Special Notices.

Burnett's Cocaine for the hair is all that it claims to be.—Chicago New Covenant.

No Unpleasant effect arises from the use of that delicate and refreshing Perfume, Burnett's Florimel.

Burnett's Standard Cooking Extracts are carefully prepared from fruits and spices of the best quality, differing essentially from all others.

A Traveler's Testimony is, "You can have no idea of the relief and comfort Burnett's Kalliston affords when one is suffering from exposure of the skin."

DOOLEY'S BAKING POWDER stands unequalled for making light, healthy and nutritious rolls, biscuits, griddle cakes, &c. The ingredients used in the manufacture of this powder are not only chemically pure, but so proportioned that the results produced are the same each time. In this respect it possesses superiority over all others in the market. Only two teaspoonfuls are required for a quart of flour. For sale by grocers generally. Use Dooley's Baking Powder only.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY.

RAILROAD FROM COALVILLE TO ECHO.—We are informed, on reliable authority, that on Thursday next, a survey will be made for a line of railroad from Coalville, to form a junction with the U. P. R. at Echo. The intention is to push the work through immediately, so as to have a ready means of transit for the products of Coalville and vicinity to Salt Lake City and intermediate points.

BOOK OF MORMON IN PHONETICS.—As a result of the labors of Elder Orson Pratt—which must have been very severe during the past summer—the Book of Mormon, entire, is now translated from the ordinary English orthography, into Phonetics. This is the greatest stride yet made in the world towards phonetic reform. For over thirty years the Phoneticians in England and this country have been laboring constantly for the introduction of phonetics and the advancement of phonetic reform. In England the Phonetic Journal, edited by Mr. Pitman, of Bath, has been published for many years, and latterly, we believe, this gentleman has printed the New Testament in the same characters. The Deseret Alphabet, though differing in form from the phonetic characters invented by Mr. Pitman, is precisely the same in principle; and the people of Utah have set an example worthy of imitation by all the English-speaking nations of the earth, in having printed sometime since, first and second readers, and now the Book of Mormon on this principle. It will do more towards spreading a correct style of speaking English among the polyglottian people of this Territory than anything else ever attempted.

ANNA DICKINSON AT CHEYENNE.—The Cheyenne Leader of Friday last, says that on the evening of that day, Anna Dickinson was to lecture in the U.S. Court House in that city. The Leader has occasionally been rather severe in its comments on this lady, being evidently no believer in female suffrage, which it terms an absurd question. But in its issue of the above date it tries to make the amende honorable, and does so as follows:

"On merely personal grounds, we entertain no unkind sentiments towards the lady. As a lady we respect her, are proud of her as a genuine specimen of American womanhood. But when it comes to the absurd question of female suffrage, then Miss Dickinson, in common with her sister advocates of the preposterous hobby, must come in for her share of the ridicule. We will say this of her: Miss Annie is the most ladylike, the best looking, and decidedly the most feminine of all the suffragers."

The above is really capping the climax, by adding insult to insult. Why, anyone acquainted with Miss D. must see at once that the editor of the Leader, when delivering himself of the above, was indulging in keen satire. If Anna is the most ladylike, the best looking and the most feminine of all the "suffragers" they are a hard looking crowd! The Leader must be joking!

In further remarks, our cotemporary adds, "as a gentleman she is not a success. We believe, however, that she would make a good man a wife." If meant for a compliment, the above is of a very doubtful character, for it might be said with equal propriety of every healthy woman living. If our cotemporary had transposed a portion of his sentence so as to be read, he believed she would have made a good wife he would have paid her the highest compliment he could have paid to her or any other woman. But the editor of the Leader is too astute and non-committal to go so far. Sincerity forbids, we suppose!

FIRST FINE CALF SKIN TANNED IN MONTANA.—The Helena Gazette of the 21st says:

"Mr. Ben. Word showed us a skin of Montana tanned fine calf-skin, which is almost equal to the French. It is from the tannery of George John, on Mill Creek, and is, we believe, amongst the first fine calf skins ever turned out in Montana. In a short time we will be able to supply ourselves with home manufactured goods of every description, if not to supply portions of the country outside the Territory."

