The Old Colony Sound Steamer "Bristol" Destroyed by Fire.

Mrs. Parsons Makes a Speech in Spite of the Chicago Police.

Seven Persons Crossing the Ohio in a Skiff, are Drowned.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.

A STEAMER BURNED.

A Heavy Loss to the Old Colony Line.

NEWPORT, R. I., Dec. 31.—The steamer Bristol, of the Old Colony Line, was burned at her dock this morning, and is a total loss. She arrived from New York about 2:30, and landed all her freight and her Fall River passengers. There were left on board only a few Newport passengers and their personal baggage. At 6:30, just as the last passenger train was drawing out of the depot, fire was discovered on the steamer, and the alarm was at once given from the companies signal on the premises. The fire started near the kitchen and spread with great rapidity, rendering futile all efforts to stop its progress. Three alarms were sounded in rapid succession. Thousands of citizens were attracted to the spot by the brilliant illumination, volumes of fire and clouds of smoke which arose from the burning steamer. The fire apparatus on the steamer was brought into use, and as soon as the flames were discovered the crew worked with great vigor to save the boat, but the joiner work of the stateroom, saloon and stairway was dry as tinder, and drafts through the steamer caused a fearfully rapid spread of the flames, so that before the city fire department arrived there was sweeping from stem to stern.

Some passengers were still on board and did not understand the meaning of the first alarm, and were only aroused by the crackling of the flames. All escaped, but some only by burning a portion of their clothing, and some by crawling over the rails near the burning timbers. A man with two little children occupying a state room was awakened by the crackling flames near by and barely escaped with the little ones with their clothing in their hands. Another young man borrowed clothing to go to his home in this city.

All personal baggage was saved. When the fire department arrived the upper deck and center of the steamer was a mass of flames which gave out such intense heat it could scarcely be borne at a distance of several hundred feet. This greatly impeded the work of the firemen. The flames gained such headway that they could only be fought from the wharf sides, while the great heat and sparks endangered the buildings and the great steamers lying on both sides of the wharf, and constant efforts were required on the part of the firemen to prevent them from igniting. A dozen streams were soon pouring on to the flames with little apparent effect for over an hour, while others were employed in drenching neighboring buildings and other vessels.

The insurance amounts to $300,000, which covers the loss.

Sensational Report Discredited.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Senor Romero, Mexican minister, said to an Associated Press reporter tonight that he did not believe that any such occurrences had taken place in the City of Mexico as were stated to have happened in a special dispatch from El Paso, Texas, purporting to give an account of a great clerical uprising in the Mexican capital, in which over 200 people, including seventy priests, were killed, and a great number of priests captured and ordered shot. Senor Romero said if anything of such magnitude had happened we should have heard of it by cable via Galveston, and not received an intimation of the affair by from El Paso; "Besides," he said, 'I have official dispatches by cable up to last Friday, and they do not say a word about it. If any such thing had happened they would have said something about it, especially if it had any such ending as is is given in the public dispatch."

The minister added that it was a Mexican custom for every one on the 28th of December to tell the biggest yarns he could think of and then laugh at those who believed them. It was a sort of American April fools' day, and he thought perhaps the published story had such an origin.

In Favor of Division.

ST. PAUL, Dec. 31.—A vote has been taken by a Deadwood, Dakota, paper, on the question of single or double statehood, and it is shown that a little more than five-sixths of those answering are in favor of division and admission as two states. The answers received are from various parts of Southern Dakota, and the voters are of all occupations and political faiths. This vote is believed to be a fair representation of public sentiment on the matter which daily grows stronger. It is believed division and admission are simply questions of time, and while awaiting the outcome with considerable anxiety, the people have already begun to look after the prizes to be secured when two new states are introduced.

Every movement of the national capital is watched for eagerly, while a number of Dakota towns are looking after their fences and generally brushing up in the hope that they may become the seat of government. While a few towns are especially anxious to secure that plum, all are united in efforts to bring settlers into the soon-to-be states.

