GRUESOME FIND ON MOUNTAIN SIDE

Remains of Human Being Found
In Coldwater Canyon, East
Of Ogden.

INDICATIONS OF A SUICIDE.
Laudanum Bottle and Razor Found
Near Remains—Only Part of Skeleton Left.

Ogden, Dec. 14.—The gruesome find of a portion of the bones of a human being by Hyrum Goodale, in Coldwater canyon, east of Ogden, has been reported to the sheriff's office. Mr. Goodale was walking up in the mountains when he saw lying near some bushes in the snow, what he thought was a mackintosh coat, but on examination to his astonishment he found that it was the partial covering of the skeleton of a man, who had evidently been dead for a long time as the flesh was entirely gone, either having been eaten away by animals or birds. The entire skeleton was not to be found, the greater part being gone. Near the gruesome find was an empty bottle that had contained laudanum, and in the coat pocket was a rusty razor, but no papers or anything else could be found that would lead to the identification of the remains. From the finding of the laudanum bottle near the bones and the place where they lay it would indicate that the person had come up into the mountains and committed suicide.

SENT TO INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.
Carl Schurtz, a 14-year-old incorrigible, committed by Judge Patton.

Ogden, Dec. 14.—Carl Schurtz, another incorrigible youth, was taken to the State Industrial school yesterday afternoon by Probation Officer H. C. Jacobs, having been committed there by Judge Patton. The lad has been before the court several times for stealing and other offenses, but each time promised to reform and be obedient to his mother, who pleaded the court not to send him to the industrial school and Judge Patton decided to give him every chance to do better and placed him on probation, but he failed to report as he had promised to the court and was therefore sent to the industrial school. He is only 14 years of age.

Fred Raskham was given a hearing on the charge of cruelty to animals. He admitted his guilt and was given some good advice and permitted to go, on probation, but he failed to report as he had promised to the court and was therefore sent to the industrial school. He is only 14 years of age.

Peterson did not wait for the car to stop in getting off, and stepped backwards, which caused him to fall.

No Case of Pneumonia on Record.
We do not know of a single instance where a cough or cold resulted in pneumonia or consumption when Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken. It cures coughs and colds perfectly, so do not take chances with some unknown preparation which may contain opiates, which cause constipation, a condition that retards recovery from a cold. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. For sale by F. J. Hill Drug Co.

STRANDED PORPOISES MADE TO TOW BOATS.
The novel scene herewith given occurred recently off the coast of Essex, England. About seventy porpoises were stranded at the mouth of Morsea creek and could not cross the bar at low tide. The sport loving fishermen of the vicinity harnessed some of the helpless creatures to their boats and drove them up and down the river. This sport was continued until high tide enabled the weary and unwilling "sea hogs" to return to deep water.
