LOCAL BRIEFS.

Seniors Gave Dance.—The high school seniors gave the first of their season's dances last evening, with an attendance of 400 people. The decorations were in the color of the school, and punch was served.

Salaries Paid.—Clerk Judd of the board of education today paid the salaries of the officers of the board and janitors of the various schools for the first half of October. The total amount of the payrolls is $3,396.82.

Red and Black.—The last number of Red and Black, the high school magazine, was the foot ball number containing 40 pages of reading matter, well written and interesting in character. It is a creditable number.

To Purchase Machinery.—General Manager James J. Chambers of the public service company has gone to Chicago to contract for electrical and steam heating machinery, to cost about $250,000. He will be absent two weeks.

New School House.—A committee from the Jordan district school board yesterday inspected the schoolhouse at Forest Dale and decided to build one similar to it at Sandy. The estimated cost of the building is $80,000 and will have 12 rooms.

Students Fence.—Two hundred state university students indulged in a fencing match yesterday afternoon, in Cummings field—that is to say, they rebuilt the fence that was blown down by the wind which came from the north, and by 5 p. m. two blocks of fencing had been repaired.

To Repair Statue.—The statue of liberty on the City and County building is being straightened up and will soon be in as good condition as before the recent windstorm which came from the north and blew the statue's plume. The cost of repairing the statue will be about $200.

Pell From Car.—J. Groesbeck of 1855 Major avenue attempted to board a moving car at Third South and Main streets last evening, and missing his hold, fell to the street and cut his head. He was removed to his home where Dr. Richards found it necessary to take several stitches to close the wound.

Women's Press Club.—The Utah Women's Press club will hold its annual meeting Tuesday evening, Oct. 30, at the home of the president, Mrs. Emma H. Jackson, 154 north second west street. An excellent program has been arranged; the election of officers will take place and refreshments will be served.

Lumber Stolen.—George F. Adkins, of 262 Center street, had more than $100 worth of lumber stolen from him some time during Thursday night. The material was piled at Ninth West and Fifth South street and was doubtless loaded into a wagon and carried away, leaving no trace of where it was taken to nor who the guilty party was.

Emerson Ward Halloween.—The Emerson Ward Mutual Improvement association have planned a big social and dancing party at their hall for Tuesday evening next, Oct. 30. Committees have been formed to plan and elaborate decorations have been planned for the occasion and a unique program has been provided, good music will be furnished and a jolly time is assured.

Detective Office Here.—A copy of the articles of incorporation of the Utah Detective Service company, of St. Louis, has been filed with the county clerk. The capital stock of the company is $100,000, divided into shares of the par value of $100 each. G. H. Thibault is president, C. F. Newcomb, vice president; C. F. Joy, secretary and treasurer. The company will open up a branch detective office in this city.

Parade Caused Runaway.—H. Henry's demoralized gasoline buggy "hooker" and "tailor" came hard" caused "frightened the life out of" the horses attached to a brewery wagon on east Third South street yesterday afternoon, and the horses ran away. They brought up against a telephone pole at the Knutsford hotel and scattered beer kegs in profusion about the street. The horses broke loose, but were captured a block away.

Directors Met.—The directors of the M. & M. association met last evening, and discussed plans for advertising the strike. The idea of securing the services of a competent man to travel over the Intermountain region as a commercial agent for Utah manufacturers, concerns. He will be provided with catalogues, samples, etc., and be well paid for his trouble. The directors have changed their meeting nights to the first and third Mondays in the month.

EION'S SAVINGS BANK AND TRUST CO.
Pays 4 per cent on deposits. Joseph F. Smith, Pres. O. C. Beebe, Cashier.

ELI PERKINS COMING.

Eli Perkins, one of the most talked-about humorists in the world today, comes to Salt Lake City on Friday evening, Nov. 9. Eli gives his famous lecture, "Philosophy of Wit and Humor; and Stories Around the Stove." In it the humorist tells his best literary, political, legal and political stories; and the lecture has probably earned him the greater part of his considerable reputation as a "scholarly humorist." Eli, or to give him his right name, Melville D. London, has been made before college audiences. The College Record says, in commenting on the lecture he is to give here: "There is no play, no actor or combination of actors that holds an audience for two hours as closely as Eli Perkins does." The most gratifying thing about Eli's humor is its wholesomeness. He never touches the vulgar.

Perkins' appearance will be the third number of the University of Utah course of lectures and recitals. The lecture will be given in the new J. E. Church corner Second East and Second South streets.

ONE ON BROWN.

Girl Makes Purchase of Fine Hats and Charges Same to Judge.

The joke is on the judge of the juvenile court. Yesterday a young girl, who is a part of the crowd, called at a downtown store and purchased two fine hats and several other articles of wearing apparel and informed the clerk that she was a ward of Judge Brown's, and he was her legal guardian and hence would pay for anything she purchased, and to charge the goods she selected to his account. Later the bill was presented to the judge for payment and he immediately declared that he had not purchased them and had given no authority to charge them to his account. The girl was incensed and an explanation demanded and made. She said that she had been told from her parents by the judge of the court and as he was her legal guardian she thought he should pay for her clothing. She was compelled to return the goods to the store and thus the judge was relieved of an embarrassing situation. Should the other wards of the court take a notion to purchase clothing and have it charged to the judge as their legal guardian the latter would no doubt be bankrupt in a very short time.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater.—An audience of the old time monster dimensions came out last night at the theater to welcome H. Henry and his minstrels. The throng was heaviest in the upper sections, and most of the applause came from those quarters. In fact, it cannot be said that Mr. Henry's aggregation, large as it is, was organized for down stairs' tastes. While the scenic mounting of the opening part is quite gorgeous, and while a number of features possess undoubted merit, Mr. Henry, to make the attraction really high grade, needs a musical center who will keep his singers in tune, obliterate from the choruses the tenor whose sole ambition seems to be to yell, and build up the necessary balance in the orchestra. The best feature of the evening work, the work of the automatons, which were decidedly clever, and Mr. Gano's comic work was good, though long drawn out. Mr. Henry is not the only one who has been through the mill. The same bill runs this afternoon and evening.

The Lyric's next bill will be "Her Bitter Attention," by the author of "Dora Thorne." It is a play on the fashion of "East Lynne" and the character of Diana, around which the interest all centers, is said to call for acting just as strong as either "Dora Thorne" or "East Lynne." The author of this play has a strong hold on the public and her characters stand out vividly when they are transferred to the stage. The story possesses a strong moral, the sequel proving that sin ever brings its punishment. The climax comes when the heroine, bowed at her father's grave, is denounced by her husband and defended by her son.

"Her Bitter Attention" will run throughout the week.

AN AWFUL COUGH CURED.
"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing, and she was so weak that she could not get up. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat." writes Mrs. C. Bussard, Brubaker, Mo. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.