Montana is awaking to the importance of the great lesson of which the people of Utah generally, are so well convinced,—namely, the necessity of being self-sustaining by promoting home manufacture. It is the only sound policy for communities isolated like those of the Rocky Mountains to pursue, and we say success to all who attempt it.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY.

THE IMMIGRATION.—A company of emigrants sailed from Liverpool on the 22nd inst. We are in hourly expectation of hearing of their arrival at New York. We also understand that another ship was to leave the Mersey to-day, with passengers for Utah. These two companies, will, we presume, close this season's emigration from Europe.

IN THE CITY.—Amongst the many visitors who are at present in our city are Mr. Rangabe, the acting Greek Minister, M. Louis Strauss, Consul for Belgium to Japan, M. Emile Moutran, Chancellerie to the Belgian Consulate, with other gentlemen and ladies from all parts of the world, who will carry to their distant homes strange and pleasing stories of the wonderful city of the Great Salt Lake, with its still more wonderful and peculiar people. The visits of gentlemen and ladies of the calibre and standing of those now with us must make the people more widely known, and the better they are known the more they will be respected, the more their motives are understood, the more they will be loved by the wise and good.

MOVING AGAIN.—The U. P. R. R., we are informed, are moving their temporary shops and appurtenances from Uinta to the new station at Ogden, which will no doubt result in the speedy demise of another mushroom burg of railroad progress. Ba-artown, it is said will soon follow suit.

PETIT JURORS.—We learn that yesterday, Mr. John Gray, of the 13th Ward, of this city, was fined $25 by his Honor Judge Wilson, for contempt, in refusing, when summoned, to serve as a petit juror in the Third District Court. We have heard of several other parties who have been summoned to serve in this capacity, and have refused to do so. Such a course is highly reprehensible and lays the parties guilty of it liable to a heavy fine. We have not the least doubt that any such party, who can furnish anything like a valid excuse for non-attendance, would be readily excused by Judge Wilson; but such excuse must be furnished, and excuse granted or refused, at the option of the Court. All parties acting as Mr. Gray did, lay themselves open to the penalties of the law.

UTAH COUNTY FAIR.—We learn from Daniel Graves, Esq., Secretary of the Utah County branch of the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society, that the county Fair will be held at the meeting house, Provo, on Friday and Saturday next, the 1st and 2d of October. It is expected there will be a fine exhibition of the natural productions and handicraft of Utah Valley.

HENRY HILL there is a message for you at the Deseret Telegraph Office. Call and get it.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.—This morning at half past 10 o'clock, the Court was called to order, his Honor Chief Justice Wilson presiding. After some delay, the prisoners Enoch Able and Richard Connery were brought in by Deputy Marshal R. W. McAllister.

The Grand Jury also came in and presented additional indictments, stating that there was no further business before them. Whereupon, after being complimented by the Court for their faithful and prompt discharge of duty, they were discharged from further attendance.

The prisoner Able was called, and the indictment read to him, charging him with larceny of ten sheep, the property of Little & Chandler. Allowed till to-morrow at 10 o'clock, a.m., to plead.

The prisoner Connery was also called, and the indictment read to him, charging him and Able jointly with larceny of 11 head of cattle, the property of Chas. Popper.

The petit jury was discharged till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, to which hour the Court then adjourned.

DISTRICT COURT.—Yesterday afternoon at about four o'clock the Court met pursuant to adjournment. At a few minutes past five the Grand Jury came in, made several presentments, and among them the following testimonial of respect to His Honor, Judge Wilson:

In the District Court in and for the Third Judicial District of Utah Territory.

Regular term September, A.D., 1869.

Hon. Charles C. Wilson, Judge.

We, the undersigned Grand Jurors, duly empanelled, sworn, and charged as Grand Jurors, in and for the Third Judicial District of Utah Territory, desire to manifest our appreciation of the high-toned character of the Hon. Charles C. Wilson, Judge of the said District Court.

His impartial, dignified and gentlemanly bearing, not only on the Bench, but as a private citizen, claims our esteem and commands our respect, and we, as Grand Jurors, as aforesaid, request the Court to allow this expression of our deserved good feeling and respect to be made a part of the Records of this Court.

