Local and Other Matters.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 21.

Wife Beating.—One French, for assaulting and beating his wife, was furnished lodgings in the city jail last night.

For Europe.—Elders John South and Isaac J. Wardle left this morning for Liverpool, having been called on missions to Europe.

Lost.—A Tithing office order for $9, in favor of William Pinney, was lost on the DESERET NEWS office corner. Will the finder please leave it at this office for the owner?

Snowslide.—A snowslide occurred in Little Cottonwood cañon yesterday, over what is known as the Emily mine. "Captain Dick" (Mr. Richard Duncan) was killed, and his partner narrowly escaped with his life.

Call For It.—A letter has been left at this office addressed to Jane McCand (McLelland?) 4th or 7th Ward, Salt Lake City, Utah. It bears the postmark of Glasgow, and is addressed to the care of President Taylor.

Information Wanted.—Sophia Bosshart-Matti, of Salt Lake City, is desirous to hear from her uncle Maye-Matti, a builder, from Neuchatel, Switzerland. When last heard from he was in California. California papers, please copy.

A Change.—Sergeant McGillivray, who has had charge of the signal service in this city, left on this morning's train for Newport, R. I., to which station he has been transferred. His position in the office here will be filled by Mr. John Craig.

Committed.—Nicholas Natrass plead guilty, yesterday, to stealing the money from Clasy & Hogle's saloon, and was bound over in $300 bonds to await the action of the grand jury. Not being able to secure bondsmen, he was committed to jail.

Supreme Court.—Proceedings yesterday in the Supreme Court, Chief Justice Schaeffer and Associate Justices Emerson and Boreman on the bench.

The three cases in which Claud Hamilton et al. are appellants, and Samuel Kahn, Jas. E. Matthews and Isaac Woolf are respondents, were further argued and submitted.

A Noble Woman.—In another column will be found an ode from the pen of our esteemed and talented sister, Eliza R. Snow, who, today has reached the advanced age of seventy-five years. Notwithstanding her age we are happy to say this lady is full of vigor and intellect, her faith and good works corresponding. She is one of the honorable women of the earth, and shines among the brightest ornaments of the latter-day dispensation. Her name is held in high regard among all who have received the everlasting gospel. We congratulate our worthy and gifted sister, on the anniversary of her birthday, that she has lived to so good an age, accomplished so great a work and made such an excellent record. And we hope she will live as long as she desires, and behold the rising glory of Zion which it has been her chief delight to aid in establishing.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 23.

Ogden Items.—This morning's Junction says that a new daily paper, The Evening Dispatch, is about to begin its career in that city.

Mr. Adolph Sutro, the famous engineer, was in Ogden yesterday, so also was Gen. P. E. Connor.

Funeral Services.—Yesterday, at 12 o'clock the funeral services of Aunt Rhoda Richards, were conducted at the 20th Ward Assembly Rooms. The speakers were President Joseph Young, Elder Phineas Young, President A. M. Cannon and Bishop Sharp.

The Engelbrecht Case.—This famous suit against the city for damages, came up in the Supreme Court yesterday and was further argued to-day. The Third District Court granted the plaintiff $22,000 damages and interest from the date of his loss, August, 1870, the whole amount being $40,000. If the decision of the lower court be affirmed the city will again carry the case to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Supreme Court.—Proceedings Jan. 20, 1879, Chief Justice Schaeffer and Associate Justice Emerson and Boreman on the bench.

In the matter of the estate of Dominic Berassa, Albert Uebel vs. Salvatori Maltes; remanded to the court below with instructions to proceed in the case.

Christian Rheinke et al vs. Jeter Clinton et al: the arguments in progress. Court adjourned until Wednesday at 10 o'clock.

Large Mining Sale.—After a lengthy negotiation word is received that the sale of one-half of the Horn Silver mine in the Frisco district has been accomplished. The amount which changes hands in this transaction reaches the enormous figure of $2,500,000, and this for only half of the interest in the claim, the other half being retained by the original owners.

This is one of the largest genuine mining sales ever made in this part of the country, and shows that there is confidence in the representations made concerning the wonderful developments lately brought forth in the mines of Southern Utah.

City Council.—The City Council met last evening, with Mayor Little presiding, when the following business was attended to:

A petition was received from Samuel Oliver, asking that the $5 paid by him to the city for a lot now on the military reservation be refunded. The petition was received and the amount of the purchase money ordered to be refunded.

A petition was received from W. H. George, representing that he earns his living by running a job wagon, for which he has heretofore paid his license regularly, but owing to sickness in his family, and his own illness, he is now unable to pay the amount, and asked that it be remitted for the current year. Received and referred to the committee on license.

The committee, to whom was referred the accounts and vouchers of the city marshal for the month of December, reported that they found the expenditures made by that officer to be necessary for the public service and correct, and recommended that the amount called for—$262.82—be appropriated. The report was received and the amount appropriated.

Consideration of the bill for an ordinance controlling the distribution of waters flowing into the city was then resumed, and pending such consideration the Council adjourned for one week.

A Birthday Celebration.—Yesterday, Sister Eliza R. Snow attained her 75th year. In the evening a large company of friends assembled at the Lion House, in the 18th Ward, to do honor to the memorable occasion.

