Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Serious Panic at the Ohio State Fair.

COLUMBUS, 14.—The State fair closed to-day, with a large attendance. During the grand reviews of premium stock in the horse ring this afternoon one of the teams became frightened and ran away. This frightened other stock and many of them broke away from their grooms and created great excitement. One team dashed with furious speed among the terrified animals and upon the Marion Cornet Band, which headed the procession, throwing them right and left. The confusion which followed was terrible. The thousands of spectators who filled the track and grand stand became wild with excitement, and it was with difficulty that many persons were saved from being crushed to death. The only serious injury, however, was to a drummer, named Harry Conrad, who will probably recover in a little time.

Movements of the Executive.

WASHINGTON, 14.—Secretary Evarts will leave Washington to-morrow morning for Louisville, stopping at Grafton, West Va., where he will remain until the arrival of Secretary Schurz and Postmaster General Key, who leave to-morrow evening. The postmaster general will accompany the presidential party in their southern tour. Secretary Schurz expects to leave the party at Louisville and return here. Secretary Thompson will accompany the party as far as Chattanooga, from which place he will proceed to Pensacola for the purpose of examining the navy yard.

Suicided.

RICHMOND, Ind., 14.—C. Spencer, aged 24, committed suicide in the city prison by hanging himself with a pocket handkerchief, while intoxicated.

Senator Morton was somewhat fatigued to-day, but nothing unfavorable.

Deaths from Yellow Fever.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., 14.—Five deaths have occurred at Ferdina since the last report, and there are several new cases. Dr. McFarland, from Savannah, says the disease will shortly become epidemic. It is almost impossible to get at the true condition of affairs there. The board of health is now well organized, and a hospital is soon to be established.

Close of the Bankers' Convention.

NEW YORK, 14.—A paper was offered, prepared by Edward L. Lewis of Philadelphia, showing that prior to 1866 the state tax on bank shares was only three mills on a dollar, but in 1866 the state legislature enacted a law imposing a tax of 1 per cent. on national bank stock. The clearing house took the case before Judge Agnew, since chief justice, and he gave it as his opinion that the state act was in conflict with the second section of article six of the Constitution of the United States, and granted an injunction. In 1869 the legislature again passed an act to tax national banks 1 per cent. on bank stock, but the clearing house again carried the case into court before Chief Justice Thompson, who decided the act was unauthorized, that the state could not tax banks more than three mills on the dollar, and again granted an injunction. Subsequently the act was repealed. The paper then showed that Philadelphia was totally opposed to state taxation.

The executive counsel then reported the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this convention silver money as subsidiary currency is desired by the people, and that its free but enforced use will greatly aid in restoring the value of our paper money.

In supporting this, Hayes, of Detroit, quoted and read the 20th verse, chapter IX, of the II Chronicles, and said it was the action of a wise man in those days. He thought some men had deteriorated since that time.

The following resolution was also reported by the executive council, as the embodiment of several referred to that body, and was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, As the sense of this convention, that the business of the country demands that the banking interests of the United States be relieved from all taxation by the general government, except the annual tax on their circulation to cover the expenses of the currency bureau, and taxation of bank shares by States be levied in the the same manner and only to the same extent, and subject to the same privileges and immunities, as other personal property.

The executive council reported twelve new members of that body, including Mr. Christensen, cashier of the Bank of Nevada, at San Francisco, California.

After the passage of several routine and complimentary resolutions, and a short address from the president, the convention adjourned sine die.

Recapitulation of both days' shooting:

Verdict of the Coroner's Jury.

The verdict of the coroner's jury in the late fire at Hale's piano factory, rendered this afternoon, censures the owner of the premises, J. P. Hale, on account of his neglect to provide adequate means for extinguishing fire, and would recommend that the proper authorities compel the owners of such buildings to provide a tank or tanks filled with water to be placed at the top of buildings, with standing pipes from the same with hose attached on each floor, and that all drying rooms ought to be built strictly fireproof. Further, that the commissioners of public works should cause to be provided larger water mains in that part of the city.

HIGHEST HONORS

AT THE

UNITED STATES CentenniaL

World Exhibition, 1876.

MASON & HAMLIN CABINET ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK

IN THE

"SEVERAL REQUISITES"

of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "the FIRST RANK in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of instruments of the class" by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the severest competition by the best makers, before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:—

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums shows instruments of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, viz: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, scope of expression, resonance and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action of keys and bellows, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and
