DESERET EVENING NEWS FRIDAY JUNE 25 1909

ris Going to Take the Matter of Garbage Hauling Out of His Hands,

The sanitary committee decided at a eeting last night in the council chamher to give the hauling of the city's garbage to the lowest bidder. For a ous time the councilmen have been garbage to the lowest electric term is the been loss time the councilmen have been disguisted with the incompetant man-isguisted with the incompetant man-ner in which Dr. M. R. Stewart, health refines of the public in general. It feelings of the public in general. It realizes stimated that the collec-tion of garbage was costing the city about $950 a month and an offer had already been received to collect the gribage for $800. The report of the garbage of the committee and ex-tion next Monday night. Frank Raleigh, who made a proposi-tion to the city several months ago, was before the committee and ex-plained how he intended to keep the city free of garbage, something that has not been done in the past. There were some objections to giving the con-tract to Raleigh for three years, so bids will be asked for a term of five years.

The committee considered the petition The committee considered the petition of Heber C. Cutler and 45 other resi-dents to have the garbage district ex-tended below Ninth South and west of Main street. This was denied and the action of the committee will come be-fore the council on Monday night for exercise

Arrangements will be made by the Arrangements will be made by the suncil to give the children a patriotic lebration at Liberty park July 5. The ublic grounds committee was asked public grounds committee was asked last night by Carl A. Badger, H. D. Folsom, principal of the Washington school, and George Buckle, formerly a councilman, to appropriate $100 to employ a band, erect a flag bole and make other arrangements for the cele-bration. The committee will recombration. The committee will recom-mend the requests to the council Monlay night.

SWEDISH PEOPLE CELEBRATE.

agoon the Scene of Great Gathering In Honor of Holiday.

The celebration by the Swedish peole of Salt Lake City of the natal day of Sweden, took place yesterday at the of Sweden, took place yesterday at the Lagoon, and was marked by a very large attendance of Swe-dish people, numbering several thousand. The movement to the popular resort began early in the day, and nearly every train that left the city was packed until about sundown. Games of all sorts, and sports af every kind, were indulged in during the afternoon. Everything that could be thought of to make the picnic a suc-cess in the way of contests was intro-duced on the program. The affair was very successful from every standpoint, especially from the social side.

CHILD FOUND ON DESERT.

Iwo-Ycar-Old Girl Lost for Three Days.

The two-year-old daughter of Mr. and irs. Fred Bird, who formerly lived at Murray, but who now live nearly 40 miles west of Kelton, was found on miler west of Kelton, was found on Wednesday, after having been lost on the desert for three days. Mr. Bird's mother who lives at Murray, received word yesterday, that the little one had been found. She was almost familshed, but it is said she will soon recover-from the exposure of three days on the desert without food or water. She wandered away on Sunday, and as it was late on Wednesday when she was found she was more than three days lost, during which the the parents were nearly distracted.

DOESN'T BELIEVE IN SIGNS.

William Ryder Takes Valuables to Bathroom and They Disappear. While William E. Ryder, a tourist

In the Summer time is your stomach. Be careful what you put into it-HUSLER'S

Adjutant General Wedgwood an-FLOUR. nounces that the annual encampment of the National Guard of Utah will be ignated

pavement.

Phits' court, where the building was damaged to the extent of about 315 from the fire originating from the stove explosion.

The gasoline stove in the home of T. Carline, 878 west First North, also exploded, but the fire was extinguished without loss The grass fires occurred at Eighth avenue and N street; M street and Eighth avenue and Tenth South and ignated. . During the encampment, the National Guard will participate as escort in the parade of the Grand Army of the Re-public at its annual encampment to be held at Salt Lake City August 9 to 14. During this parade dress uniforms will be worn. In camp. khaki uniforms A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar-proof vaults of the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 32-34 Main street, $2.00 per year. will be worn. It is desired that each company turn out with a strength of 50 men on this occasion. The commanding officer, First infan-try, will issue the necessary orders to carry this order into effect.

