SHOT IN MISTAKE FOR HOLD-UP.

R. Shackell Opens Fire on Two Special Officers With Telling Effect Last Night.

J. E. SNIPES FATALLY HURT.

Bullet Pierces His Stomach - Alonzo Clark the Other Officer Shot In the Hand.

A shocking case wherein two special officers were mistaken for holdups and were shot by J. R. Shackell, a southern Pacific brakeman, occurred last night on the west side of the Weber bridge on Twenty-fourth street. This morning it is believed the affair will lead to the death of one of the wounded men, Both men are now at the hospital, Their names are J. E. Snipes and Alon-20 Clark, two special policemen put on as the result of the excitement over as the recent reign of terror that has been in vogue here since the holdups became so bold and callous in their affair happened last night about The affair happened that flight about 9 o'clock as Shackell was on his way home on his bicycle to his dwelling in West Ogden. He observed the two men coming towards him, one of them carrying a dark lantern, and being suspicious of their actions he promptly jumped from his wheel, opened fire and then hastily remounting rode rapidly back to the union depot, where he subsequently gave himself up to the

The lamentable affair seems to have been the outcome of fear on the part of Shackell, who lived in terror of be-ing held up and beaten. Rather than run any chances he apparently opened fire without warning with the result that two innocent men were hit. SHAKELL RELEASED.

Shakell was released on his own recognizance this afternoon, no com-plaint having been issued against him.

SHACKELL'S VERSION. When seen by the "News" shortly af and was not sparing in laying the blame upon himself: "I came in from my run as passenger brakeman (last evening) and got my bicycle at the depot and started for home in West ogden. I was feeling very nervous of holdups, and some of the boys out on the run had been telling me that one man had been murdered at Riverside Park and another in a saloon by hold-ups. I had my pistol in my pocket and determined if anyone was going to hold me up I was not going to give him a chance if I could help it."

Continuing, he said: "I was riding rapidly down Twenty-fourth street, and approaching the bridge when I saw two men appear all at once on the opposite side. They were walking about 10 feet apart and one of them was carrying a dark lantern. I did not like their looks. I sized them up as being holdups at once, so I jumped off my wheel and fired two shots, one at each. I heard them shout, but could not understand what they said. Still believing that they were holdups I jumped on my wheel and returned to the union depot. I waited at the depot for some time, but did not say anything to any one about the affair until I heard some of the boys talking about two special officers who had been shot at the bridge. I then at once started up Twenty-fifth street to go to the police station. On my way up the street I met an officer and told him to take me.

"I feel all broke up over this affair and would not have had it happen for anything. No one could feel worse than I do and I realize that I am in a very sad plight.'

sad plight."

In answer to further questions Shackell stated that the men did not say anything to him, and that on second thought they did not act in a very strange manner, but he was nervous and was not roing to take any chances. Inquiry at the hospital this afternoon was productive of the information that the dectors were unable to locate the was productive of the information that the dectors were unable to locate the bullet which had pierced the intestines of Mr. Snipes and that there was very little hope for his recovery. The verdict was that he would linger for several days yet before the end came fi-

UNPARALLELED RUN

Of Sugar Factory - Socialists Incensed Royle-Stoddard Wedding.

Special Correspondence.
Lehi, Utah Co., Oct. 24.—Supt. Jas.
H. Gardner of the sugar mill here reports that they made 3,155 bags of sugar in the 24 hours ending at 7 a. m, this morning. This is an exceptionally good run, and is the largest number of bags ever made in 24 hours by this company. The mill is working at full capacity. Up to date 45,000 tons of beets have been received and they are pouring in at the various stations at the rate of 2,500 tons per day. The farmers are jubilant over the lovely weather they are having for getting in their beet crop and are using every effort to get their beets in while it lasts.

SOCIALISTS INCENSED.

ORANGEVILLE.

ELDER VAN BUREN RETURNS Last of B. Y. A. South American Exploring Expedition to Come Home. Special Correspondence.

