THE DEAD LIST IS MUCH REDUCED

Returns from Pueblo Undertaking Establishment Show Eighty-Two Dead Bodies.

CORONER IS INVESTIGATING

Examination Into Cause of the Wreck Will be Exhaustive -- Many Mistakes At Morgue.

Pueblo, Colo., Aug. 9.-Complete returns from all the undertaking establishments in the city materially reduce the dead list, which, according to practically official figures, shows 82 dead bodies. The list of those reported missing has been growing all day and has reached 32. One hundred and fifty-five passengers in all were on the train.

Organized searching parties scoure the Fountain river banks for miles today in the hope of finding the remain-ing bodies of the victims of Sunday night's wreck at Eden. Seven more bodles were recovered and a number identified.

San Francisco Primary Elections

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—In the pri-mary elections today a total of 17.941 votes was cast. In the Democratic pri-mary the regular organization, or Mc-Nab ticket, defeated the Democratic league, or Hearst faction. The regulars elected $7 delegates, against 72 elected by the league. There is a contested district to hear from carrying nine votes, and this will probably be given to the McNab contingent. On the Republican side the regular organization carried the day, the Ruef forces having opposition in only four districts. The opposition won three of the districts.