Thirteenth East street

COURT NEWS

CHARGE IN DISMISSED. The charge of embezzlement preferr-ed against Albert Joege by Mrs. Nancy Boone, was dismissed by Judge Bow-man this morning on motion of the assistant county attorney. Joege was charged with the misappropriation of $10 belonging to the complaining witness, but later explanations show the affair to have been a misunderstand-

JUVENILE COURT SESSIONS. Maj. M. A. Breeden was notified to-day of his appointment as clerk of the juvenile court. He will assume his duties Monday morning when Judge Gowan will hold court. There are about 75 cases which have been piled up in the two months that no court was held.

EMPEY BOUND OVER.

Although stating from the bench that he did not believe the defendant had really intended to commit the statutory offense with which he is statutory offense with which he is charged, Judge Bowman yesterday for probable cause, bound Alfred Empey over to the district court for trial. The charges against Empey arose out of an affair at Salt Palace several weeks ago, in which a 19-year-old girl. Miss Annie White, was in-volved, and which was termed in the court as an affair of indiscretion. Dur-ing the forenoon Empey, the defend-ant, occupied the stand, being the only witness for the defense. witness for the defense.

WIFE LODGES SERIOUS CHARGE.

Mrs. Maud H. Wennerstrom seeks a Mrs. Maud H. Wennerstrom seeks a divorce from her husband, L. H. Wen-nerstrom in a complaint which she has filed in the Third district court. She declared that he denied the paternity of his child and charged her with infidelity. They were mar-ried on Dec. 18, 1907. She asks for a division of the property which her husband has valued at $4,000 and the custody of their child, Veima, 1 year old. The court granted a restraining of der prohibiting him from disposing of his property until after the case is settled. of his pro

COURT NOTES.

John Blonquist filed suit yester-day against the Utah Consoli-dated Mining company. He wants $217 for smoke damages to his crops.

F. T. Hiatt was granted a fore-F. T. Hiatt was granted a fore-closure of a mortgage and judgment for $42,50 against William E. Hubbard and Frank N. Taylor vesterday by Judge Morse. The property involved is in the Waterloo addition and will be sold at a sheriff's sale. The action was brought on two promissory notes.

Louis Borzaga brought suit in the Third district court yesterday against Benjamin Harries, Nick Bonomi,George Huskinson and John R. Smith, adminrators of the estate of William Hus-

PERSONAL. A pretty wedding celebrated the marriage of Miss Anna Frazier and Henry H. Bockholt last night, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Waltthe bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walt-er Frazier, Bishop Cutler performing the ceremony in the presence of the relatives and intimate friends and a reception following for about 150 friends. The rooms were beautifully decorated with masses of roses, the bridal party standing under a canopy of roses and vines and the flowers used in profusion throughout the rooms. The bride wore a gown of white mull with trimmings of Irish lace, and her brides-maid. Miss, Afton Paul, was also in white, her gown trimmed with Valen-sciennes lace. Adrian Bockhold was best man. Assisting in receiving were held near Salt Lake, Aug. 8-15. General orders No. 13 regarding the encamp-ment is as follows: The annual encampment of the National Guard of Utah for the year 1993 will be held from August 8 to 15, Inclu-sive, in the vicinity of Salt Lake City, the precise location to be hereafter desbest man. Assisting in receiving were the groon's mother, and other relatives and friends assisted in entertaining. Mr and Mrs. Bockholt left today for Missoula, Mont.; where they will make their home. . . .

Another preity wedding of last night was that of Miss Leone Rogers, daugh-ter of Mrs. Aurella Rogers of Farm-ington, and Hyrum Stewart of Kass-ville, which took place in this city at the home of the bride's brother, Orson T. Rogers, on Third street, the cere-news best from place in the tomple from the second vines, and a number of relatives and friends assisted in receiving and enter-taining. The bride wore a handsome gown of white embroidered net and carried a shower boquet of bride's roses carried a shower boquet of bride's roses and white sweet peas. A feature of the evening was a delightful program, of musical selections given by Miss Ha.el Barnes, Miss Aura Rogers and Mr. Squires About 50 of the relatives and friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will be at home at 120 Canyon road until the completion of the Stew-wer driver and catworks. art flats on First and C streets.