The Pope's Encyclical.

ROME, Dec. 30.—Opening with the words "Exeunte Jam Anno," the papal encyclical thanks God for the consolations which the jubilee rejoicings have brought to the Pope, and His Holiness thanks the Catholic world for its tokens of affection and devotion. Turning to religious matters, the encyclical complains that the tendency of the age is toward material interests, and this tendency is strengthened by worldly pride, an evil press and drama, the demoralization of the arts and the education of the youth in schools of materialistic and atheistic teachings, obscuring true notions of right. Secularism, nihilism and communism, it says, are also outcomes of this addiction to material things.

The Pope attended Te Deum service in St. Peter's today to mark the close of the jubilee.

London, Dec. 30.—A rebellion has broken out in Wam County in Upper Burmah. Prisoners in Shweba jail in Burmah recently made an attempt to escape. Seven were killed and three wounded.

THE CHICAGO ANARCHISTS.

Mrs. Parsons Succeeds in Making a Speech.

CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—Anarchist Parsons, a dark skinned widow, today made good her boast that she would speak in Chicago in spite of the police. It was in Waverly Hall, one square from Mayer Roches' office and is the same place which was closed against her a week ago. Four hundred people crowded into the little auditorium, and many others choked up the entrance and stood upon the stairs. The meeting was one called by the socialistic labor party "to transact business, and for the promotion of socialistic doctrines."

The proceedings opened with a resolution for their recent lawless interference with public meetings. The resolution was unanimously adopted. Tommy Morgan, a socialist, was the first speaker. He said the employment of force by workingmen was futile. It appealed to the lowest instincts of mankind, and was wrong from a moral, intellectual, and a practical standpoint. Its impracticability had been demonstrated in this city by the Haymarket results. The hanging of the anarchists was proof enough that force was impracticable.

The meeting was open to any one wanting to talk, each speaker being allowed ten minutes. Mrs. Parsons rose and the crowd cheered lustily. "I should like very much," she said "some of these days, to answer the assertions that Mr. Morgan has made against those who are dead; but the ukase has gone forth from Roche and Lord Bonfield that I am never to make another speech in Chicago, and that I am to be forever deprived of that liberty under the constitution; but I cannot sit here quietly [and here it said that those who are dead and silent in the tombs had anything to do with the throwing of the Haymarket bombs, though in the everything is justified and any one that says anything else is cursed. They were miserable curs who on last Sunday night allowed themselves to be driven from this hall by the police."

Mrs. Parsons then read what purported to be an extract from a speech of Thomas Jefferson, in which occurred these words: "God forbid that any country should be for twenty years without a rebellion." "Did Patterson or Spies utter anything more revolutionary than that?" said Mrs. Parsons. It has been declared that martyrs are no good, but their memory is dear and a perpetual inspiration, because they died before they would ask pardon for that which they did not do. When liberty shall be crowned with immortality, the brightest names in her crown will be those of Parsons, Spies, Fischer and Engel, who died for her. [Cheers.] I am for

PEACE ON PRINCIPLE

If you see two rival armies approaching each other, and take a poll of the men you will find nine-tenths of them are for peace, but they are borne on by irresistible force to the conflict. Before we can have peace in society like our own, rivers of blood will have to run. (Applause.)

The chairman interrupted Mrs. Parsons, and said the ten minutes allowed had expired.

A number of detectives were present but there was no attempt to interfere. After many other speeches some of them decidedly fiery, the hall was cleared and a private meeting held by prominent members of the socialistic party. When the conference ended it was announced that arrangements had been made to continue these proceedings every Sunday afternoon.

