LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

EASTERN.

DOVER, Del., 11.—There is still the charge of arson against West which will be tried in October. This is also punishable with death, and conviction on that charge seems certain.

AUBURN, N. Y., 11.—A brutal murder was committed in this city last night by Merritt Wheeler, keeper of a house of ill-fame. He murdered his mistress, Fanny Sterling, by holding her by the hair and kicking her to death.

CINCINNATI.—Jas. McDermott, butcher, was shot dead while standing in his stall in sixth market this morning by W. C. Daniels. The parties had had some trouble on Sunday, from which the shooting is supposed to have originated.

WASHINGTON.—The Secretary of the Interior, to-day, decided that under the 6th section of the act of Congress, granting land to aid the construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad, the filing of a map of the general route protects the company from pre-emption settlements within the granted limits, which it states are twenty miles on each side of the line.

Of forty-five millions of three per cent certificates outstanding in November, 1870, all but thirty thousand have been collected in and redeemed.

NEWARK, N. J.—The passenger train from New York and a Freight train came in collision at East Newark, this p. m.; both engines were demolished, the baggage cars telescoped the smoking car. One engineer was fatally wounded, and a large number of passengers cut and bruised. The passengers in the smoking car crowded through the windows. The air brakes prevented a more serious disaster. The engineer of the freight train is to blame.

NEW YORK.—This morning a requiem mass was celebrated at St. Stephen's church for the soul of Gen. Ignatio Agramonte. The church was crowded with Cubans.

Specie shipments to-day, six hundred thousand ins silver bars.

This morning, Nathan Baltman shot and killed Jas. McAdams, an employe of the Pennsylvania R. R. Co., in Jersey City. Baltman had been discharged from the employ of the company by McCann, the yardmaster, and meeting the latter he drew a pistol and was about to fire, when McAdams interfering, a struggle ensued, during which the pistol was discharged.

It is rumored about the City Hall that all the recent city appointments are illegal in consequence of their non-publication in the city record in accordance with law.

The Court of Appeals has decided that the civil justices are entitled to ten thousand dollars per annum, to which their salaries were raised by the board of supervisors, whose authority to do so was resisted by Comptroller Green. The decision costs the city one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

The seventh annual convention of the Universal Peace Union is being held here. Among the resolutions is one thanking President Grant for his Indian peace policy.

The seventh regiment has been ordered to escort the remains of Minister Orr on Friday. The casket containing the body was viewed by 2,000 persons at the City Hall to-day.

A fire at the corner of Pearl St. Curling slip, this p. m., occasioned a loss of $20,000.

SHAMOKIN, Pa.—The body of Conrad Drumheiser has not yet been found, but men are working with a will to get him. His time book was found this a. m. Five of the victims will be buried to-morrow. The coroner's jury adjourned till to-morrow a. m., not coming to a definite conclusion, but the deaths are generally attributed to the damp. Drumheiser's body, when found, will tell the whole story.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N.Y.—President Grant and party Gen. Sherman, Secy. Belknap and others witnessed the cavalry drill at West Point this p.m. There were mortar practices and fire-works to-night. On Friday the diplomas will be awarded.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y.—Dr. Lewis E. Meyers, a dentist of this place, while drunk this eve, stabbed, it is supposed fatally, his father, in the breast near the heart, with a sharp instrument. Meyers is in custody.

WASHINGTON.—Felix R. Brunot, chairman of the board of peace commissioners and Thos. K. Creed, secretary, to-day, started to meet the Sioux in council on or about the 13th inst. They will afterwards visit other portions of the country.

Crowley, U. S. district Attorney for western N. Y., was at the internal revenue bureau to-day, in consultation with commissioner Douglass in regard to the suit brought by the New York Central Railway Company against the collector of Albany, to recover the $46,800 taxes paid him under protest. The suit will be tried the last of this month at Canandaigua, Judge Hunt holding the term.

The twenty days' time given by the President's proclamation to all persons attempting to interfere with the Kellogg government in Louisiana, to comply with the proclamation, expires to-day, and the Attorney General does not think there will be any further occasion for interference by the national government.

