THE SMURTHWAITE EPISODE. Charles A. Smurthwaite of Ogden has retaliated by bringing charges of un-Christianlike conduct and apostasy against Elder Hyrum H. Goddard, presiding teacher of the first district of the Fourth ecclesiastical ward, who, he alleges, is guilty of unlawful cohabita-tion. The charges have been filed with Bishop Woolley and Mr. Smurthwaite asks that he be cited to appear and show cause why he should not be disfellowshipped from the Church. Elder Goddard is the man who preferred charges against Mr. Smurthwalte. The latter, answering said charges, gives a copy of the complaint, supplemented by the following statement:
