M. A. Roberts Loses Railroad Ticket And Valuable Papers While at Depot-Thief Caught at Helper.

A clever crook at the Rio Grande depot yesterday robbed M. A. Roberts, a colored sailor who served on the battleship Tennessee, getting a tickot to Clinton, Tenn., his discharge papers and other valuable documents. Roberts is almost blind and deaf as a result of an explosion on the Tennessee and four days ago was discharg-ed at San Francisco. He was furnish-ed with transportation to his home in Clinton and the second s Clinton and was given orders for meals along the route. When he arrived in Salt Lake yesterday he was approached by a well dressed stranger who asked him to sell him his ticket to Teomessee. Roberts replied that he would not sell the transportation under any consideration and the stranger usked him to let him see the ticket so he would know what kind to get. Suspecting nothing wrong the sullor handed out a long envelope in which he had the ticket, his discharge papers and other papers of value. The man and other pipers of value. The man examined the contents and handed back the envelope. When the train time came Roberts felt for his ticket and was shocked to find that it had been stolen with other papers. Roberts was absolutely without funds. He hunted up Patrolman Surfus and told him. up Patrohnan Seigfus and told-him the theft. Roberts was taken to headquarters and cared for by the au-

Last night word was received that the man who had stelen the papers had been captured at Helper and will be brought back to Salt Lake to answer for his cowardly act. Price to joining the navy Roberts was a member of the Twenty-fourth infantry stationed at For Douglas. He is 36 years of age.