The government has been informed that the list of the losses made up by the commission appointed to examine into the condition of affairs on the Texas border, is greatly exaggerated. In many cases a loss is represented ten times greater than the whole valuation of the property destroyed.

MEMPHIS.—There were 24 interments to-day, against eighteen yesterday. There is but little excitement in regard to the cholera, and it is generally believed that the rain last night will have a beneficial effect.

NASHVILLE.—The cholera cases are decreasing rapidly.

MILWAUKIE.—The Grand Lodge of Masons was in session this evening; the attendance was large. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: R. Delos Pafford, Grand Master; H. E. Hubbard, Senior Grand Warden; J. S. Burroughs, junior Grand Warden; W. H. Hines, Grand Treasurer; Geo. E. Haskinson, Grand Secretary.

PHILADELPHIA.—At a meeting of the American crucible cast steel manufacturers, to-day, it was resolved to maintain the present price of steel.

The New York Herald's special at Madrid says that dissensions have broken out in the Carlist camp. Dorregaray's removal from command was not on account of his wound, but in consequence of an intrigue with the Marquis Valde Espiral.

NEW YORK.—An excited meeting of the bondholders of the St. Joseph and Denver City R. R. was held to-day. James H. Fisher, of Buffalo, presided. C. W. Hassler, said the meeting had been called in order that bond holders might look after their rights. He described how the bonds had fallen to 31½, and said it appeared that instead of a million and a half acres of land being available there were but half a million acres. A committee of five was appointed to report to a future meeting. In reply to anxious inquiries Hassley gave it as his opinion that transfers of the company's land, except on mortgage, could not be prevented, and that the bonds unsold ought to be cancelled.

CONCORD, N. H.—The Legislature, to-day, elected the following State officers: Secretary of State, B. F. Prescott, of Concord; State Treasurer, Solon A. Carter, of Keene.

NEW YORK.—The World's special from Constantinople says the Sultan has issued a firman, granting to the Khiva of Egypt an independent internal government, and authorizing him to augment his army and to conclude foreign treaties.

NOVA SCOTIA.

HALIFAX.—The Fire at the Lingan, Cape Breton, colliery, has been extinguished, but the extent of the damage is not known.

The French war vessels Distaire and Keresaml have sailed from Sydney, Cape Breton, for New Foundland, to protect French Fishermen. The Minerva and Eurydice remain at Sydney.

CANADA.

QUEBEC, 11.—Governor Dufferin and Sinte arrived this a.m. and will remain two weeks, and then proceed to Saugueney and the maritime provinces.

BARRIE, Ont.—James Carruthers was hanged here this a.m., for the murder of his wife.

MONTREAL.—The remains of Sir George Cartier were landed to-day in presence of thousands of spectators.

EUROPEAN.

LONDON, 11.—A special to the Daily News from Rome says many monks belonging to the monasteries which are to be suppressed will go to Bolivia and Chili.

The amount of bullion gone into the Bank of England on balance today is $131,000.

The London Telegraph of the 29th of May says the Empress of Russia and the arch-Dutchess Maria had an interview with the Pope and Cardinal Antonelli yesterday.

Austria has broken through the etiquette usually observed towards the vassals of the Porte by receiving Prince Nicholas of Montenegro without his having been presented by the Turkish ambassador. As this step appears to indicate a change of attitude towards the government of the Sultan, it has excited attention in diplomatic circles at Vienna.

The Ascot races for the royal hunt cup was won by Winslow, Reine was second, and Oxford Mixture third. Twenty-seven ran. The Ascot Derby was won by Gangforward, beating Highland Laddie second, and Andred third.

LONDON.—It is expected that the prosecution against the Tichborne claimant will be able to rest their case next week.

Prince Amadeus and wife have arrived in England, where they remain during the summer.

Advices from Rio Janiero to the 23rd ult., have been received. The conflict between the clergy and secret societies continued to agitate Brazil. The ministry had taken strong ground on the subject, and were gaining support for this policy. In the lower house the Premier made a speech defending the Free Masons, and promised that energetic measures should be taken to prevent bishops and Jesuits interfering with the society.

PARIS.—Several French officials have sent in their resignation in consequence of the circular issued by the Minister of the Interior on the 4th inst.
