the Glants were in Louisvills recently Jim, who is one of the Giants' most loyal rooters, went to the Louisville ball park and practised with the New York players with all the energy he puts into everything he puts his hands to. The Giants attended Corbett's show and also found time to make a call on De Wolf Hopper, who was starring at another theater. After the performance both Corbett and Hopper met Manager McGraw, Seey, Knowles, and there was a two-hour fanfest. During the fanfest Corbett told of his experience as a bush leaguer. He said:

"I was taking a trip through the country, playing with various teams as a drawing card. It was when I was prominent in pugilism, in met, I was champion at the time, and naturally drew big houses-not, perhaps, on my ability as a ball player, but I could play a little bit at that time, and can now, if you want to know. Can't I. John?"

BOOST FROM MCGRAW.

McGraw made an affirmative nod, but I didn't notice him going down into his pocket to draw out a contract. You just bet 1 can," continued Cor-ever those two teams met. Those min-ers came down to the game with lamps on their caps and ploks in their hands. They look for a scrap, and are greatly disappointed if none comes off that they can take a hand in. "The first three times I went to bat the Wilkesburre catcher tipped me off as to what was coming. This will be a straight one, Jim,' he would say, or, 'Now look out for a curve,' but, by jiminy, I never even fouled the ball. "It went along to the almth inning, and the game was a tie, at two runs each. There was a Scranton runner on, first, and his score would win the game. It was a regular championship

"Well, I came to bat under these very interesting condition. There were two out at the time. The Wilkesbarre catcher, who had tried to befriend me before, put up his glove to his mask and whispered to me: "Jim, I'm sorry, but I can't tip you off this time—the game is too closs—and if they knew I was glving my pitcher's signs away it would be worth my job."

MAKES THREE-BAGGER.

MAKES THREE-BAGGER. "'All right, my boy; I appreciate your position,' I replied. 'You're all right. I'll take a chance on my own hook,' and, by golly, if I didn't swat the first ball over the right fielder's head for a three-bagger and won the game! What do you think of that?" Some kind friend touched the button at that stage, affording a very oppor-tune diversion, and after the Hquidation Hopper rose slowly to his feet, and with a scornful look and in a husky voice, remarked: "Jim, you're a liar." and as he strode to the elevator, he looked back and shouted: "Jim, I repeat it," and with emphasis, "You're a liar." "By golly, it's on record." retorted Corbett.

STAR OF THE AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Danny Hoffman, the great center fl elder of the "Highlanders," is looked to to bring his team far up in the van before the close of the season. He is a Connecticut boy, bats left-handed and can land a bunt exceeded in cleverness by no man in the game. His fieldin g thus far has been sensational and he seems to improve with age.

Billy Finucane and his manager, Paul Butler, arrived here last evening from Chicago and went to Ogden where Finu-cate will prepare for his twenty-round it with "Figating Dick" Hyland on the evening of the 21st. Finucane looks good to the fight fans and if half that is said for him is true, he should be able to make Red Sammy McClintic's boy extend umself when they enter the ring. In his present condition Finucane weighs about 13 pounds. The weight, ringside, is to be 135, and the Chicago fighter should have no trouble to get to the required notch. He will work in Ogden for a week and top off his training in Salt Lake in or-der to give the hight fans here a chance to got a line on him. The question of referee has been left open for a few days. Prevent Headache

We want you to know that Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills prevent as well as relieve headache, and that they leave no bad after-effects. We assure you that if taken when you first discover indications of an attack, they will drive it away, and thus not only save you the misery and distress, but the weakening influence of pain upon your system. Used in this way the attacks become less frequent, and eventually entirely disappear. They relieve pain by strengthening the nerves and overcoming the turbulent, excited condition, turbulent, excited condition, which is the cause of pain. "We used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills in our family for five years, and I would not like to do without them. Refore I found this remedy I would have spells of sick headache so severo that T would be Drostated for an many as 45 hours at a time. The Anti-Pain File stop the pain in a few minutes. I have a great deal of meuralgia around the heart, and the Prin File slop releve that. I now take them when I think I will have these an attack, and they stop if right then. I also notice that I do not have formerly." MRS. ROBA A. CURRIET. Kalamazoo, Mich.
