

One of the largest and most successful affairs of the week was the charity card party given by the Hospital Aid association of St. Marks for the benefit of the Leonard Memorial home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob F. Gates entertained about 20 guests delightfully at their home on Wednesday night. The guests being chiefly members of Mrs. Gates' bible class, and a few outside. The time was enjoyably spent with music, recitations and story telling.

Mrs. G. B. Proulx entertained her card club on Wednesday.

On Tuesday Mrs. F. J. McGanney was hostess at a bridge party. The following assisting: Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. A. Luman and the Misses Jeannette Luman, Clara Fowler, Florence Loughbridge and Margery Mulvey. Prizes were won by Mrs. D. C. Jackling, Mrs. L. L. Downing and Mrs. M. J. Dalley.

Last night at Christensen's hall the American Home circle gave its second dance of the season, the affair being in every way successful.

Col. and Mrs. Walter Scott entertained delightfully at bridge on Thursday night at the post, the rooms being prettily decorated and a number of the post people being present.

Miss Estelle Coleman entertained her card club on Wednesday.

Mrs. F. J. Fabian entertained informally at bridge on Thursday.

Mrs. Frank B. Stephens entertained at a bridge tea on Wednesday. Her decorations being in pink carnations and ferns and the following assisting: Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. A. Luman and the Misses Jeannette Luman, Clara Fowler, Florence Loughbridge and Margery Mulvey. Prizes were won by Mrs. D. C. Jackling, Mrs. L. L. Downing and Mrs. M. J. Dalley.

Mrs. E. Mulford was hostess at an informal bridge tea on Wednesday. The rooms being decorated with pink carnations and ferns, and prizes won by Mrs. C. M. Bell, Mrs. Enos Hope, and Mrs. J. C. Hancock.

Mrs. W. T. Benson will entertain at bridge next Monday afternoon at her home on east South Temple.

Tonight Miss Renee Redman entertains her social club at her home.

Mrs. W. R. Tyndale entertained the Girls' Club today.

The Woman's Republican club will give a card party on the afternoon of St. Patrick's day, at the home of Judge and Mrs. N. S. Strapp.

Mrs. W. D. Foster entertained the Young Matrons' club on Wednesday. In honor of Mrs. Fred Shulder, who left this week for Portland, the decorations being in spring flowers and a special prize being awarded for the best of honor. The prize in the contest went to Mrs. Frank Fisher.

On Monday Mrs. W. P. S. Hawk entertained at a 300 party at her home, six tables being played and prizes won by Mrs. Ashby D. Cleveland and Mrs. H. J. Dring. Assisting were Mrs. L. M. Bailey, Mrs. W. Francis and Mrs. M. M. Johnson.

Mrs. Conley entertained her bridge club at the post on Tuesday. Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. Paul Potter winning the prize.

At the Orpheum on Monday night was a box party comprising Lieut. and Mrs. Paul Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard, Mrs. C. V. Field, Mrs. David S. Murray and Lieut. Green and Waterman.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Annabel Becker and Wilbur Price were married at the bride's home the ceremony being performed by Bishop Tingey and in the evening a large reception being held at the home of the groom which was beautifully decorated in red and white, with flowers, flags and bells. The bride stood in a window banked with palms and wreaths in the center hung a wedding bell. In the dining room red streamers reached from the chandelier to the four corners of the table which had for a centerpiece red and white carnations and was lit with red-shaded candles. A large flag draped the window fastened at the top with a bell. The bride wore a handsome gown of pale green silk over tulle, trimmed with Brussels lace and carried white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Price left later for a trip to southern California and on their return will be at home at 547 Sixth East street.

Mrs. R. L. Tracy gave a delightful luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. O'Brien, the table being decorated in daffodils and ferns, and covers laid for a dozen guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Cooper entertained informally at bridge on Tuesday night, the decorations being in purple and white, and four tables played.

Miss Shearman entertained informally at tea on Tuesday for her aunt, Mrs. Longmaid.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. W. A. McDaniels entertained at a bridge tea for the ladies of the post, the officers dropping in later for tea.

Mrs. G. E. Ains entertained her afternoon club on Tuesday.

Mrs. Union V. Worthington entertained the bridge tournament on Tuesday day.

Mrs. Henry Catrow entertained at an oriental tea on Tuesday, her guests being the members of the tourist section of the L. L. club, and many of them bringing oriental curios and treasures for display, while the decorations were all in oriental effect.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever.
DR. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Cream or Medical Beautifier.