Orangeville, Emery Co., Oct. 21,-

Elder Chester Van Buren, the last of the Brigham Young academy explorim expedition to return, arrived at his home here, last Thursday, and was greeted by a little host of friends, eld, middle aged and young, who brought with them picnic, which was spread in the spacious dining room of his parents' home and the day being just right, a fine time was had in lawn and right, a fine time was had in lawn an garden. This was not enough to such is many friends, and therefore an adjournment was taken until Monda evening, when they met in the socia hall. A large gathering enjoyed picula nusic, dancing, speech making, songs oasts, sentiments, etc., till a late hour It was a very generous demonstration of welcome home, to the young man who had stayed so long with his tisk of collecting samples of birds, in the forests of Colombia. It took three months for a letter to reach him, or come from him to his fond, loving and anxious mother and friends at home. Elder Van Buren shipped for Provo by way of New York, the way he came, about 700 ornithological samples, covering about 200 varieties of the feathered tribe, besides some 150 samples of ancient pottery, dug out of mounds and other burying places. These he had to have carried on donkeys for several days, thence by boats down rivers, where frequent transfers had to be made, hence he entertains some abxiety as to their condition on arrival.

· NEWS BRIEFS.

The people of Orangeville are justly proud of their fine brick schoolhouse, and the indications are they will be equally proud of the school being taught in it.

More grain has been raised here this work of the school being the year than for years, fruit also, and all the farm crops are good; but the early frost cut off the honey flow, and hence the yield, or harvest of honey is short.

HIGH CLASS DRUGGISTS AND - OTHERS.

The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity, who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula. Druggists of the better class manufacture many excellent remedies, but always under original or officinal names and they never sell false brands, or imitation medicines. They are the men to deal with when in need of anything in their line, which usually includes all standard remedies and corresponding adjuncts of a first-class pharmacy and the finest and best of toilet articles and preparations and many useful accessories and remedial appliances. The earning of a fair living, with the satisfaction which arises from a knowledge of the benefits conferred upon their patrons and assistance to the medical profession, is usually their greatest reward for long years of study and many hours of daily toil. They all know that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative remedy and that it gives universal satisfaction, and therefore they are selling many millions of bottles annually to the well informed purchasers of the choicest remedies, and they always take pleasure in handing out the genuine article bearing the full name of the Company-California Fig Syrup Co.-printed on the front of every package. They know that in cases of colds and headaches attended by biliousness and constipation and of weakness or torpidity of the liver and bowels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or over-eating, that there is no other remedy so pleasant, prompt and beneficial in its effects as

Syrup of Figs, and they are glad to sell it because it gives universal satisfaction. Owing to the excellence of Syrup of Figs, the universal satisfaction which it gives and the immense demand for it, imitations have been made, tried and condemned, but there are individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles of the profession and whose greed gets the better of their judgment, and who do not hesitate to recommend and try to sell the imitations in order to make a larger profit. Such preparations sometimes have the name-" Syrup of Figs"-or "Fig Syrup" and of some piratical concern, or fictitious fig syrup company, printed on the package, but they never have the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of the package. The imitations should be rejected because they are injurious to the system. In order to sell the imitations they find it necessary to resort to misrepresentation or deception, and whenever a dealer passes off on a customer a preparation under the name of "Syrup of Figs" or "Fig Syrup," which does not bear the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of the package, he is attempting to deceive and mislead the patron who has been so unfortunate as to enter his establishment, whether it be large or small, for if the dealer resorts to misrepresentation and and deception in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness. Knowing that the great majority of druggists are reliable, we supply the immense demand for our excellent remedy entirely through the druggists, of whom it may be purchased everywhere, in original packages only, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, but as exceptions exist it is necessary to inform the public of the facts, in order that all may decline or return any imitation which may be sold to them. If it does not bear the full name of the Company-California Fig Syrup Co .- printed on the front of every package, do not hesitate to return the article and to demand the return of your money, and in future go to one of the better class of druggists who will sell you what you wish and the best of everything in his line at reasonable prices.
