FIRST PRINCIPLES ARE ALWAYS LAST

Elders Rulon S. Wells and John Henry Smith Speakers At Tabernacle.

FAITH A BASIC DOCTRINE

And In Its Exercise All Others Are Embraced and Exemplified.

The Sunday congregation at the Tabernacle was addressed by Elders Rulon S. Wells of the first council of seventy, and John Henry Smith, of the quorum of apostles.

The choir sang three selections, namely, "Great God Attend While Zion Sings," "In Our Redeemer's Name," and "From Afar Gracious Lord Thou Didst Gather Thy Flock."

Elder Rulon S. Wells. Elder Wells said in part, "To undertake to teach God's children is a great responsibility, one that man is wholly inadequate to take upon himself."

The doctrine sometimes referred to as first principles of the gospel are also the last principles, obedience to them constituting the entire plan of salvation.

Prayer is one of the great features of the gospel, combining faith and repentance, and is the beginning of man's journey toward the kingdom of God.
