CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 19.—Howe, from the committee on judiciary, reported adversely on the bill relating to equitable and legal rights of parties in possession of certain lands and improvements thereon in California, and to provide jurisdiction to determine those rights; placed on the calendar with adverse report.

At the request of Sargent, the Senate insisted upon its amendments to the postoffice appropriation bill and agreed to the conference asked for by the House of Representatives. West, Hamlin and Davis were appointed members of the committee on the part of the Senate.

After a secret session was gone into, the question was first on motion to postpone the Belknap trial till November. The respondent's application for postponement was overruled.

Sherman submitted the following for consideration: Ordered that the paper submitted by the defendant on the 16th inst., be filed in this cause, and defendant having failed to answer to the merits within the ten days allowed by order of the Senate of the 6th inst., the trial shall proceed on the 6th day of July next as upon a plea of not guilty.

Thurman moved to amend by inserting the word "be," so as to read "be not filed," etc. Rejected—yeas 24, nays 24. The Pacific members generally voted nay.

The question recurring on the order of Sherman. Howe demanded a division on the order, and the question being on the first clause thereof, viz.:—Ordered that the papers presented by the defendant on the 16th be filed in the cause—it was decided in the affirmative, 26 to 24.

The question then occurring on the last clause, it was amended by adding, "provided that the impeachment can only proceed while Congress is in session," and passed—yeas 21, nays 16.

The following was also agreed to: Ordered that the Secretary issue the subpœnas that may be applied for by the respondent for such witnesses, to be summoned at the expense of the United States, as shall be allowed by the committee, to consist of Senators Frelinghuysen, Thurman and Christiancy.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 19.—The bill for paving Pennsylvania Avenue and a joint resolution for a commission to frame a new form of government for the District of Columbia passed.

The Speaker appointed Holman, Blount and Waldron the conference committee on the post office appropriation bill.

EASTERN.

The Blaine Investigation.

WASHINGTON, 19.—The following telegrams produced to-day before the committee on judiciary, by Hicks, cable clerk of the New York Western Union Telegraph office:

TELEGRAM NO. 1.

Washington, May 26.

To Josiah Caldwell, London, England.—See Scott's testimony in the papers of the 6th, and telegraph Scott at Philadelphia as you truthfully can, the strongest endorsement of his statement.

A. P. ROBINSON.

TELEGRAM NO. 2.

June, 1876.

Josiah Caldwell, Tunbridge Wells, England. — Don't let newspaper men and others interview you. R.

TELEGRAM NO. 3.

June, 1876.

Josiah Caldwell, Tunbridge Wells, England.—If false, authorize me to deny you paid Blaine. SICKLES.

St. James' Hotel, care Mr. Dencks.

TELEGRAM NO. 4.

Received at W. U. building, Broadway and Dey streets, May 31st, 1876: Josiah Caldwell, Cannon street, London.—Thanks for your cable confirming all my statements. SCOTT.

TELEGRAM NO. 5.

Received at W. U. building, Broadway and Dey streets, May 31, 1876.

Favo, London; dispatch received; cabh this immediately to Chairman House Judiciary Committee, Washington: Have just received Scott's evidence about our bond transaction in New York newspapers, and fully corroborate it. I never paid Blaine any Little Rock bonds, directly or otherwise. Am now building three European railroads and can not leave without great pecuniary loss; or would gladly and voluntarily come home and testify. Can make affidavit to that effect and mail it if desired. Not signed.

TELEGRAM NO. 6.

Received at W. U. building, Broadway and Dey Streets, May 30, 1876:

Favo, London. — Cable nobody except Scott. T. S. R.

The above telegrams have dates, times of reception, sending &c., as usual in such cases, which Hicks explained, showing their genuineness.

The following is the dispatch already published, which was received by Mr. E. B. Sickles, and shown by him to Congressman Procter Knott, when received in Washington on the morning of the 10th inst:

London, June 9.

To D. B. Sickles, 112 Wall St., New York. Cabled the committee, June 1st, a full explanation. CALDWELL.

The above was received by the Direct Cable Company, in reply to Sickles' message of June 7th, above quoted.

The cable clerk, Hicks, explained to the committee that the word "Favo" is the registered address of Josiah Caldwell in the London telegraph office.

