IMPRESSIVE OBSEQUIES

Burial of Seymour L. Clark, the Officer Slain in the Discharge of Duty.

HOWE DAMAGE SUIT SETTLED

Covington Divorce Suit—Heavy Vote At School Election—Potter Cafe—Missing Theatrical Man.

Ogden, Dec. 2.—With all the impressiveness of the funeral of a martyr, the services over the body of the late Seymour L. Clark, deputy sheriff of Weber county, who was murdered at Uintah last Friday night, was held at the Second ward meetinghouse yesterday afternoon, Bishop Robert McQuarrie presiding. The building was crowded to its utmost capacity and several hundred remained around the doors during the service to pay their final respects to the departed gallant officer.

The speakers were Patriarch David McKay, member of the board of county commissioners; Judge J. A. Howell, Samuel G. Dye and E. A. Larkin. Each of the speakers referred to the noble life of the deceased and his worthiness as an officer. The music was furnished by the ward choir, with solos by Hagbert Anderson and Gus Sander.

The Elks' lodge which attended in a body, met at the family residence at 1 o'clock and after performing their ritual, escorted the remains to the meetinghouse. At the grave the Elks conducted their ritual. The Fraternal Union of America, city and county officials, members of the police force and the sheriff's office and the employees of the county courthouses were present.

Other officers in attendance were Sheriff-elect Sharp and Deputy Sheriff

Burdige of Salt Lake City, Sheriff Johnson of Boxelder county, Tim Kellner, Union Pacific special officer Joseph Jones, special officer Oregon Short Line.

The pallbearers were Sheriff Wilson, Chief of Police Browning, Captain of Police Brown, C. C. Richards, Jr., Gus Sander, Walter and Wallace Dallimore.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful and included wreaths, etc., from each of the orders the deceased was a member, county officials, courthouse employees, sheriff's office, police department and Salt Lake sheriff department.

The interment was in the city cemetery to which place a cortege of almost a mile in length followed.

DAMAGE SUIT SETTLED.
 The damage suit of Minnie C. Howe, administratrix of the Albert Howe estate vs. the R. G. W. Railway company was settled out of court today for $2,500. The suit was to recover damages for the death of Mr. Howe, who was a brakeman and met his death by being knocked off a train in September last near Jordan bridge.

SCHOOL ELECTION.
 The polling at the school election today is very heavy up to noon—much heavier than anticipated.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.
 Eleven May Covington has brought suit in the district court against Orson W. Covington to secure a divorce upon the grounds of non-support. The plaintiff says that the defendant is a type compositor and capable of earning good wages and is at present employed in a local printing establishment. The couple were married 11 years ago and have two children of which the plaintiff asks the custody, together with attorney's fees and costs.

THE POTTER CAFE.
 Preparatory to the remodeling of the Broom hotel restaurant and buffet to be known as "The Potter," the Broom restaurant proprietors have purchased the Victoria cafe stock and fixtures. Cliff Potter, the new proprietor of the Broom cafe, or, as it will be known, "The Potter," has begun remodeling the two rooms preparatory for the big opening on or before New Year's.

BODY OF BRAKEMAN SENT TO EVANSTON.

The body of C. W. Anderson, the Union Pacific railroad brakeman, who was killed at Sheep Rock in Weber canyon, by falling from a freight train Monday afternoon, was shipped to Evanston yesterday afternoon. The deceased was an unmarried man and lived at Evanston with an aged father and mother whom he supported. He was one of the most trusted employees and had many friends on the road as well as at Ogden and stations along the road. The report that was made to Supt. Whitney on the accident is to the effect that there was no snow or ice on the top of any of the cars of the freight train upon which Anderson rode and at the point where the deceased fell the train was running at the rate of about 15 miles per hour.

THEATRICAL MAN MISSING.

The proprietors of the Dreamland theater are looking for Arthur Randolph, one of their employees who left the city suddenly Monday evening, carrying away considerable property belonging to other employees of the theater. It was also stated that after Randolph's departure from the city the proprietors of the moving picture house found that a couple of films had been tampered with which the vandals had hoped to injure. It is thought that Randolph went to Pocatello or Salt Lake, and officers at these places have been asked to be on the lookout for him.

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS.
 Wedding Permit—A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to James Nelson of Covington, Pa., and Birdie Whetlington of St. Anthony, Ida.

Anderson Residence Blaze.—The apartment from both stations of the fire department were called to the residence of Fred Anderson, on Adams avenue, to extinguish a fire which started on the roof. The loss will reach about $500. At the first alarm department No. 1 was called to 3004 Adams avenue instead of 2904 Adams avenue. The second alarm being sent in called the department from No. 2 station to the scene of the fire, which both arrived at about the same time. The prompt work of the firemen saved the building from destruction.

Lecture on Africa.—Before the Men's club of the Methodist church last evening Don Maguire delivered a lecture on his travels in Africa. The lecture was largely attended and very much appreciated.

PROVO.

PUBLIC LIBRARY DEDICATED.

Formal Opening of Beautiful Structure and History of Movement.

Special Correspondence.

