An effort is being made to locate John B. Stewart, aged 16, formerly of this city, for whom it is being sought. This is in the shape of an insurance policy left for him by Peter Stewart, the boy's father, who died recently at Spokane.

Jacob Stukl of Poplar Grove has been suffering from cancer of the stomach until he is in a destitute condition. His neighbors have therefore paid off the mortgage on his house, furnished food and clothing, and undertaken sundry other kindly offices for him.

The differences existing among members of the Barentsen union of this city, regarding which none of the members will speak, are soon to be settled in the union. The matter was again taken up at the meeting held last night in Federation hall and action was deferred until a later date.

Owners of the alkali lands lying to the northwest of the city are anxious to have their lands included in the government irrigation project. If only drainage can be brought in with the irrigation, and are ready to pay the extra cost. The state engineers will take up the matter with the interior department.

Clem Bagley, a bar tender, met a negro who looked suspicious last night and rather than take any chances, he pulled his gun on the man and searched him for weapons. None was found and Bagley left the colored man go his way. Bagley notified the police and two patrolmen were sent up to protect the locality.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a special service for tourists was held in the Tabernacle, the speaker being Elder William H. King, who delivered a comprehensive discourse on "Mormonism." In addition the following numbers were rendered on the organ by Tracy Y. Cannon, who took the place of Prof. J. J. McClellan.

City Superintendent of Schools Christensen says that 60 per cent of the pupils who entered the high schools from the grade schools in the mid-year promotions entered the commercial course, and the indications are that the accommodations for the commercial classes will have to be enlarged. Out of the 400 pupils who were promoted to the high schools recently nearly 60 entered the commercial classes.

A call has been issued for a meeting of the Indian War Veterans on Friday evening, Feb. 10, at 7:30 p. m. in the ward assembly hall for the purpose of making arrangements for the annual reunion which is to be held at the same place on the evening of the 14th inst. at 7 p. m. In addition to Friday evening at 8 o'clock the delegates to the convention of war veterans which occurs in this city during April conference will be named and elected.

Promoter A. L. Rich of the St. Nicholas hotel has had 2,000 posters of the hotel pasted all over the city. The posters, said to be unsurpassed anywhere. It includes two of the first posters ever issued of entertainments in the Denver Land and Water, entitled "Puss in Boots," and the "Fort Thieves." There are 2,000 posters in the collection, and very unique they are. The editor of the Metropolitan magazine of New York has a similar collection to Mr. Rich's but it is not so complete.

George J. Fox, state organizer for the Socialists, addressed the Social Science club at their meeting in Federation hall last night, on the subject of "The Social Problem." A select program of vocal and instrumental music was also rendered. Next Sunday evening Murray King will address the club, and the following Sunday Father Haggerty of Chicago, who was silenced because of his pronounced views on Socialism, will speak of his views on economic questions.

Jack Wilson was caught in the act of attempting to enter the Lion saloon at the corner of State street and Commercial early yesterday morning. Patrolman Simpson came upon the scene just as the man was about to turn the key in the door. He had broken the glass in the front door to get access to the lock. As he saw the man in blue and brass approach, he darted up the alley, but the feet of the guardian of the peace were too swift for him. Judge Diehl will dispose of his case today.

Joe Gilbert was arrested yesterday and booked as insane. He had been terrorizing the neighborhood around upper Main street, and it is said that frequently the life of his wife was in danger at his hands. After he had been safely placed in jail, the telephone at the station was kept busy by persons who had seen the disturbance and who wanted to know if he had really killed his wife. The appearance of this woman at the station later in the day was conclusive evidence that he had not. She verified the assertion of the officers that her husband was insane.

Those who think there is but little snow in the east mountains should note the information from Alta, in Big Cottonwood. In the latter part of January, written by his son Lemuel, it is stated that up to Friday noon fully 4 feet of snow had fallen in the recent storm, and that it was still snowing. The probability is that several additional feet have been added by this time. Those who have been in the area have seen the snow in the canyon, most of these being in the region of Mt. Alta-Quincy mine, where young Mr. Colbath is in charge. He did not report that any particular damage had been done by the slides.

A lecture much enjoyed by those present was that delivered in the Thirtieth ward last night by Daniel Harrington, whose subject was "A Chapter in the History of American Liberty." The speaker dealt with the adoption of the Magna Charta at Runnymede, following this with the travels of the Pilgrim Fathers to this country and the events leading up to the Declaration of Independence. The speaker referred to the Constitution and its provisions, and said that the people of this land, under this instrument, were the most free and independent people upon earth. In addition to the lecture an enjoyable musical program was rendered.

F. J. Silver tried to collect a bill at a meeting of the Salvation Army and made such a noise about it that his trouble put him behind the bars. He is charged with disturbing a religious meeting. Some time ago a man at the Army shelter departed, owing Silver some money. Silver thought the Army was responsible. He called at the meetings of the sect and demanded that he be paid. One of the Salvationists hit him up Main street and succeeded in stopping him. While he was trying to show the man the error of his ways, Patrolman Jim Williams happened along. The man began to abuse both the men and as a result he was locked up for safe keeping.

