

STOCKMEN AND THE RAILROADS.

Both Are Beginning to Get Closer Together on the Question of Shipments.

TRANSPORTATION SITUATION.

Promptness in Furnishing Cars and Better Time on the Way to Market.

It takes time for railway companies to inaugurate entirely new methods of transportation over thousands of miles of line. However, their promise made to the committee of the National Live Stock association at the Chicago conference to abrogate the tonnage system in hauling live stock is being realized. It cannot be expected that small shipments of less than 10 cars shall demand a "special" service or that a reasonable number of cars of dead freight shall not make up the balance of the train. The principal demand of the shippers is promptness in furnishing cars and better time on the way to market. Reports from nearly every western state are to the effect that the service has wonderfully improved, and that the railways are honestly endeavoring to give entire satisfaction. Advice from all the eastern markets are that the service in time and prompt delivery are now better than they have been at any time for several years past. President F. J. Hagenbarth of the Live Stock association has addressed a letter to Chairman Mahoney of the trunk line committee in which he offers to meet with the presidents and traffic managers of stock carrying roads at any time, for the purpose of amicably and justly settling any differences which may arise between the stockmen and transportation companies.

WILL BE APPRECIATED.
Through Sleepers from Salt Lake to San Francisco for First Time.

In connection with the new time card which goes into effect on the Oregon Short Line on June 12 for the first time in the history of Salt Lake through sleepers will run on that line and from that city and San Francisco. Under the new time card prospective passengers can take the through sleeper leaving here at 10:20 a. m. and also return on the train arriving from the coast daily at 3:30 p. m. This accommodation will be greatly appreciated by the traveling public.

W. U. ON SAN PEDRO.
Telegraph Poles Now Up for Twenty-One Miles Below Caliente.

Gangs of men in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph company are now stringing wires along the route of the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake road. Owing to the slow delivery of poles, however, the work is being decidedly retarded. To date about 21 miles south of Caliente marks the end of the territory where the poles have been erected. The first station to be established will be probably at Stien near the De Lamar ranch house, some 10 miles south of Caliente.

MONTANA COAL.
New Fields on Oregon Short Line May Be Developed Shortly.

Col. O. P. Chisholm of Billings, Mont., is in the city on business connected with the exploiting of a new coal field situated at a point about 100 miles south of Butte in the vicinity of the Oregon Short Line tracks. He has just received a report on samples sent to the coal mine inspector of Colorado who reports it to be equal to the coal of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio. Col. Chisholm claims that there are 50,000 acres of this bituminous coal in the vicinity awaiting development.

Changes at Ogden.
A. B. Moseley has entered upon his duties as traveling passenger agent for the Harriman lines at Ogden. T. W. Collins, traveling passenger agent for the Union Pacific in the same city, has been removed to Omaha where he will be given a position on samples sent to the coal mine inspector of Colorado who reports it to be equal to the coal of Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio. Col. Chisholm claims that there are 50,000 acres of this bituminous coal in the vicinity awaiting development.

Pullman Official Here.
H. C. Hulbert, a member of the executive committee of the Pullman company, accompanied by a party of friends, spent several hours in Salt Lake yesterday on his way through to San Francisco in his private car "Overland." Mr. Hulbert is an entertaining talker and a veritable mine of information on things pertaining to the operation of cars throughout the United States.

SPIKE AND RAIL.
Yellowstone Park business via the Short Line market opened up better than it did yesterday.

General Foreman McDermott of construction on the Salt Lake Route has returned to the front again.

J. D. Wood left for Spencer, Ida., last night to look after the shipment of his clip of 600,000 pounds, already detailed in the "News."

Sixty Raymond-Whitcomb tourists arrived over the Rio Grande on No. 4 last night and continue on their journey tonight. They are in charge of Conductor Smith.

Parties in from Utah county report that the spring is growing more numerous and that a railroad will be built from Price to Duchesne with a view to selling it to the Moffatt road.

The Utah Construction company is employing bands of Mexicans on the desert below Moapa. The weather, however, continues to keep fairly cool so that good progress is being made on the grading contracts.

E. O. Wattle of the Utah Construction company has returned from a trip over the San Pedro below Moapa. He has brought back with him some fine staghorn taken from a cave in the vicinity of Caliente which tourists as soon as the line is opened.

STORE BURGLARIZED.
Johnson's Establishment on East Temple Street Broken Into.

Johnson's curio and picture establishment at the old Deseret News corner, was broken into last night, by youthful thieves who entered through the windows opening into the Tilling yard. They easily got through the door in the north partition of the rear room of the curio store, and then proceeded to overhaul the stock at their leisure. The cash register was open, as the money taken during the day, had been received behind one of the shelves by Miss Ridley and Miss Erickson who had concluded at the last moment before closing the evening previous, that something might happen. The visitors turned over any amount of stock on the shelves and without without finding the cash. Money had also been tucked away in one of the cases; and as it changed, the thieves overturned many articles in that very case, but without striking the money hidden there. They carried off a dozen silver pin trays, and various other articles, valued at about $12, but did no further damage as could be ascertained, beyond demoralizing the stock. Miss Ridley's sack which was hanging on a nail was found hanging on the window instead, where the thieves had dropped it in their flight. The ladies were confused this morning, that the visitors had been after money, which however, they failed to find.