Among the guests were President John Taylor, and Apostle F. D.

Richards, Joseph Young, Sen., President Angus M. Cannon, Bishop Whitney and counselors, Sisters M. I. Horne, Prescinda Kimball, Bathsheba Smith, Hannah T. King, Jane S. Richards, S. M. Kimball, Mary Freeze and many others.

A bounteous supper opened the evening entertainment, after which the company repaired to the parlor. President Joseph Young addressed a few appropriate remarks to Sister Snow and her friends, and was followed by President Taylor in a few expressions, equally well chosen. Music supplied the interlude between this and the delivery of toasts and sentiments, and Elder Franklin D. Richards then addressed the company. Interspersed with music were short speeches by Pres. A. M. Cannon, Sisters Hannah T. King, Prescinda Kimball, Bathsheba Smith, Mary Freeze, M. I. Horne, followed by a brief and touching response from Sister Snow herself. A beautiful and appropriate feature of the proceedings was the singing of the "Invocation," one of Sister Eliza's choicest poems, by Sister C. J. Thomas, the entire assembly joining her.

A short speech was then made by Elder Geo. F. Gibbs, master of ceremonies, and a benediction by Bishop O. F. Whitney closed the evening's proceedings.

A good spirit was enjoyed by all, who expressed their happiness at the privilege of attending such an occasion to show their respect and esteem for their beloved sister whose 75th anniversary was thus so suitably commemorated. Many were the good wishes showered upon the head of Sister Eliza, in all of which the NEWS, appreciating as much as any of her friends her life and labors, heartily joins, and adds its voice in the earnest chorus, "Many happy returns of the day."

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 23.

Improved.—The Denver Chronicle of Jan. 20th comes to us in its new dress and somewhat enlarged. Our well-known correspondent, Daniel Tyler, fills the position of editor.

Appointment.—From the Millennial Star we learn that Elder B. S. Young has been appointed to labor in the London Conference. His address is 20 Bishop's Grove, Ball's Pond Road, Islington, London.

Died.—The following dispatch has just been received from Ogden: "Tim Henderson, stage and express agent at Blackfoot, Idaho, and well known throughout the west, died, this morning, of rheumatism. H."

Earthquake.—A dispatch from Hebron, Washington County, says that a shock of earthquake was felt there between 5 and 6 o'clock yesterday morning, and though there was some rattling of windows and jarring of doors no damage was done.

The Thaw.—"Old residents" pronounce the backbone of the winter broken, and some are jubilant thereat. Others complain about the change in the weather, and say that to have the sleighing spoiled so suddenly is too bad. It is a hard matter to suit everybody.

Sympathies.—In another column appears the death notice of another child of Bro. O. G. Workman. This is the third loss the bereaved family have been called upon to sustain within three weeks, all being caused by that dreadful scourge diphtheria. May the sorrowful parents receive that consolation which is beyond the power of man to bestow.

Polygamy.—A correspondent in Parowan sends us a copy of an article on Polygamy which was written for the organ of the Mutual Improvement Association in that city, edited by a young man who is one of the members. The article is well-written and contains some good points and arguments. We would like to publish it entire, but have not the space.

Mutual Improvement.—We are in receipt of a letter from Moroni, which gives the particulars of a joint session of the Y. M. and Y.

L. M. I. Associations held there on the 20th inst. The proceedings consisted of lectures, songs, addresses, readings, declamations, etc., all rendered with much spirit and ability. The officers of the Young Men's Association are Peter C. Christiansen, president; Peter Lauritzen and James Yorgensen, counselors, and David Rostron, secretary. The young ladies are presided over by Hannah Cloward, with Annie Swenson and Maria Johnson as counselors, and Annie D. Irons as secretary.

Supreme Court.—Proceedings of the Supreme Court, on Wednesday, Chief Justice Schaeffer and Associate Justices Emerson and Boreman on the bench.

Christian Rheinke et al, respondents, vs. Jeter Clinton et al, appellants. This cause was further argued by Ben. Sheeks, Esq., and submitted and taken under advisement by the Court.

The People of the Territory of Utah, respondents, vs. Samuel Garne, appellant. This cause coming on regularly for hearing, was argued, submitted and taken under advisement by the court.

Thos. McLellan, administrator of the estate of Chas. Roper, deceased, appellant, vs. Jas. L. Dickinson et al, impleaded with others, respondents. This cause coming on regularly for hearing, was argued by E. D. Hoge, Esq., and is still in progress.

Court adjourned till this morning at 10 o'clock.

Provo Items.—Thermometer on Monday night got down to 12 deg. below zero. There is so much snow in the mountains that travel in the cañons is almost stopped.

The decision of the Supreme Court in the Wilkerson murder case is hourly expected.

In Heber City there is not snow enough to prevent stock from wintering on the range without difficulty. The lumber business carried on in Heber with Park City is suffering. A tunnel has been bored seventy feet into the hill, and the people are satisfied that coal will be shortly reached.

A pleasant Sunday School gathering came off in Pleasant Grove last week, the time after supper being employed in dancing, interspersed with short speeches, an original poem, declamations, etc.

The foregoing items we select from the Enquirer of the 22nd inst.