Shocking Domestic Tragedy.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 30.—Information of a shocking tragedy comes from Craighead, County Arkansas. It appears that some days ago the wife of William West, who was somewhat of a desperado, left him, and returned to her mother, a Mrs. Mary Davey. West went to see his wife who refused to acknowledge him, but her mother went out on the porch, taking with her the young child of the couple. West began to abuse Mrs. Davey, charging her with being the cause of the trouble between his wife and himself. Stephen Davey was attracted to the porch by the dispute, and ordered West to leave the place. West replied by flourishing a pistol and firing two shots, one passing through Mrs. Davey's hand and the other through Stephens' face. Davey then got a repeating rifle, and the two men exchanged shots. West was shot throught the heart and died instantly. Davey was shot through the head, and will die.

The Fighters.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 30.—The Kilrain-Mitchell party arrived in St. Louis today. They kept close during the day and Parson Davies did the talking for them. Parson stated that word had been forwarded tonight to Kilrain's New York backers to the effect that he would meet the Sullivan party in Buffalo, New York, January 7; and Parson stated a match will be closed today, or the party who refuses to fight will be blown up. Davies claimed Kilrain was not only willing but anxious to meet Sullivan, and would agree to anything in reason to bring about a match. As to Jackson, the Australian, he did not see money nor glory in the black. There was nothing to win and everything to lose.

Parsons thought McAuliffe has been overestimated. Bill Bradburn defeated Glover in nine rounds. It took McAuliffe 49 to beat him. His defeat of Conley was a chance blow. Kilrain and Mitchell think they have been misrepresented and that adverse comment is the cause of their shabby treatment wherever they go.

Losses Caused by a Defaulter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 31.—Details of losses which it is supposed have been sustained by various San Francisco and eastern business houses through the mysterious departure from this city of Charles F. Merle, president of the California Bone Meal Fertilizing Co., and local agent for N. K. Fairbanks & Co., Chicago, are difficult to obtain and it is probable will not be definitely known before a meeting of the directors of the Fertilizing Company which will be held Monday. It is stated the losses will aggregate about $80,000.

Sad Boating Fatality.

RIPLEY, O., Dec. 30.—Soon after midnight, a short distance above here, Mrs. Turner and her little daughter, a daughter of Geoge C. Loyd, three brothers named Brooks, and a man whose name is unknown, all colored, attempted to cross the river from Kentucky to Ohio in a small flat-bottomed boat. At some distance from the shore the waves from a passing steamboat capsized the little boat and all seven were drowned. Their cries for help were heard by persons on the steamboat, but the darkness prevented their giving assistance.

SUAKIN, Dec. 30.—It is reported here that the rebel tribes at Handoub contemplate surrendering to the British.

ALARMING RIOT.

A Number of Persons Dangerously Wounded.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 30.—A Commercial Gazette, Greensburg, Pa., special says: There was a riot this afternoon at Jeannette. Last night a number of colored men and others employed at Jeannette came to this place and supplied themselves with whisky, and with the aid of an unlicensed whisky shop in Jeannette a high carnival was held there during the morning hours.

In the afternoon the colored men became quarrelsome. Thirty or forty men gathered in one of the shanties and soon a desperate fight began, knives and pistols being brought into play. Wm. Galvin, who lives in East Greensburg, was terribly cut, and it is reported tonight that he cannot live; while a colored man named Corroll had his arm terribly lacerated by the knives. Others are reported to have received dangerous wounds. A messenger was dispatched for Sheriff Byers and Deputy Sheriff Allem, and a posse was sent at once to the scene.

The President Elect.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 30. — The President-elect and Mrs. Harrison attended church this morning, as usual, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. McKee. There was a large congregation present, including many strangers. There were a number of callers at Harrison's home this morning. The visitors were strangers, who, in every instance, apologized for their calling on Sunday, but they wanted to shake hands with the next President before leaving the city.

On New Year's Mr. and Mrs. Harrison will receive at home—hours from 2 to 8—assisted by their daughter, Mrs. McKee, and one or two lady friends. Gen. Harrison will be present and receive with the ladies. At 8 o'clock the ladies will go down to the New Denison, and receive for an hour or two with the ladies of the hotel, twelve in number, including Mrs. Judge Martindale, Mrs. Harvey Bates, Mrs. George O. Taylor and others. Each of the twelve ladies have secured five friends to receive with them.