one of these street-walkers she had robbed him of $$0. As usual in such cases, he could give a clear descrip-tion of the woman Yesterday Miss Nellie Bull and E. A Peterson were married at the home of the bride, with Bishop Barton per-forming the ceremony, Miss Annie Par-J. W. Russell, an Idaho rancher, also old a story of a hold-up to the police, out its details were so vague that little sons acting as bridesmaid and Arthur but is details were so vague that little credence was given to it. He said he had been attacked by two men on Commercial street, who after beating him and knocking him down robbed him of $30. He showed a bad bruise on the head, which might have resulted from his being struck or falling to the pavement beautifully decorated, the parlor in white and green, the library in red and the diningroom in pink roses and car-nations. The bridal party stood before an arch formed with curtains of smilax studded with white roses and looped studded with white roses and looped with white satin ribbons, while roses were all about the room. The bride wore a beautiful lingerle gown and carried bride's roses. Her bridesmald also wore white over pink. Assisting in receiving and entertaining were: Mrs. Ray Don, Mrs. Birdie Bull, Mrs. L. Matherson, Misses Ruby Parsons, Doro-the and Ethel Bull Musical selections A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar-proof vaults of the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 32-34 Main street, $2.00 per year. Matherson, Misses Ruby Parsons, Doro-thy and Ethel Bull. Musical selections were furnished by Miss Neille Howard at the plano. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson left later for a trip to St. Louis, Mo. After Aug. 1 they will be at home to their friends here at Conway avenue, John D. Spencer Characterizes it As Profession in Interesting Discussion.

Evening Sun.

Brandenburg, a witness in his own lefense today, related the history of the preparation of the Grover Cleve-land article, the sale of which to the New York Times led to Brandenburg's

That salesmanship has come to be James D. Stirling and Mary C W. H. Crane were married in the Sult Lake temple yesterday and a pretty recep-tion followed at the bride's home last known as a profession, ranking fourth in number, its predecessors being the law, medicine and the clergy, was the contention of John D. Spencer in an interesting lecture last night. The ocnight.

casion was the regular monthly mem-bership meeting of the Manufacturers' association of Utah. The three main essentials of sales-Mrs. W. R. Wight and Mrs. Eugene Barnes were hostesses at a bridge tea on Thursday, eight tables being played The three main essentials of sales-manship, said the speaker, are attract-ing attention, inspiring confidence, and creating demand, while the chief nec-essary qualifications for a salesman are cheerfulness, loyality, enthusiasm, tact and attention to personal appear-ance. Employer, whether manufactur-er or merchant, should be in close touch with his employes, and frequent conferences between the head of the establishment and those under him was advocated. In the hands of sales-men lies the fate of the principal, hence the necessity for a constant campaign and a number of others coming in late and a number of others coming in later to tea. Peonles, crimson rambler and pink roses were used in the decorations, the diningroom being especially pretty with a Cluny lace cloth over pink, and a centerpiece of pink roses and candles shaded in pink. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Ray Hecker-man, Mrs. E. C. Fairweather and Miss Holen Royaud. The guests were great Helen Boxrud. The guests were greet-ed at the door by little Miss Lejune Heckerman. . . .

men lies the fate of the principal, hence the necessily for a constant campaign of education in everything that per-tains to the establishment. The saying that a salesman is born, not made, is erroneous, remarked Mr. Spencer, as observation had convinced him that there are few defects that can not be trained away. An employe owes to his employer the best that is in him and undivided time and al-legiance. A nerson prope to dissing Miss Alice Young entertained delight-fully last night in honor of Miss Grace Grant, one of the month's brides, the rooms being bright with roses and the lawn lighted with Japanese lanterns. Music and games were among the features and about 50 were present. Miss Young was assisted by Mrs. Ar-thur Shepherd and Mrs. Nephi Morris.

legiance. A person prone to dissipa-tion cannot be fair and honest to his employer, and a side issue, even if sanctioned by the head of the es-tablishment, can not but prove detri-mental to the main thing in hand. Mrs. Samuel Paul and Miss Ethel Paul entertained yesterday at a liter-ary affair, a program of readings and music making a delightful afternoon. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. J.

