The past week has witnessed a number of social functions in honor of the aged people of Provo.

aged of that ward. The guests arrived at 11 o'clock a. m., and at 12:30 were seated at a most elaborate spread. After dinner a musical and literary pro-gram was carried out, during which the tables were cleared away and old fash. ioned dancing indulged in until evening. In the evening a ball for the married eople was given. At the Fourth ward meeting house Friday evening was given a most enjoyable social in honor of First Coun-selor Andrew Watson of the biahopric of that ward, who has resigned from the bishopric on account of failing health.

Brother Watson came to Provo in 1856, and has acted as first counselor to the Bishop of the Fourth ward since June 22, 1877. A most interesting pro-gram was carried out in which all the various organizations of the ward were represented.

Nougieur. Price, Carbon Co., Jan. 27 .- A few lays ago, Joseph Nougleur of this place is said to have had a rather bitter experience in the famous Robbers' Roost ountry. He is one of the prominent theep men of the eastern part of Utah. It has been the custom of Nougleur and ther sheep men to drive their flocks in the San Rafael and Sinbad hills for inter range. Nougleur came in early this year and established himself in the San Rafael hills, opening a store at the crossing on Green river, which he called San Rafael. He put in his stock of general merchandise, built a ferry boat and this is the way his stationer; read

Some few days ago he received a mes-sage from J. M. Miller's family at Murray. Utah, that one of his family was slek and asking Mr. Nougleur to go to Millers' camp, some forty-five mile, from the postoffice and store. There being no one about, Nougleur saddled up his best rider, and started for the camp of Miller. He rode all night and arrived at his destination about day. light, in the meantime tying up his horse not far from the camp and walking over that portion of the country which he could not make under saddle. He had delivered his message and went back to where he had left his horse, only to find that it was gone. He walked back home, it taking him the best part of two nights and a day, the country being very rough. The horse thief left a note saying he was in need of the animal and saddle more than the owner, and giving his name.

DAMAGE SUIT.

Most of the time of the court has been occupied the last two days in hearing the case of Charles Baalman va the Snyder Improvement company. Plaintiff is suing for $20,000 for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained while working in a tunnel for defend-ants. The testimony for plaintiff and a part for defendant has been heard, and the matter goes over to 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Clever Capture of Housebreakers-New Sunday School Organized. Special Correspondence.

Willard City, Boxelder Co., Jan. 25.-The stolen articles and the money that were taken from E. P. Cordon's home last Sunday have been recovered. On Tuesday last County Sheriff H. H. Cordon found trace of the two men suspected of the burglary, and learning that they had started west, took the train as far as Blue Creek, where he was told they had been seen boarding a freight train. He followed, expect-ing to overtake them at Terrace, but on arrival there found they had got the start of him one hour and a quarter, on the flyer. He telegraphed to the next station, telling the conductor to search the train and after the third search, they were found hidden in the vestibule of the mail car. They were taken into custody at Carlin, Nevada, and on the arrival of Sheriff Cordon he brought them to Brigham and next day they made a full confession, and returned all the stolen articles and money. One of the culprits was a boy aged 16 years, from Denver, the other, aged 19, from Illinois. They are now in the county jail awaiting the next term