A pretty affair of yesterday was the bridge tea given by Mrs. Lear Ritter and Mrs. Ernest Tripp, in honor of Mrs. Gue and Mrs. Katz, the rooms being bright with spring flowers and a number of friends assisting.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Hale entertained at dinner on Thursday, the table having a centerpiece of daffodils and silver candelabra with yellow shades at each end. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. Van Knoblock entertained at a dinner at the Wilson on Thursday last and afterward gave a box party for her guests at their theater.

Miss Jean Ottell entertained her card club yesterday.

An old fashioned party was given by the second and third senior class of St. Mary's academy on Thursday

Mrs. O. J. Hollister and Mrs. W. B. Sprague and two children expect to leave today to join Mr. Sprague at Seattle, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Payson Smith and Mrs. Edward O'Brien will leave today for their home in Minneapolis, after visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tracy.

Alex Thomas has returned from an eastern trip, including Denver, Chicago and Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Fred Sinclair left this week for Portland, where she will visit for a while with her sister, Mrs. Edward P. Sterling, before going to San Francisco to reside.

Miss Bertha A. D. Woody left yesterday for Rixby, Ariz., to spend some time with her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Baer returned Monday from several weeks spent at Los Angeles and the beaches.

Mrs. W. W. Rivers will return the last of the week from a month's visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Black will be at home after March 7, at 247 South East.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Lipman and two children returned Monday evening from an extended trip in the east.

Mrs. Samuel Newhouse left Monday for New York, where she will spend

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. O. J. Hollister and Mrs. W. B. Sprague and two children expect to leave today to join Mr. Sprague at Seattle, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Payson Smith and Mrs. Edward O'Brien will leave today for their home in Minneapolis, after visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tracy.

Alex Thomas has returned from an eastern trip, including Denver, Chicago and Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Fred Sinclair left this week for Portland, where she will visit for a while with her sister, Mrs. Edward P. Sterling, before going to San Francisco to reside.

Miss Bertha A. D. Woody left yesterday for Rixby, Ariz., to spend some time with her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Baer returned Monday from several weeks spent at Los Angeles and the beaches.

Mrs. W. W. Rivers will return the last of the week from a month's visit in California.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Black will be at home after March 7, at 247 South East.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Lipman and two children returned Monday evening from an extended trip in the east.

Mrs. Samuel Newhouse left Monday for New York, where she will spend

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Never has the demand for lace been as great as it is right now.

And never has it been so necessary that women realize that the only safe way to wash laces is with Ivory Soap and lukewarm water.

Why Ivory Soap? Because it contains no "free" alkali; no coloring matter; no adulterant of any kind.

Ivory Soap
99 1/100 Per Cent. Pure.

first of the week for an extended trip in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Gibson have gone to the coast for a stay of several months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Trimmer are now at home at 755 First avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willey are now at home at the Whitehall.

C. W. Fifield returned Tuesday from a short trip to Denver.

Miss Frances Savage is now at home at 47 Center street.

David S. Murray returned Wednesday from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Moritz have returned from a trip to southern California extending over several weeks.

Miss Helena Welby left Tuesday for Denver for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cosgriff are expected home the latter part of the week from a visit in California.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son arrived Monday evening from Spokane, and are at the McMillan home for a visit. Mrs. H. G. McMillan, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mason in Los Angeles, will be home tomorrow evening.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. George Keyser and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gustave Lielwitz and her small son have gone east to visit relatives for a few weeks.

month Century club. Witty and spicy toasts were given.

One of the enjoyable events of the week was the surprise party given in honor of Mrs. J. J. Peters at her home Monday evening, by the members of Woodcraft. In a nicely prepared speech Mrs. August Fisher, in behalf of the order, presented Mrs. Peters with a dainty silver loving cup, as a token of appreciation of her services as guardian neighbor of the lodge. The evening was delightfully passed in games and music. Lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Twelves have returned from California where they have spent the past month. They report a very pleasant time.

Mr. Herman S. Martin, of San Francisco, but who has spent the last few months in Mexico, has joined his wife in this city, where they will visit with relatives and friends before returning to California.

Probably the most pleasing event of the week was the entertainment tendered the aged and the widowed of the Sixth ward. Conveyances brought the more aged to the meetinghouse at 10:30 where an excellent musical program was enjoyed after which about 80 guests sat down at an elaborate spread. The afternoon was devoted to music, short speeches and music. The day was greatly enjoyed by all, and will be remembered by the honored guests so long as memory lasts.

