Philadelphia, 30—Late to-night, Jos.
Fitzpatrick and his wife quarreled in their bedroom. A son broke luto the room and struck the father, who then killed the son with a sword. St. Louis, 30 .- William Brown (colored) was executed this morning at Belleville, Ill. Brown murdered a peddler named Lavigne, a poor crip-pled Russian exile, whom he induced to remain all night in his hut near Cahokia, Ill., February 26th. He brained Lavinge with an axe, then mutilated the body by chopping it to pieces, burned the head, hands and feet, and buried what remained.

FOREIGN. British News-Bynamiters in Sci

land Yard. LONDON, 29.—The Pall Mall Gazette declares Granville's request to Turkey to send 15,000 troops to the Soudan more serious than the scheme for mul-tiple control of the ministers. The people knew what Granville was doing when he proposed to surrender to France; but they stood aghast when they heard this proposal to Turkey to send troops. Turkey on Tuesday signified its acceptance of this proposition. It is not clear how the cabinet can repudiate Turkey's acceptance without insisting upon Granville's resignation. signation.

The same paper says the Egyptian conference will meet June 23d. Before that time the question of multiple con-trol and the limit of English occupation concluded between Waddington and Granville will have been agreed to

The whol was destroyed. Among the buildings burned were 105 houses belonging to the King. Three persons perished. An explosion of dynamite occurred outside the detective office at Scotland Yard, London, at 9.30 this evening. The corner of the building, which was composed of thick brick work, was blown off to the height of 30 feet, takand revealing an aperture 15 feet wide. Many cart loads of debris lying around attest the strength of the explosive. A broughman standing opposite the point of the explosion was wrecked, and the coachman injured. A policeman was thrown across the yard, and striking against the wall was injured. Several others were injured by cuts from glass, which flew in all directions. The explosive appears to have been placed in the urinal let into the wall at the rear of the large building occupied by the Later search resulted in the discovery The individual who lighted the fuse in St. James Square was pursued by an indignant and excited crowd, but managed to escape by jumping into a cab which had been in readiness and which was lost sight of in the darkness of night and the great confusion. The policeman and a few others of the injured are pronounced in a precarious condition. Sixteen packets of dyna-mite with fuse attached were found at 10:30 to-night under the Nelson Monument, Trafalgar Square.