M. Dart and Miss Anna Decker.

M. Dart and Miss Anna Decker, Mrs. John McFarlane entertained the officers of the M. I. A. of Waterloo ward, together with a number of friends, as a surprise for President John McFarlane in serving were Mrs. M. A. Liddle, Mrs. Ether Parry and the Misses Florence McFarlane and Daisy Wood, Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hetron, Bessie Word, Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hetron, Bessie Word, Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Hetron, Bessie Word, Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank and the diningroom in red and white. Dainty refreshments were served on the lawn, which was prettily lighted with Japanese lanterns. Assisting Mrs. McFarlane in serving were Mrs. M. A. Liddle, Mrs. Ether Parry and the Misses Mattle McFarlane, Hattle McFarlane, Mosfarlane, Mrs. Bether Parry and Deim just before election. The witness said he offered Mr. Cleveland $2,000 for the The above cut is a reproduction of he signatures of Grover Cleveland series. On March 5, Brandenburg called at Mr, Cleveland's office and received from him 15 or 18 groups of papers. The contents were made into the arti-cle signed "Grover Cleveland." Bran-denburg said he transcribed them him-self and that either on March 6 or 7, he took the typewritten sheets to Mr. Cleveland, who made corrections in them. The sheets were again trans-cribed. ogether with the alleged forgery, which appears at the bottom. These orm part of the exhibits now being introduced by the state in the trial in New York. The photographs were secured by Isaac Russell, formerly of the Deseret News and who is now reporting the trial for the New York them. cribed. New York, June 24 .- Broughton

________ EIVE GENUINE SIGNATURES AND THE ALLEGED BRANDENBURG FORGERY.

SAYS CLEVELAND SIGNED.

The first drafts of the article were shown to Mr. Baker of Everybody's Magazine, Brandenburg said. His next and last interview with Mr. Cleveland and last interview with Mr. Cleveland was between the 12th and 16th of March. On this occasion, the witness said, Mr. Cleveland complained of feel-ing ill and did not care to discuss the matter. "I read the whole article over to him," Brandenburg testified. "He made

During a charge of grand larceny. During a talk, with Mr. Cleveland, Brandenburg said he suggested to the ex-president that he prepare a series of three political articles and allow Bran-denburg to sell them, to be published no corrections, and when he was through he signed the last page of that carbon copy and did not blot the ignature."

that carbon copy and did not blot the signature." Brandenburg was shown the alleged Cleveland signature in evidence and declared it was not the signature Mr. Cleveland affixed to the article. He said he had never seen the signature in evidence until it was produced at the trial. Handed the Cleveland article in evidence, the one alleged to have been sold to the Times, Brandenburg was asked if that was the original Cleve-land article, prepared by him person-ally and signed by Mr. Cleveland. "I can say positively that it is not," testified Brandenburg. Brandenburg said a number of pe-ple had seen the original Cleveland article before Aug. 10, the day on which Miss Bacon had testified she transcribed the one in evidence. It was in possession of the Broadway Magazine some time in July, he said, and G. E. Fleming, a lawyer, had seen it in June and again in July.

KÓÐ

KOB

KØB

KØB

KOB

KOB

KØB

KOB

5

Parades of the Grand Army

Encampment.

JOINS A LARGE CLASS.

F. O. Saunders from Down East Lets a Negress Talk to Him.

F. O. Saunders, an eastern man, is the latest to fall victim to the wiles of the colored women who infest the darkened streets. He reported to the police last night that while talking to lake at Saltair yesterday afternoon, his bathroom was entered by a sneakthief and $35 was stolen from his clothes. The money was contained in a pocket-book, which, however, the "courteous" thief returned to the pocket after emp-bing its contents. The thief had picked de lock of the bathroom door, and decreded in doing his work without being observed. Mr. Ryder, evidently, does not believe in signs, for he failed to leave his valuables at the check nom, as a large board invites patrons

TALKS ON SALESMANSHIP.

A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar-proof vaults of the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 32-34 Main street, $2.00 per year.

BISHOP BREWSTER LEAVES.

Make Their Home in Glenwood Springs -To Call New Rector.

