

TELEGRAPHIC. INDIANS WILL FIGHT.

Indians Feared by Citizens in North-Western Wyoming.

ALL SOUTHERNS UNDER ARMS.

Two Hundred Redskins Gathered in the Salt River Basin and More Expected.

DEVON, O. July 15.—A special to the Argus from Coeyenne, Wyo., says Governor Richards has issued the following order: "A class of Maryville, the nearest town to the scene of the Indian trouble in north-western Wyoming."

The ten Indians who had six squaws captured in the last raid have been brought in and were given a hearing before the judge of the peace here and fined $25 each costs, a total of about $150. As you understand, it takes a considerable power to attack one's partner; the Indians are now and will remain a day or two, when, if there are less than 100 of them, then 100, and so on, we will become to have assistance or all that part will be in the Indians' boat, same Indians, now Indians will be more aggressive.

Some of our people are much scared and talk of moving to another country, but we have ours in the valley, and nothing where life is half-independent, has just returned from the Salt River basin and reports more than 200 Indians living in the region and that they say:

"There will be traps of Indians set up and by, and then we will fight."

The writer asked the governor to prepare for emergencies which may arise. The nearest troops are at Fort Washakie, over three days' march away from the scene of the expected trouble. The trouble is interesting seriously with the ranches, who are scattered over the land under arms and are serving with the various officers of the district, Devon Indians said in regard to the matter.

The state of affairs was distinctly improved in its status in the security of the interior on June 15th. The same trouble comes up every year, and the settlements are as sparse in the best hunting countries that the settlers are practically without protection. At least 100 Indians are doing the damage. At the regular roundup in the state, when the Indians would go to the Indians, police after them. Indians are as bad as the outcome the governor said: "I think the savages will be to protect themselves by making together and giving their time and attention to the marauders, but I will do that, especially against the acts of the general government, who are not only supposed to obey the law but military citizens, but to be under strict and military restraint."

SAVAGE ATTACK.

Ex-Emperor Stanislaus of Bulgaria Seriously Wounded.

Sofia, Bulgaria, July 15.—Stamboul, capital of Bulgaria, was the scene of this evening. On the Union side, accompanied by a colleague, M. Petchoff, when they were shadowed by four persons armed with revolvers and knives. He received several wounds in the head, and a quantity of blood. The assassin is unknown.

London, July 15.—A dispatch to the press from Sofia says both of M. Stanislaus' hands have been amputated. One of his assailants was wounded.

AN OUTLAW'S LOVE.

Bill Duncan, an outlaw, is captured by a girl and returns to prison.

Prussia, Ohio, July 15.—When Bill Duncan, Bill Dooley and other members of their band of outlaws hold up a store near Gainesville, the Deputy United States marshal rode up. He recognized Duncan as Dooley, and started to draw his revolver, but the outlaw drew his first and forced the marshal to drop his revolver. Dooley said that he had wanted to reform, but the deputy would not let him.

Mrs. Bailey, who witnessed the incident, cried out to her minister: "Who would have known?"

"In the Dooleys, the much-readied sword," was the quick response.

Six months later, Mrs. Bailey left her school and has not been heard of since. Since then Dooley has been making efforts to secure his freedom, the authorities, it is believed, that Mrs. Bailey is with him as his wife, and is working for his reformation.

In purity strength, keeping qualities and uniform execution Dr. Price's is the greatest baking powder. It is all the world.

BOTH MURDERED.

The Bodies of Two Girls Found Buried in Coffins.

Durango, Colo., July 15.—A special to the News from Durango, Colo., says Four hours in the collar of the mines No. 14, the "Vulture" mine, two women, wife the bodies of John and Nellie, the missing daughters of Benjamin F. Pfeiffer. It is now a cause beyond doubt that Mr. H. H. Hansen, when here last October, deliberately murdered the pair and thus concluding Henry McBlane's station, himself of two troublesome young boys after he had murdered their father in timber.

The last from the officers had of this child was at Detroit. Holmes executed his son at the collar of the mines No. 14, the "Vulture" mine, wife the body of his son, John and Nellie, the missing daughters of Benjamin F. Pfeiffer. This gentleman has offered to raise a fund of $10,000 for the widow.

Much excitement followed the announcement of the results of the various London elections. This was particularly so at New Lambeth. Outside the counting station there was an enormous noisy crowd.

The announcement that Mr. Henry M. Stanley was elected was received with an enthusiastic cheering, mingled with a hearty shout of "Hooray."

When C. P. Trevelyan, his opponent, left the building, he was received with a great ovation.

The Right Hon. George N. Curzon, conservative, the new under-secretary of state for India, and Mr. H. G. Grey, Liberal, were nominated for the Buntingford division of Lancashire today. In this constituency both sides are contesting every inch of the ground, the Americans and advanced Liberals still supporting the Conservative party.

Miss King, an actress in Corlett's company, died yesterday. In January of this year she was a woman named Mrs. Verna with Mr. Corlett in Florida. When she was with us our company a good deal, but she was not an actress. I saw Verna with Mr. Corlett in Florida. She used to come to the theater with him and leave with him, and she was his companion at all times."

Miss King said she saw the fugitive with the woman. Petersburg, Va., Cincinnati, Chicago and Indianapolis, April 15th and 16th.

Miss King had seen Verna in Corlett's dressing-room and at his hotel and testified that in the latter part of April she saw the fugitive with him and that he never objected. The hearing was then adjourned.

CURRIN INVESTIGATION.

Robbs Detained After a Hard Fight.

HAVANA, July 15.—The column of General Narvaez's forces fought a battle with bands of insurgents in Ceboruco, in which the insurgents, numbering 1,000, were beaten. The insurgents have burned the coffee plantations of Magdalena and Nuevo Leon. Many little young Indians have joined the insurgents.

Major Arribalzaga of the civil guard, who left yesterday with 600 cavalry, arrived at Potosi, Hacienda, district of Manzanillo, province of Santa Clara, was attacked by the insurgents forming the band of Zayas, Legion and Tocino.

After an hour's fighting the insurgents were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

A band of insurgents numbering 400 entered the village of Trespuentes in the province of Santa Clara, and were met by the 100 men of the civil guard.

The soldiers made a valiant defense, and all fifteen of the insurgents.

After an hour's fighting the insurgents were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements for use and four mares and colts. Major Arribalzaga took 100 horses and 100 mares. Of the troopers, two were killed and nine wounded.

The exact facts in connection with the seizure are exceedingly meager. It is known that the rebels had a segment of the frontier completely vigilante.

New York, July 16.—It was learned this morning that the rebels appear to be entirely disorganized, and that the 100 men of the civil guard, who left yesterday, were entirely unopposed.

After an hour's fighting the rebels were obliged to retreat. Upon departing, they left twenty killed and forty wounded on the field, together with 100 horses, saddlebags and accoutrements