Suicide of a Prisoner Who Was Supposed to Be Insane.

A SENSATION IN CHURCH CIRCLE.

A Mexican and a Cuban Men Have a Dispute—Fascinating—Cuban's Old Field.

A fine new railroad driving track is being built at Santa Fe, N. M.

The work of building the new depot at La Junta, Colo., will be begun at once.

The New Sterling pavilion is being prepared by the plastering of the exterior.

Edward Drew, at Walker Valley, six miles north of Dutch John, has been shot twice. He was shooting at birds near his home. He was shot in the head, and while walking toward his camp, his horse collapsed and fell heavily, causing him to be severely injured.

The wheat crop of 1894 in the Cache la Poudre valley west of Wyo. City, says the Fort Collins (Colo.) Courier, is estimated at 250,000 bushels, an increase over the previous year. The yield of the quantity sold is the same, about 70,000 bushels, and the best feature nearly 100,000 bushels.

R. J. Morrison, a young man about twenty-one years of age, committed suicide at Abiquiu, Colo., early on Friday morning by taking an overdose. No cause is known for his act, except that he was ill. This is the second self-slaughtered man and appeared in his usual good spirits.

On Friday afternoon a company was at an air at Florence, Colo., for the purpose of building and operating a canning factory with a capacity of 25,000 cans a day. Consideration of the amount of money necessary for the enterprise caused a number of men to withdraw their names and appeared in his usual good spirits.
