Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Cahoon Convalescent.—L. Cahoon is convalescent from injuries received by a fall of 25 feet down an elevator shaft at Murray recently.

Charles Popper Dead.—Charles Popper, the well known former owner of Pappertown place, northeast of the city, died Saturday evening, in New York at the age of 49. The funeral was held today. While resident here, Mr. Popper made a fortune in the meat and cattle business, removing subsequently to New York. He leaves three sons and two daughters, his wife having died five years ago.

Lost Put in Mail Box.—A bundle of letters and other papers, supposed to be the property of Dr. S. G. Eshman, were found in a mail box Saturday afternoon and turned over to Postmaster Thomas, along with two drafts of $100 each, issued at Grayville, Ill., and payable to Harman Siegel at St. Louis, which were also found in a mail box. Pickpockets are supposed to have been at work in both cases.

Plaster Mill For Nephel.—Nephel is to have a $10,000 plaster mill of 200 tons daily capacity, and a $40,000 brick plant, for the erection of which a company has been incorporated with C. F. Hoffman as president. Hoffman is a resident of Salt Lake City. Hoffman has been secured, valued at $15,000, formerly controlled by the city, but allowed to lapse from municipal ownership. The new company has a capital stock of $250,000.

Pharmacy is Robbed.—The Hospital Pharmacy at Seventh North and Second West streets, was broken into by burglars sometime early Sunday morning, and robbed of nearly $50. Securing a ladder from a rear by barn, the thieves had reached a rear window, which was pried open with a jimmy and the inside bars cut through. The cash register was rifled of $8 and the starter of $3. The two pay telephone boxes were taken by the burglars into the adjoining barn, where they were broken open and their contents taken.

D. McNeil Leaves.—The many local patrons of the Postal Telegraph-Cable company will miss a genial and pleasant face in the departure of Manager D. McNeil who has resigned on account of continued ill health. He has proven a very efficient man, and the general management is sorry to lose him; but Mr. McNeil finds an entire change absolutely necessary, so he is to take an extended lay-off for fishing and hunting, and after convalescence attempts to engage in engineering work. He is relieved by E. A. Morrison, recently manager for the company at Des Moines, Ia.

Funeral of Judge Bowditch.—The funeral of Judge John R. Bowditch was held at the First Methodist church at 2 p. m. yesterday, where eulogies were delivered by Rev. Dr. W. M. Paden and Rev. F. B. Short. The pallbearers were W. R. Grady, L. M. Bailey, Judge Charles W. Morse, P. A. Dick, Fred Eberhardt and E. McCarrick. The interment was in the family lot at Mt. Olivet cemetery. The casket was covered from view by a profusion of flowers. A. E. Eberhardt, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Peters and Miss Leona Schrack composed a quartet which sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," accompanied by Miss Hecker. Mrs. Peters sang "Saved by Grace" and "Nearer My God to Thee," the last selection being sung at the grave.