BACK FROM ST. LOUIS.
Col. Sam Park Tells of World's Fair And the Pike.

Colonel Sam Park returned last night from a five weeks trip in the east, extending as far as New York. He put in four days at the world's fair, where he walked 60 miles in that time as measured by a pedometer. Colonel Park believes the great fair will be completed in the next two or three weeks, and says it is the greatest world's fair ever held. The best way to get around is to patronize the touring companies, as the fair covers such an immense area, that to walk to any extent will require long and tiresome trips. The exhibition is over 60 per cent completed, and an army of workmen is rushing things. The great organ, however, is only about 40 per cent up, and may not be ready until nearly August. The colonel paid special attention to the Pike (Midway) which he found to be entirely free from the objectionable features that so marred the Chicago Midway. The Japanese have a fine village on the Pike, and altogether the aggregation of the Japanese exhibits on occasions considerable astonishment. There must be 2,000 Japs at the fair, and they are a very busy people. Every body seems pleased to see the Japs. The 600 native Filipinos at the fair make a great showing. They are part of the island constabulary, and as such a part of the United States army. The natives are intensely proud of their United States soldier uniforms, but look more like children. The only Russians at the fair are a few connected with the Siberian show on the Pike. No one seems to pay much attention to them; the shadow of Japan seems to cover them completely. The German exhibit is particularly fine, and the French are not much behind. The Utah exhibits in the agricultural and mining buildings are very attractive and cause much favorable comment. They are arranged with a view to the most advantageous display. The strict military discipline maintained at the grounds is commendable, as it prevents disorder and even the most unruly of the foreign element present are quick to obey instructions to be quiet.

ADELPH JESSEN'S WILL.
Engineer Killed at Bingham Left Property Valued at $20,000.

The will of Adolph Jessen, deceased, who was killed at Bingham on May 26, by coming in contact with a live wire, was filed for probate in the district court today. Accompanying the will is the petition of E. A. Wall and C. B. Jack, who asked that letters testamentary be issued to them as provided in the will. The will also provides that Harry C. Jessen, a son of deceased, act as executor with the other two named as soon as he becomes of age. The deceased left an estate consisting of real and personal property valued at $20,000. The will was executed on June 5, 1903, and provides that the estate shall be divided equally between the widow of the testator and their six children after the youngest of the children becomes of age. The petition is set for hearing before Judge Hall on Friday, June 17.

LAKE FILLING UP.
Rain Having a Good Effect on Great Inland Sea.

Today's rain is likely to continue through tonight and tomorrow, which will add materially to the rush of water to the great lake, as the ground is pretty well soaked, and much of the present precipitation will therefore run off into the streams. This rain is quite general over the west, and is heavy in the Mississippi valley.

Isaac Sears visited points on the southern and western shores of the great lake yesterday, and noted a rapid rise in the lake level. Places only recently bare and exposed, are now under water, and on the western shore the rise is quite noticeable. Mr. Sears confirms reports about there being such big freshets in the Bear and the Weber rivers. He does not think there will be much shrinkage to the lake this year.

TO LAGOON TOMORROW.
The High School Alumni association goes to Lagoon tomorrow to pay its respects to the cadets who are now en route here. They will leave here at 1:30 p. m., arriving in time to indulge in a snappy game of baseball, scheduled for 2 o'clock.

LAI IN THE GRAVE.
Wife of the Veteran Fireman, R. J. Knight, Now at Rest.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Jane Y. Knight, wife of the veteran fireman, R. J. Knight, occurred yesterday from the Twentieth ward meetinghouse. The services were conducted by Bishop George Romney and were attended by a large congregation of friends. Music was furnished by the ward choir and the speakers, some of whom had come from a distance to be present, were Joseph H. Frisby of Provo, William G. Burton of Evanston, Wyo., William G. Phillips, C. B. Stewart, C. R. Savage, Levi W. Richards and many others.

and Bishop Romney. There were many beautiful floral emblems and the grave at the city cemetery was dedicated by Matthew Thomas.

CAUSED HER ARREST.

Prisoner Adopts Novel Scheme to Get His Sweetheart Beside Him.

Edna Crismon, a negro woman, was tried before Judge Diehl today on the charge of smuggling steel saws into the county jail. According to the testimony given thus far, it indicates that the woman's lover, who is serving time in the jail, wanted her in jail with him, and concocted a scheme to get her there. He asked her to bring him the saws, telling her he wanted to do some fancy work. After she complied with his wishes, he "squealed" on her, and caused her arrest. The case against the woman is based on motion of the prosecuting attorney.