Provo, Dec. 2.—The Provo public library was formally opened today. A reception was held by the trustees in the afternoon and evening. In the afternoon about 2,000 children attended, and in the evening a large number of adults were present. The trustees, President F. W. Taylor made the presentation address, and Mayor Decker, in behalf of the city responded. The dedicatory prayer was offered by Dr. George H. Brimhall. Refreshments were served and the guests spent some time inspecting the building and admiring the beautiful furniture and fixtures, and the display of books now numbering over 3,000 volumes.

The building and contents are the result of the labors of a few public spirited citizens, who in 1904 took up as a labor of love the providing of a library for Provo City. The building is a gift of Andrew Carnegie, who contributed $15,000 for the purpose, and a bronze tablet in the entrance acknowledges Mr. Carnegie's beneficence in the following words:

"This building is the gift of Andrew Carnegie, erected A. D. 1907."

Over the entrance are the words, "Public Library," and the following quotation from Carlyle, "May blessings be upon Columbus, the Phœnician, or whoever it was who invented books."

The building is of beautiful design in Greek style of architecture and is a one-story with basement. In the basement is a lecture hall, lavatories, etc. The main floor is devoted to the library proper, reading rooms, etc.

From a very small beginning, and very inconvenient quarters in the basement of the courthouse, this beneficent project has grown to its present very creditable proportions, and it is but just to give the names of the first and present board of trustees. The first trustees were Dr. George H. Brimhall, J. E. Bott, Mrs. Nettie B. King, S. P. Eggersten, Wm. M. Roylance, Mrs. Maud Taylor, Dr. Fred W. Taylor, Rev. S. H. Goodwin, R. R. Irvine, Jr.

The present board are: Dr. F. W. Taylor, George Powelson, Rev. S. H. Goodwin, S. P. Eggersten, R. R. Irvine, Jr., Caroline B. Pratt, Maryetta R. Beasley, Miss Maud Taylor, Mrs. H. E. Barker, Rev. J. Challen Smith, associate trustee, Mrs. Rosetta Schwab was a member of the present board, but resigned on account of poor health. Mrs. May Partridge is and has been the librarian with Miss Helen Smith, assistant.

THE WILLIAMS CASE.

The case of the State vs. Nathaniel Williams was given to the jury last evening at 5 o'clock. At 10:40 the jury asked the court to be informed of the penalties provided by statute for the various offenses charged against the defendant. By consent of the attorneys on both sides Judge Childerster read the statute fixing the penalty. The jury then retired and not having agreed upon a verdict by 12 o'clock court adjourned till 9 o'clock this morning.

At the opening of court at 9 o'clock this morning the jury brought in a verdict against Williams of "guilty of assault with intent to commit rape." Sentence will be pronounced Friday at 10 a. m. The punishment under the Utah statutes may be from one to 10 years. It is understood the verdict is a compromise, as it is reported that three were three for conviction for a higher offense, three for verdict given and two for acquittal. Judge Childerster in commenting upon the verdict said that the evidence warranted the finding of a verdict of guilty of the higher offense.

MR. ROYLANCE RETURNS.

William M. Roylance has returned from San Antonio, Texas, where he went as a representative of the Western Fruit Jobbers' association before the interstate commerce commission. He was accompanied by Commissioner Lane and Harlan to protest against the proposed advance in freight rates on fruit and produce. Mr. Roylance states that if the advanced rates remain unchanged it will mean an advance of about $25 a car on fruits and vegetables. At the hearing in Texas the railroad companies were represented by about 30 railroad traffic managers, general freight agents, railroad attorneys, etc., while the public and business associations had fewer than 10 representatives, consisting of the Texas state railroad commission and about four other organizations. It is his opinion that every commercial organization in the state and every business man and firm should endeavor to make its influence felt against the advance in freight rates which the railroad companies are determined to make unless prevented by the commerce commission.

Mr. Roylance visited Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Galveston, New Orleans and other large cities. He reports business conditions very quiet. The cotton crop is mostly unmarketed and prices are low.

OFFICERS VISIT HOSPITAL.

Governor-elect Spry and Treasurer-elect Watson visited the state mental hospital yesterday, on a tour of inspection in order to acquaint themselves with the needs of the institution of which they will be directors.

WELLSVILLE.

Funeral of Little Marie Maughan—Storm Finds Farmers Unprepared. Special Correspondence.

Wellsville, Utah, Nov. 30.—Funeral services were held over the remains of Miss Marie Maughan, who died in Los Angeles, Cal., last week. The ward choir rendered beautiful music for the occasion, and the following named spoke words of consolation and comfort to the bereaved ones. Elders Robert Baxter, P. M. Maughan, W. H. Maughan, W. H. Darley and Bishop Owens. Mrs. Carrie Hoskins also spoke of the purity and nobleness of the life of the deceased and as a member of the Primary association.

Notwithstanding the fact that beautiful weather has been enjoyed for several weeks, some of the farmers were not prepared for the snow storm. There are quite a lot of beets in the ground yet, and unless the weather moderates very quickly they are very apt to stay in the ground until next spring.