Blaine received by mail this morning a letter from Josiah Caldwell, of which the following is a true copy. It authenticates the cablegram received by the judiciary committee:

No. 115 Cannon Street, London, E. C.,

June 8th, 1876.

Hon. J. G. Blaine.

Dear Sir—I read in the New York papers of the 16th ulto. Col. Scott's evidence before the congressional committee, and I at once cabled him as follows:

Thomas A. Scott, Philadelphia: Your statement before the Congressional committee on the 15th, relating to the Fort Smith Railway bonds which you purchased of me, is perfectly correct. I can more fully substantiate, if necessary. I have also cabled the chairman of the judiciary committee. I am sorry that I am not able to go personally before the committee and give my testimony, but I presume that Col. Scott's evidence will be sufficient to prove that you had nothing to do with the transaction in question. If you wish for any further testimony or affidavit from me to prove the facts as cabled to the committee, I shall be glad to forward it under oath. The charges are so void of foundation that I have no fear of their bearing you any permanent injury, and I hope your persecutors will be able to show as clean a record as yours in connection with the Little Rock and Fort Smith Railway.

Yours faithfully,

JOSIAH CALDWELL.

The Gold Coin.

Sherman introduced a bill in the Senate to-day, describing the coins of the United States. It is understood the bill was prepared by the director of the mint. It provides that three dollar gold pieces and twenty cent pieces shall not hereafter be coined.

Cabinet Changes.

It is believed that other important changes will follow the retirement of Bristow, though this may, in a measure depend on who the new incumbent shall be. Treasurer New will certainly retire by the end of the fiscal year. Assistant Treasurer Wyman might possibly succeed New, he having been favorably mentioned to the President. In Grant's letter in reply to Bristow's resignation, written to-day, the President accepts his resignation with expressions of hope that in his retirement from public office he will find that rest which he could not have in his present position, and desiring that the personal relations between them shall remain in their pleasant attitude.

Mass Meeting.

There was an immense mass meeting in this city to-night to ratify the Cincinnati nominations. The meeting was the largest that has occurred in this city since the war. Prominent on the platform were President Grant, Senators Sherman, Morton, Frelinghuysen, and Oglesby, Chandler, Taft, Treasurer New, Gen. Butler, and many other prominent persons. The meeting was presided over by Logan. Speeches were made by Sherman, Morton, Frelinghuysen, Oglesby, Taft and Butler. The speeches all gave unbounded approval to the nominations. Letters were read from Sec'y Jewell, Senator Conkling, and Secretary Bristow, expressing their hearty approval of the nominations. Butler said he desired to repel the slander upon Massachusetts at the convention—one of the delegates said they would only vote for one man. He would say that there would be a large majority for any man nominated at that convention. The speakers generally alluded to their principles in favor of hard money, and Butler said they could not stop to quarrel over minor questions of policy. He might differ from some of his political friends on some of the questions, but he was chained to the oar and must pull in the boat until every negro in the south could sleep in his own cabin as well protected as he could in Massachusetts.

Taft alluded to his personal knowledge of Hayes, his political principles, and commented upon the principles of the republican party. He concluded with saying, "Popular education is the hope of the republic. I trust that the time is not far distant when all the people will acquiesce in sustaining common schools, and when they who would ask a diversion of the school fund will yield to the genius of republicanism and be satisfied to give religious instructions and enjoy religious worship in the family and in the church, while the state, with sovereign impartiality, will perform its great duty of making education universal through the best system of common schools the world ever saw."

What Blaine Says.

After the adjournment of the meeting at the City Hall the assemblage proceeded to the residence of Blaine, who was met with the most intense manifestations of favor. He addressed the crowd as follows:

"Fellow republicans: The condition of my health forbids that I should address you at length, and I fear my voice may fail to reach a considerable portion of the large crowd to which I am so indebted for the compliment of this call. Let me say, in brief, that I heartily join with you in ratifying the nomination of Hayes and Wheeler. I know both of the candidates well, and have known them long. They are true and tried, honest and competent, strong and popular. I do not believe it was possible for the national convention to present a more acceptable ticket to the great mass of American voters, and I have no doubt of its triumphant election in November. To that great result your efforts and mine will, I am sure, be devoted with the most earnest zeal. If I may be permitted to refer to the connection of my own name with the republican ovation, let me say, gentlemen, that I look back upon it with pride and satisfaction, and with not one tinge of regret at the final result. I owe much to the true friends who so faithfully supported me, and I am sure that I do not entertain the slightest feeling of unkindness towards those who opposed me. I hope I can go further and say that out of all the fierce conflicts of the past half year I do not at his moment cherish a trace of ill-will or uncharitable feeling toward any political rival or any political opponent. Let us look forward hopefully to the future for the peaceful prosperity of the American people, wisely guarded by a republican administration of the Government which shall be just to all citizens and all citizens of our own common country. Thanking you again, gentlemen, for the honor of your call, I bid you a cordial good night."