NOT MISSING NEW YORKER.
Eccentric Old Man Well Known to Police and is a Common Beggar.

With reference to an article published in a morning paper to the effect that the local police were looking for a man named H. B. Kingsley, a New Yorker who disappeared from Gotham some time ago, and that a man answering Kingsley's description was seen last night on Seventh South and Fourth East streets, the detectives said this morning: "The man referred to is not Kingsley. He is well known to us, and has been around town for some time. He seems to be a common beggar, and is not the man wanted in New York. So far as we know, there is nothing to indicate that the New Yorker is in Salt Lake."

POSTMASTER FOR WOODSIDE, UTAH
(Special to the "News.")

Washington, June 2.—S. M. Miller has been appointed postmaster at Woodside, Emery county, Utah, vice Claude Brown, resigned.

HIT HIM WITH A GUN.
Charge Made Against L. B. Duncan by William Nunn.

A complaint was issued today by Assistant County Atty. Whitaker against L. B. Duncan charging him with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do bodily harm. It is charged that Duncan, on June 1, pulled a gun on William Nunn and beat him over the head with the weapon. According to the facts as stated by Mr. Nunn, his daughter, who was working at Duncan's home, had been discharged, and he and his wife went to find out the cause. In the discussion of the affair at Duncan's house Nunn questioned the veracity of Mrs. Duncan, whereupon her husband drew a gun and struck Nunn on the head and drove him off the place. The result is that Duncan stands charged with assault.

PLEASANTLY SURPRISED.
Friends of Mr. and Mrs. West Remind Them of Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. West, who reside at 58 South First West street, were the victims of a surprise last evening when a large number of friends invaded their home and took possession. They came loaded down with sacks of kindling, rolling pins, clothes pins and various types of wares, which reminded Mr. and Mrs. West that yesterday was the fifth anniversary of their marriage.

The invaders also came supplied with dainty refreshments and otherwise prepared to remain for several hours, which were spent pleasantly.

Also on June 29, for the position of medical interne, government hospital for the insane at Washington, D. C., at $500 per annum; age limit 20 years or over.

Excursion Agent Bean of the Salt Lake & Ogden states that he has been flooded with applications from would-be fishermen to be allowed to angle in the lake at Lagoon. The disciples of Isaac Walton affirm that as the pond is a private one, the law cannot touch them if they fish there. In reply he affirms that it would not be consistent to indulge in fishing at the present as the fish are spawning, but after June 15 the private one will be open to the public. Preparations are being made for a high school banquet out at the Farmington resort tomorrow evening.

CHINAMAN NEARLY DROWNED.
A Chinese named Hong Wing had a narrow escape from drowning in the Ogden river last night. While attempting to water his horse, seated in his vegetable wagon, the force of the water took the outfit, man and all, down stream.

The Chinaman jumped and luckily caught hold of some brush and got out. The wagon and horse floated down to west of the bridge on Washington avenue, where the harness broke and the horse swam ashore. The wagon was finally recovered.

FRAUDS IN ALASKA.
A Thorough Investigation to be Made into Charges About Them.

Washington, June 2.—President Roosevelt today appointed James S. Young, United States district attorney at Pittsburg, a special assistant attorney-general to investigate charges against a number of federal officers in Alaska. These charges were discussed and final instructions given Mr. Young at a conference at the White House, at which Atty.-Gen. Knox was present. The principal investigation will be into matters affecting Judge M. C. Brown of the first division; Judge James Winklerham of the Third division and John G. Brady, the governor of the territory. Mr. Young expects to go to Alaska at once and anticipates that two months will be consumed in the work. He will report to the president on his return.

The summer school will open June 11 upon the arrival of 40 students from Columbia university and 20 from the Boston Institute of Technology. They will be followed by delegations from Yale and Harvard on June 25.

EX-MAYOR LOW.
Pilgrims' Club of London Entertains Him.

London, June 2.—The Pilgrims' club entertained former Mayor Seth Low of New York at luncheon at the Savoy hotel today. James Bryce presided. Among those present were Ambassador Choate, Consul General Evans, Maj. Beaumont, Lord Cecil, Louis Dyer, Gen. Hutchinson, W. D. Howells, Robert P. Porter, W. J. Pierre, M. T. Wilson, Rudolph Spreckels and James D. Phelan, of San Francisco. Over a hundred in all were present.

The speeches were few and brief, but overflowing with the most cordial sentiments of good will for both countries. Mr. Bryce, after proposing the health of King Edward and eulogizing what the king had accomplished between the European powers, proposed the health of President Roosevelt, as the greatest man who had occupied the presidential chair since Washington.

Mr. Low dwelt on the importance of the two countries knowing each other better, the good results which followed the Pilgrims in this direction and the importance of both countries cherishing and cementing these relations which now existed.