Bishop Brewster and family have sone to Glenwood Springs for residence, as that town is the headquarters t the diocese of western Colorado. The St. Mark's congregation had called Assistant Rector Foster of St. Mark's Episcopal church at Denver to be the new dean of Salt Lake's St. Mark's cathedral but Mr. Foster has slight asthmatic troubles that are kept reduced to a minimum in Denver's climate, and he fears to take any chances on a change for the call was chances on a change. So the call was declined. Several eastern clergymen are on the list of candidates.

WAS SELLING "PROVIDENCE."

Magic Cure for the Incbriate Was Only Tinted Aqua Pura.

"Providence was robbed of all watchfulness, for J. F. Pugh, at least, yesterday, when the police stepped in and cared for him. At the same time it is hard to estimate just how many solicitous matrons will grieve over the loss of Pugh and his "Providence." There are some, though, who would like exceedingly to meet with Mr. Pugh. like exceedingly to meet with Mr. Pugh. Pugh has shown class as a master fakir. With the formula of a little City creek water, tinged with a harm-less coloring, Pugh created "Provi-dence," a few drops of which placed in the wayward husband's tea or cof-fee was an absolute cure for the liquor habit-and all for $5. Pugh found a ready sale in Salt Lake, but the good wives who sought to save their hus-bands waited anxiously for symptoms which failed to appear, and then com-plaints began to reach the police. Pugh was taken into custody yesterday, charged with violating the license or-finance by peddling without a license, and will have his hearing this after-noon.

FIVE FIRE ALARMS.

Three grass fires and two gasoline toye explosions gave the fire depart-ment five calls yesterday afternoon and evening Practically no damage resulted in any of the fires, however, the only loss being in the residence building of Henry Phitts, at No. 5

inson: Emanuel Lehman and Hayes to restrain them from inter-fering with the water rights in the Decker ditch, which takes water from the Parley's creek, and he seeks to re-cover $200 actual and $2,000 exemplary damages for past interferences.

H. J. Armstrong filed a suit yester-day in the Third district court against the Salt Lake Security & Trust com-pany to recover on a check for $3,550. It is alleged that the check was de-posited to cover an indebtedness of $650 and was converted to the use of the company

Michael L. Powers, a laborer, brought suit in the Third district court today suit in the Third district court today against Charles W. Mount, president of the Mount Pickle company to re-cover $1,260 for personal injuries sus-tained by being run down by Mount's automobile. The accident occurred at Main and Third South streets on Sept. 4, 1908. In itemizing the damages, he says he wants $60 for the clothing he wore which were ruined; $200 for med-

Mrs. Clara Brown seeks a divorce from John Brown on the ground of non-support in a complaint filed yes-terday in the Third district court. They were married in Ogden on Jan. 16, 1906, and have one child, a boy, two years old. She asks for the custody of her son, and $10 a month alimony. Since last November, she alleges, she has had to carn her own living.

ical attention and $1,000 exemplary damages.

WON'T MIX.

Bad Food and Good Health Wou't Mix The human stomach stands much abuse but it won't return good health abuse but it won't return good health if you give it bad food. If you give it bad food. If you feed right you will feel right, for proper food and a good mind is the sure road to health. "A year ago I became much alarmed about my health for I began to suffer after each meal no matter how little I ate," says a Denver woman. "I lost my appetite and the very thought of food grew distasteful, with the result that I was not nourished and got weak and thin. "My home cares were very heavy, for

"My home cates were very heavy, for beside a large family of my own I have also to look out for an aged mother. There was no one to shoulder my household burdens, and come what might I must bear them, and this thought nearly drove me frantic when I realized that my health was break-

"I read an article in the paper about some one with trouble just like mine being cured on Grape-Nuis food and acting on this suggestion I gave Grape-Nuts a trial. The first dish of this delicious food proved that I had struck the right thing. "My uncomfortable feelings in stom-

My uncontortation factors in stom-ach and brain disappeared as if by magic and in an incredibly short space of time I was again myself. Since then I have gained 12 pounds in weight through a summer of hard work and realize I am a very different all due to the splendid food, Grape-Nuts."

"There's a Reason." Trial will prove. Read the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville," in Pkgs.

Ever read the above letter. A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