Appropriations—Belknap's Trial.

Among to appropriations to be reported by the House committee on appropriations to-morrow are $50,000 for appraisers' stores and $27,000 for a sub-treasury building at San Francisco.

It is believed among senators, that notwithstanding the hostile vote to-day, the Belknap trial will soon be adjourned till November or next session.

The St. John's Fire.

NEW YORK, 19.—It is now thought that the loss at the St. John's fire will not exceed half a million dollars. Two tramps were in custody there on suspicion of incendiarism.

California Pioneers.

The Association of Pioneers of California gave a banquet and reception this evening, at the Sturtevant House, to Hon. Philip A. Roach, one of the Society's ex-presidents, on occasion of his first visit to the Atlantic Coast since the spring of 1849. About sixty gentlemen were present to-night to welcome him. A large majority of them had "roughed it" together during the early history of the Golden State. Gen. Gibson, of the U. S. A., president of the Society, acted as chairman and delivered an address of hearty welcome, which was frequently interrupted with applause. Mr. Roach responded very feelingly. Many toasts were drunk and speeches made, and it was near midnight before the genial company dispersed.

The Canal Frauds.

Judge Westerbrook has decided that the legislature, not the canal boards, are to blame for the canal frauds. The Evening Express, democratic, points out that many of the doubtful appropriations were passed while Tilden was a member of the legislature, and he never voted against them or protested.

Ratification Meeting—Hung for Murder.

ST. LOUIS, 19.—The republicans held a ratification meeting to-night. Speeches were made by John B. Henderson, District Attorney Dyer, and others.

Wm. Foster, who murdered the unknown colored man in Warren Co. last August, was hung at Warrenton, between seven and eight o'clock this morning. Foster had two trials, and was convicted on both.

Will Resign.

LOUISVILLE, 19.—Bluford Wilson left this city on Saturday night last, and before going stated positively that he would immediately tender his resignation.

Negro Outbreak.

BATON ROUGE, 19.—The disturbance reported as a riot occurred at Mt. Pleasant, near Port Gibson, on Saturday. The negroes, following the example of the whites, organized a band of regulators and ordered a democratic negro to leave the place. Refusing to leave he was attacked by the regulators and killed. A constable and posse, attempting to arrest the murders, were driven away. The sheriff of Baton Rouge with a posse went to Mt. Pleasant on Sunday and captured fourteen negroes, including the murderers.

A party of armed negroes passed Baton Rouge on the opposite side of the river, going towards Plaquemine. When they reached Brush landing they were disarmed by the whites.

This sheriff's posse making the arrest at Mount Pleasant report being fired upon by the negroes. Two of them were wounded and two horses killed.

City Council.

CHICAGO, 19.—The City Council have abolished the office of Comptroller and with it S. S. Hayes, the head of that department. The city clerk is, for the present, trusted with that position.

$25,000 Fire.

NEW ORLEANS, 19.—The town of Hauma has been partially burned. Loss $25,000. J. S. Staine has been arrested as an incendiary.

An Irish and Italian Fight.

THOOLD, Ont., 19.—A fight occurred between the Irish and Italian workmen on the new canal yesterday, during which one Italian was so badly beaten that he died during the night. An Irishman was shot through the thigh and several Italians wounded. The disturbance continued through the afternoon and was not quelled until the arrival of a detachment of volunteers from this place. The affair is being thoroughly investigated.

COACH PAINTING and TRIMMING!

WE BEG TO INFORM THE PUBLIC that we have opened the premises in the adobe immediately South of the Bain Wagon Shops, on the State Road, where we intend carrying on the business of Coach Painting and Trimming. Our work will be first-class; and, we only request a trial to demonstrate the fact.
