The ballots of the November elec-tion of 1902 are now things of the past, The law has been complied with in regard to the length of time they should be kept after the election, so they were taken from the county clerk's office yesterday afternoon by Deputy Clerk H. F. Evans and C. V. Anderson, custodian of the City and County building, and conveyed to the city crema-tory in a wagon and cremated.

Attention is called to the carelessness of people, especially women, who mail Christmas packages wrapped in thin paper and tied with thread or weak twine. These packages break of ten in the mail chutes at the office, be fore they fairly reach the hands of the clerks, and the contents are scattered. Uusually the clerks take the trouble to stop and retie packages; but in the rush and crush of the Christmas busrush and crush of the Christmas bus-iness, this can not be done, and pack-ages are put into the mail sacks, no matter what their condition. The post-master wishes that people would take care in putting up their bundles for mailing.
