speakers. Each spoke in glowing terms of the deceased and of her excellent character.

The progress made in the manual training, and the general interest the children take in this branch of education is especially gratifying, as it is a means of directing their energies along lines that will be useful to them through life, and teaches them the value of practical application of that which they learn, and Superintendent Brown and Instructor Eastmond deserve great credit for the high degree of efficiency to which this work has been brought. They have been ably seconded by the teachers, and encouraged by the trustees, and the eagerness with which the pupils have taken hold of the work have all helped to bring about the fine results that were presented to the people on Saturday.

At 9 o'clock about 2,000 pupils and parents came in on excursion trains (it is estimated that about 1,000 came by train) to the school work exhibit, and were met at the depot by the B. Y. U. band and some of the local educators. A procession was formed and the march taken up for the university. The forenoon was spent in viewing the exhibits and in enjoying an impromptu intertainment in the college hall by those who were not able to gain admittance to the exhibition rooms, visitors having to be admitted in sections. At 2 o'clock the tabernacle was filled with the young people and their friends for the closing exercises. Among the prominent citizens seated on the stand were State Superintendent Nelson, President Brigham, Professor William M. Stewart, President David John, Hon. Abel John Evans, Superintendent Brown and principals and trustees of the several schools. The many beautiful class banners arrayed along the railing of the stage occupied by the choir made a picturesque background for the sea of beautiful, smiling, laughing youth that filled the large building.

Superintendent Brown called the assembly to order and the services were commenced by the audience, led by Principal J. A. Vance, singing "There's No Time Like the Present Time." Prayer was offered by Hon. A. J. Evans.

Prof. W. S. Rawlings, superintendent of the Provo city schools, delivered an earnest address of welcome. "Guardian Angels" was sung by the schools, led by Music Instructor Aaron Roylance.

A lengthy and well prepared program followed, consisting of addresses, essays, historical sketches, songs, etc., from the various schools of the county, which reflected great credit upon all who took part, and upon the schools they represented.

DEATH OF CHRISTINE JEPPESEN. Sister Christine Jeppeesen, believed to be the oldest lady in Utah, died at her home in the Fifth ward yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, of old age. She was born April 16, 1807, at Krokholm, Lolland, Denmark. She joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in 1857. She and her husband then prepared to emigrate to Utah, selling their estate, by which means they helped a number of the Saints to emigrate with them in the year 1859. On arriving in Utah after a long and tedious journey of five months, they settled in Pleasant Grove, where they remained for the winter. In the spring of 1860 they moved to Provo, where Sister Jeppeesen resided up to the time of her death. She retained the use of her faculties up to the time of her death, and enjoyed good health, considering her great age. She was a true and faithful Latter-day Saint. She leaves four children and four grandchildren to mourn her departure. The funeral services will be held in the Fifth ward Relief society hall Tuesday, at 2 o'clock.

JENNINGS ACQUITTED. The Jennings arson case occupied all day Saturday in the Fourth district court, being mostly devoted to hearing evidence in rebuttal introduced by the state.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

After the case was argued and submitted the jury considered it for about four and a half hours and then brought a verdict of not guilty. Judge Marlowe stated to the jury that under the law and the evidence that was the proper verdict to return.

DELINQUENT SALE.

La Reine Mining Company, Principal place of business, Salt Lake City, Utah. Notice—There are delinquent upon the following described stock on account of assessment No. 16, levied March 21, 1904, the several amounts set opposite the names of the respective shareholders, as follows:

No.	Name	Shares	Am't.
134	John Standford	200	3.00
135	Luther Nickerson	200	3.00
136	John L. Herrick	200	3.00
137	W. B. Baker	200	3.00
138	Mrs. M. P. Sammon	200	3.00
139	A. J. Holmquist	200	3.00
140	R. S. Joseph	200	3.00
141	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
142	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
143	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
144	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
145	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
146	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
147	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
148	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
149	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
150	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
151	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
152	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
153	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
154	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
155	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
156	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
157	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
158	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
159	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
160	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
161	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
162	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
163	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00
164	D. H. Higginbotham, Jr.	200	3.00