The inmates of the state prison were entertained and pleased at yesterday morning's meeting of the prison society of Christian Endeavor, with a recitation by Miss Mary Mayne of the Pierpont School of Oratory of this city, and a musical program from a large size Victor machine furnished by Mr. G. V. Gies. The musical numbers included "The Hymn" as sung by P. Lincoln, the Metropolitan Opera House basso, and "Caro Nome" by Melba. Miss Jessie Drew conducted the meeting and the visitors from town and country were a very pleasing address. Through the courtesy of the warden, the time of the meeting was prolonged so that the prisoners could be treated to more music than usual.

Members of the Press club held an informal meeting Saturday night at their new quarters, 161 Main street, in the Bamberger building. Anthony E. Carlson and George D. Pyper rendered vocal solos and Arthur Sheppard was accompanist. Impromptu speeches were delivered by several of the guests of the evening. The newly furnished rooms were much admired by all present. Upon the walls are a number of fine paintings, loaned to the club. Among these are six by H. L. A. Culmer, "Temples of the Rio Virgin," "Serenade," "Pink Rose," "Moonlight," "First prize state fair," "Heart of the Mountains," "Day After the Rain," (honorable mention Utah Art Institute), and "Grand Canyon of the Colorado." C. E. Dalin has loaned "Old Liberty Park" and "Lake Mary." Several of these paintings were included in Utah's exhibit at the St. Louis exposition.

SPRAY IN THE CITY CHURCHES.

Dr. Benjamin Young Discourses at Length on the "Tragedy of Failure."

"THE UNITARIAN EVANGEL."

Dr. Paden Speaks on the Thirst for Things in This Life—Other Sunday Sermons.

Last evening, at the First Methodist church, Rev. Benjamin Young discoursed on the "Tragedy of Failure." The life of Israel's first king was dwelt upon by the speaker, and it was shown how that Saul started out well, strong in person, prepossessing and with every seeming advantage for success. Yet the years of his life were more or less of a failure and the end of his days was a tragedy, all of which the speaker attributed to a vacillating character. Such a character cannot achieve success. Weather-cocks on a steeply are all very well, but are entirely out of place in politics or religion.

Saul was not awake to the opportunities that were afforded him. Opportunities present themselves before us every day. If we neglect them, they diminish and are gone, or if we treat them lightly or indifferently they will avail us nothing. Cupidity and love of display are apt to lead to failure in life. Have decision; and your place and stick to it; let the energy be concentrated to a particular thing, was the emphasized counsel of Mr. Young.

THE UNITARIAN EVANGEL.

"The Unitarian Evangel" was the subject of Rev. Frank Eddy's sermon at Unity hall, Unitarianism, he thought the Jewish thought of God, which governed the world from without, with the conception of an imminent intelligence, which is the gift of the Greeks, and also found in pantheism. In nature can be seen the divine might, and behind these forces can be discerned the divine mind, the origin of love, justice and righteousness. Mr. Eddy appealed for an earnestness and zeal worthy the great evangel of the church, and said:

"The test of doctrine is salvation. Is Unitarianism sufficient for salvation? Yes, in the only way God has provided for escape from sin, by the evolution of character, by spiritual growth in accordance with laws of spiritual being. The force of the decision that divine grace could be poured into an empty human soul as one pours water into a cup has wrought measureless harm, as has the belief that the soul is a vessel of Christ's sin could be wiped out of human souls as we wipe from a slate the problems we find unsolvable. But by the Unitarian evangel we may find the way of widening truth to the perplexed soul, we may point out the righteousness that is indestructible and the love that is the solution of life's perplexities.

The sermon concluded with a summing up of what the Unitarian evangel signified and an appeal for devotion and zeal based upon that significance.

THIRST FOR REARLY THINGS.
Dr. Paden preached last evening at the Presbyterian church, his text being taken from the saying of Jesus, "Thirst ye for the water of life." The speaker said that whoever shall drink the water that I give him shall never thirst. We partake of the best of the world's goods, yet we are still we thirst, and the world's worst things are an aggravation. Lusts are so many leeches; they feed on the life's blood. If selfishness were satisfying, the inmates of hell would be happy.

THE ATONEMENT.
An interesting musical program, both vocal and instrumental, was rendered at the Central Christian church yesterday morning. The pastor, Dr. T. W. Pinkerton, took for his text the twenty-third chapter of Isaiah, and preached a discourse on the atonement. The speaker declared that the vicarious principle finds expression in all parts of the universe. It is the law of being. In the kingdom of God he that sows must also reap. He that is a servant of all. The vicarious principle works in the human relationships of life. Not only do the guilty suffer, but the innocent suffer for their acts. We are not born to die, but to live, said the speaker.