Mrs. Hyrum Smith of Lehi visited relatives and friends in this city for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Watkins of Salt Lake City, spent several days this week in Provo visiting their many friends. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Farner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Saxe of Ogden visited Mrs. Saxe's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Theriot, this week.

The Social Sixties gave the last of a series of parties at the social hall Wednesday evening. This, which seems to have been the cream of all, was a masquerade and many excellent characters were represented. About 100 guests participated. Refreshments were served. The only regret expressed was that this ended the parties that have afforded so much pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Leyland Graham have returned to their home in Salt Lake.

LOGAN.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Champ and Prof. and Mrs. W. S. Langton entertained the members of the A. C. Woman's club, their escorts and a number of friends in a most delightful manner at the Champ home on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Perry entertains at a Kensington on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Hattie Smith and her sisters entertained a number of friends most delightfully on Wednesday evening. After partaking of a most tempting supper, games and social chat were enjoyed by the following guests: The Messrs. Dora Wright, Blanche Cooper, Lillian Simons, Elizabeth Smith, Gretha Cardon, Mrs. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Cardon, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thatcher, Mr. T. R. Budge, Clark, Prof. Larsen, Mr. John Bennett.

A very pretty party of the week was the one given by Miss Josie Yates on Tuesday evening. The party was held at the home of Miss Yates' sister, Mrs. I. S. Smith, and was given in honor of Miss Myrtle Hammond of Salt Lake. Games, music and dainty refreshments were enjoyed. Those present were the Misses Dora Alvord, Vivian Hatch, Carrie McAllister, Jettie McCarrick, Hazel Pond, Luella Nebeker, Phoebe Nebeker, Eva Nebeker, Julia Hendricks, Hendricks, Edith Bowen, Nan Nix, Geneva Smith, Mamie Brown, Lyle Hammond, Messrs. J. D. Van Wagoner, Orval Adams, Roy Rudolph, A. B. Olson, Walter Cooper, Lucien Farr, Jr., Adelle Farr, Ellis Hudman, Claire McAllister, Heber Carver, Booker Preston, Walter Stevens, J. W. Sessions, Harvey Sessions, Luther Howell, A. E. Bowman, Luther Winslow, T. L. Williams.

Miss Lulu Ormsby was the guest of honor at a very pleasant evening party which was given by Prof. and Mrs. W. S. Langton on Wednesday. The guests were the Misses Lulu Ormsby, Marie Barker, Lou Thatcher, Carrie McAllister, Vivian Hatch, Messrs. Alex Preston, Sidney Beattie, Orval Adams, Fred M. Walker, Leo Squires, Asa Bullen, Laurence Caine, E. G. Peterson.

Miss Vivian Hatch was hostess at a dinner party which was given at the B. Y. C. diningroom on Tuesday for Miss Lulu Ormsby. The table was

Miss Buelah Keeler entertained in a most pleasing manner the members of the Kia Oro club Friday evening at the home of her parents, Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Keeler. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the color scheme was yellow and brown, ivy leaves being used in profusion. Merriment and fun reigned supreme. One of the features of the evening was "The Spring Openings" and the gentlemen were requested to trim a hat, which the ladies afterward wore. A sumptuous lunch was served.

Miss Francis Ting of American Fork visited friends in Provo this week.

Miss Buelah Keeler entertained in a most pleasing manner the members of the Kia Oro club Friday evening at the home of her parents, Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Keeler. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the color scheme was yellow and brown, ivy leaves being used in profusion. Merriment and fun reigned supreme. One of the features of the evening was "The Spring Openings" and the gentlemen were requested to trim a hat, which the ladies afterward wore. A sumptuous lunch was served.

Miss Francis Ting of American Fork visited friends in Provo this week.

Miss Buelah Keeler entertained in a most pleasing manner the members of the Kia Oro club Friday evening at the home of her parents, Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Keeler. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the color scheme was yellow and brown, ivy leaves being used in profusion. Merriment and fun reigned supreme. One of the features of the evening was "The Spring Openings" and the gentlemen were requested to trim a hat, which the ladies afterward wore. A sumptuous lunch was served.

Miss Francis Ting of American Fork visited friends in Provo this week.

Miss Buelah Keeler entertained in a most pleasing manner the members of the Kia Oro club Friday evening at the home of her parents, Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Keeler. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the color scheme was yellow and brown, ivy leaves being used in profusion. Merriment and fun reigned supreme. One of the features of the evening was "The Spring Openings" and the gentlemen were requested to trim a hat, which the ladies afterward wore. A sumptuous lunch was served.