There will be a grand reception by 72 of the leading society ladies of the city. It is not known whether General Harrison will attend, but it is considered probable that he will drop in and pay his respects to the ladies. The hours for the reception at the New Denison will be from 8 to 11 o'clock.

Regarding the special cable from London, printed this morning, purporting to give an extract from the letter said to have been written a few days since by E. W. Halford to John C. Reid, formerly of the New York Times, wherein Halford is said to have stated the Hon. J. C. Reid did not desire to go into General Harrison's Cabinet, and that Indiana would probably be represented by General Lew Wallace, as postmaster-general, Mr. Halford says that since his appointment as private secretary to General Harrison he has not written a word of the Cabinet, or its possible composition to Mr. Reid or any one else.

That Mexican Canal.

EL PASO, Dec. 30.—A newspaper published in Chihuahua, Mexico, Dec. 28, and received yesterday, contained thrilling accounts of an alleged papist uprising in the City of Mexico. The story, in brief, is the same as told in special dispatches last night. It was seized upon by a correspondent of a New York paper, and telegraphed from here. This narrative purported to have been received by the Chihuahua paper by wire from the City of Mexico. Upon investigation, the terrible tale turns out to be a huge hoax, perpetrated by the Chihuahua papers on their readers. December 28th is "All Innocents Day," and is celebrated in Mexico as April Fool's day is in the United States. Intelligent Mexicans of this city place no credit whatever to the story. It is hinted that the papers which printed the canard will be called to account.

Mrs. Schofield Dead.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Mrs. Schoefild, wife of Major-General Schofield, died of paralysis of the heart, at seven o'clock this morning. She had been suffering from the effects of a severe cold, which developed bronchial catarrh a few days ago, but she was not thought to be in danger until heart failure supervened only an hour or two before death. Mrs. Schofield was the daughter of Prof. W. H. C. Bartlett, formerly of the U. S. Military Academy and now actuary of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. The remains will be interred next Wednesday at West Point.

A Powder Explosion.

EVERSON, Pa., Dec. 30.—This evening flames broke out in Brown row and four houses were destroyed. The fire was caused by the explosion of a keg of powder. The house in which the explosion occurred is occupied by Poles. They were preparing their powder for work in the mines tomorrow when a spark from a pipe ignited it. There was a terrific explosion, and the men were frightfully burned. One, and perhaps three will die.

Berlin, Dec. 30.—During a performance of "A Midsummer Night Dream" at the opera last evening, Princess Adelbert of Bavaria was seized with a violent attack of hysteria and had to be removed. She has since become worse. It is believed she is insane.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—A fire tonight on board the steamer Mexico, recently from Havanna, did about $3000 damage. There was considerable excitement and ten firemen were overcome by the fumes of burning tobacco, the main cargo of the steamer.

Portland, Oregon, Dec. 30.—Delegates from all the counties in Washington Territory meet at Ellersburg January 30, to frame a state constitution and memorialize Congress for the speedy admission of Washington Territory. The sentiment of the people is unanimously in favor of admission.

Hannibal, Mo., Dec. 30.—Amos J. Stillwell, a wealthy merchant, was murdered by a burglar while sleeping in his house. The weapon used was an axe, which with Stillwell's pocket book and $5 was found in an alley in the rear of the house. No clue to the murderer has yet been obtained.

Paris, Dec. 30.—Deputies Chusluset, Ferroul, a Pyat and Planten have formed a revolutionary group, dubbing themselves the Commune. They have issued a bombastic manifesto declaring that the Commune of 1889 will save the National Republic by revolution, and that its principal task is to overthrow Boulanger. The manifesto generally is ridiculed, but adds to the government's difficulty.