Starting Out True.
People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago theater in which nearly six hundred people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number or over 3,000 people died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year. With scarcely a passing mention every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have been saved by the use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cured my daughter, Laura, a severe cold and she has saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." D. WILCOX, Logan, New York, sold all patients.

DR. TALMAGE BACK.

Resumes His Lecture Course at University Sunday School.

At the University Sunday school, which convened yesterday at 12:30, the regular work was again taken up in the two theological classes. Dr. Talmage having returned to the city.

The lectures on "Jesus the Christ" were resumed by further consideration of the topics presented at the last session of this class viz., "The God of Abraham and of Judah." Dr. Talmage gave a general summary of the course to date, and emphasized the significance of the scattering of the people of Israel among the nations. The departure of Levi and his colony from Jerusalem to the close of the Old Testament story and the opening of the New Testament chronicles, was filled in part at least by the Book of Mormon accounts. The social and political condition of Jews and Nephties immediately preceding the birth of Jesus was presented as an essential preface to the work to follow.

In the division studying the Book of Mormon, Prof. J. M. Mills spoke of the "Heroes of the Great Nephtie War." The central figure, ably assisted by Lehi, Teancum, Helaman, Gid, Teosmer, and Antipus. The Nephtie fortifications were described and the account of the Lamanite preparations was given. The reason for the success of the Lamanites in taking so many of the fortified cities of the Nephties, was the internal broils and dissensions among the Nephties. The speaker characterized Moroni as the greatest character in Book of Mormon history. He was unselfish, brave, energetic and skillful. His heart beat in sympathy with everything good. He was ready at once to condemn wrong. He was loyal to his own people and was easily annoyed by traitors. "If all men were, and ever would be, like unto Moroni, the very powers of hell would be shaken forever," said the speaker.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Mother's Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant taste and prompt and permanent cures have made it a favorite remedy for mothers and small children, for colds, croup and whooping cough. It always affords relief, and as it contains no opium or other harmful drug, it may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

BOLD FOOTPADS.

Rob "Fatty" Schuler and Companion at an Early Hour This Morning.

Two bold unmasked footpads held up and robbed Earl Shimmmin and "Fatty" Schuler between Second and Third South streets on State at about 1 o'clock this morning. The robbers secured about $15 and watches belonging to about $15. After securing the money they returned $1 to Schuler with the remark that it would buy him his breakfast.

The robbers then ran down State street and turned into Victoria alley. Schuler and Shimmmin hurried to Third South street and there met three men. The crowd then pursued the robbers, but they failed to sight them. The police have been furnished a good description of the men and hope to apprehend them.

Croup.

Begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and a dry cough. A remedy for croup is small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup (the child will cry for it) and at the same time a few drops of a strong, frequently Ballard's Snow Liniment to the throat.

Miss A. Vilet, New Castle, Colo., writes: "March 19th, 1901: 'I think Ballard's Horehound Syrup a wonderful remedy, and so I have given it to my child, and it has cured him of Croup.'"

BRING THEIR PRISONERS.

Salt Lake Officials Came Home With Bounty Fraud Perpetrators.

Deputy Sheriffs Sharp and Butler returned from Elko, Nev., last evening with their prisoners, Ed Hanna and Henry Martin, the men who were arrested in that city in connection with the bounty frauds in this country. The prisoners now occupy separate cells in the county jail awaiting arraignment. Sheriff Emery and his deputies have been trying to locate these two men ever since Jones and Davies were arrested several weeks ago and they were finally located in Reno, Nev., by the deputies about a week ago.

It is believed by Deputy Sheriff Sharp and Butler that some important information can be secured from Hanna as the fellow showed some desire to make a statement while en route here from Reno. Martin is an old jail bird, having served time in the Salt Lake county jail before and it is not believed that he will make any statement to the officers. His trial will be arranged before Judge Diehl in a day or two.

PLEA FOR REFORMS.

Unique Scheme for Celebration of Washington's Birthday.

An earnest publication is making strenuous efforts to have Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, set apart as "Farm, Home and Factory day," for the purpose of petitioning Congress for needed reforms for the three institutions named. An appeal pleading for action by the State of Utah has been received by Gov. Cutler, who is not at present inclined to endorse all the "reforms" set forth in the communication. Among them are the following:

Administration of transportation and communication with absolute fairness to all and with special privileges to government contractors; abolition of unjust rates; a parcels post, so that packages up to 11 pounds weight may be collected, transported by mail and delivered at one-half the present rates of postage; post check currency, where, by $1, $2 and $5 bills, also certificates for fractional parts of a dollar, may be used in making change; the collection of all bills to be made payable only to party whose name is written upon fact thereof—when not so used, the bills to be payable to bearer and to pass current as at present.

Itch-Ringworm.
E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes, April 28, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with itching ringworm of the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all the medical remedies, but it eluded a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for skin eruptions, and it has cured me each time. I am now well and happy. I am now well and happy. I am now well and happy."