With sentiments of respect we subscribe ourselves your Honor's devoted friends,

Henry Grow,	Form'n James Moses,
Chas. Woodmansee,	James Burch,
C. G. Webb,	Marion H. Brady,
Henry Tingey,	Wilford Hudson,
H. K. Mikesell,	Nathan T. Porter,
Alex. Brim,	Ruel Barres,
S. Biddlecome,	S. M. Worthington,
W. R. R. Stowell,	John Waley,
Thos. O. King,	L. W. Severe,
Pretson Lewis,	Armstead Moffitt,
Horton D. Haight,	Thomas S. Smith,
Thomas Allsop,	J. F. Barker,

His Honor, in reply, said:

"I find a paper here, unexpected by me, which places me under great obligations. I thank you for the kind expressions contained in that paper. You are all strangers to me; and our intercourse with each other has been limited to our official relations in this Court, hence your expressions of respect are the more gratefully received and are reciprocated by me. I think you are, at least, entitled to the thanks of the Court and people for your attendance here from day to day, waiting for the organization of the Jury; and so far as I have seen, you have shown a desire to do your duty as Grand Jurors; and while I hope that I shall ever retain and deserve the good feelings which you have expressed towards me, and for which I again thank you, I feel that it is the duty of the Court to thank you for the strict attention you have manifested to the duties devolving upon you in your capacity as a Grand Jury."

The Court then adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY.

NEW U. S. MARSHAL FOR UTAH.—Our readers will learn from the telegraphic dispatches, to-day, that James M. Orr, Esq. has been appointed, by President Grant, United States Marshal for Utah. Mr. Orr is a member of the old firm of Nounnan, Orr & Co. and is well known to many of our citizens.

"A gentleman writing from Salt Lake, says the children there are as thick as grasshoppers, but he adds that they are not very boisterous or obstreperous; are, on the whole, as well behaved as the average of children, but they did seem to him to have a neglected look. The school-houses ought to be well filled, and the schools flourishing. He don't know what they teach in these schools. Multiplication, he presumes. This, the Yankee thinks, is a fair hit at the Mormons. We believe that, in New England, the schoolhouses are not so well filled as they should be, and some wise doctors do assure us that, if they do not teach, they practice Subtraction. The best thing we can do with the Mormons is to let them alone."

POLICE.—Richard Connery was yesterday arrested and fined $25 for his assault on Mr. Thomas Hewlett, about a fortnight ago, the particulars of which have been published in the News. We are happy to say that Mr. Hewlett is steadily recovering from the effects of the wound in the head he received at the hands of Connery on that occasion.

AN OFFENSIVE NUISANCE.—Every traveler to and from the city by the State Road has doubtless had occasion to remember the offensive smells with which the air is almost constantly loaded, through the habit which many of the people have of drawing thither the dead carcasses of the animals that have died in their service. It is a nuisance that should be abated. To make the principal thoroughfare leading to our city a place of deposit for dead horses and cattle, their owners not even taking the trouble to bury them, is a disgrace, and it cries loudly for a remedy. In a communication which we have just received we find the following allusion to this bad practice:

"My business calls me twice a day to pass a pile of decomposing matter which lies on the State Road, just south of the city, and the odor thereof is extremely offensive. I do protest against this filthy habit some people have of lining our public thoroughfares with the carcasses of dead cattle; if they would bury them in their gardens, it would greatly improve the soil and add much to the comfort of the traveling public."

B. YOUNG, Jr.

Sept. 30, '67.

DISTRICT COURT.—This morning Enoch Abel, charged with larceny, pleaded guilty of the two indictments found against him. The Court deferred passing sentence upon the prisoner until the hearing of the evidence in the trial of his accomplice, Connery. Connery, being called, plead not guilty. Charles Popper and Andy Strong, implicated with Able and Connery in stealing the sheep of Little & Chandler, appeared and plead not guilty. The reading of the indictment to them was waived, and they were released under bonds, the former $1,500, the latter $1,000, to appear from day to day.

The case of James Kilfoyle, indicted for the murder of Thomas Frazier, at Wanship, on the 25th of July last, being set for this morning, the witnesses names for prosecution and defense were called and several found absent.

A petit jury was impaneled to try the case, after which the Court adjourned till 2 p.m., the jury being placed in charge of the Deputy Marshal, under strict injunctions from the Court.
