

The senator began his address much atler than was expected, and as a consequence there was a somewhat im attendance at the opening of his peech. In spite of the dryness of he subject, the senators came in one

"First I heard of them," he said, "was when a fellow came into the place where I was rooming with two other fellows. The other two were in bed. "Where is McCooey?" said the detective and are of them enverged had with Glacia Cala on Feb. 4.

THREATENS "SOMETHING." "Lat me tell you something. I have never betrayed my confidence with any man but now that my ehemies have had their turn I'm going to have mine, and when I start in, there's go-ing to be something drop. And in high circles. Why didn't Loofbourow cross-examine me? Because he didn't dare! If he had asked me one ques-tion about 'protecting' anyone, I would have told this city something about 'protecting' a woman because asked to do so for very good reasons.

operation between the shan and the parliament leading to the issuance hy parliament of a manifesto in which it was set forth that the shah was vio-lating his covenant with the people, and asking that the rights of the peo-ple be permittel to be trodden under foot. The ill feeling of the local fac-tions in Taberan developed about Dec.

me and gave close attention t Utab senator's remarks upon the im-portant question of financial reform. Senator Smoot has not heretofore then an active part in discussions centering upon matters of mational or widespread importance; particularly gnancial problems. As a consequence bis evident careful study of condi-ulons, causes and remedies, created more than usual interest.

FAMOUS COPPER SUIT TAKES ONE STEP HIGHER

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 28.—Chancellor Pliney today signed an order restrain-ing th Old Dominion Copper Smelting company, a New Jersey corporation, from proceeding further in the Massa-chusetts courts against Albert Bigew in a suit involving several hundred thousand dollars. The company sued Bigelow and obtained a judgment against him in the lower courts of Massachusetts and the case has been ap-pealed to the higher courts of that

A suit by the Old Dominion company against Leonard Lewisohn, now de-ceased, in the United States courts in New York state, involving the same facts resulted in a decision in Lewisohn's favor. This case is now on ap-peal before the United States supreme The object of the application to Chancellor Pitney is to get the whole matter before the New Jersey courts as to have Lewisohn's estate made party defendant to the efforts of the Old Dominion company to recover sovd Bigelow and Lewischn over-charged he Old Dominion company for a sub-idlary concern which they promoted and owned.

TRIAL OF SCOUT CRUISER.

Rockland, Me., Feb. 28.—The scout rulker Chester, built by the Bath rol works, left her anchorage early oday for the official standardization risk on the Rockland mile course. The conter was set of the standard to the standard to the set of the set of the standard to the set of the set oday for the wenther. clear and there was a westerly wind.

MRS. NOONAN GETS DIVORCE.

Defendant Did Not Appear But Had Made Answer.

Ireno M. Noonan was granted a dlaree from James A. Noonan by Judge Morse today, after plaintiff had proved that defendant had failed for a long dime to support her and her five chli-dren. It was also decreed by the court that Mrs. Noonan is to have the custody of the children, $40 a month temporary allmony and $50 for attorney's fees. The whereabouts of defendant is unthown to plaintif, and Noonan's attor-ncy stated that two or three letters written by counsel had elicited no re-

Noonan's answer to the proceedings of swife is interesting, it being therein the mathematical states of the mathematical states of the swife is a state of the swife states of the state of the mathematical states of the states of the whenever he came home, being a rail-oral man and away part of the time, whenever he came home, being a rail-tor of the states of the states of the swife, and was forced to occupy a dif-erent spartment from that of plaintiff, and that by writing letters she had se-parate for which he worked. Noonan's answer to the proceedings of detective, and one of them answered that he wasn't there. 'Yes he is,' the detective said, 'and you're him.' Well, they found me, finally, and then the guy got pretty chummy. I went to the office with him several times and finally they offered me a job at the race track for them. I borrowed money off them, but never got on the job. After we got chummy the the job. After we got chummy the detective told me about following me all the way down the coast, and also following some other Salt Lake boys,

I guess maybe my room-mates on the steamer were detectives, but if they were, they didn't find out much." McCoorg has been re-employed by Mr. Garrett and will drive his mahine this summer.

BULGARIA AND REUSS UNITED BY MARRIAGE.

Coburg. Germany, Feb. 28.—Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria and Eleonore Caroline Gasparine Louise, Princess of Reuss, were married here today. At the conclusion of the religious and the civil ceremony which followed it, the wedding party left here for Gera, the wedding party left here for Gera, the seat of the younger branch of the Reuss family.

Prince Ferdinand proceeded to the Catholic church, where the religious ceremony was held, some time in ad-vance of the bridal party, and he remained alone in silent party, and he fe-mained alone in silent prayer until the princess and her escort entered the edi-fice. She was accompanied by Prince Henry XXIV of Reuss-Kostriz, Prince Henry XVIII of Reuss and other rela-tions. tives. After the exchange of rings, mass was celebrated and then civil ceremony took place.

Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria is a member of the house of Saxe-Coburg-Et-Gotha. He was born in 1861 and in 1887 he was elected Prince of Bulgaria. In April, 1893, he was married to Prin-cess Marie Louise of Bourbon-Parme, who died in 1899. The prince has two ons and two daughters.

Princess Eleonore is a daughter of Prince Henry IV of Reuss-Kostriz. She was born near Zullichau, Prussia in 1860. She is a member of the younger branch of the Reuss family.

$0000000000000000000000000000 SHOOTS WIFE, FIRES HOME, KILLS HIMSELF Colorado Engineer Believed to

Have Become Suddenly

Insane. Colorado Springs, Colo., Feb. 28. -Edward Price, a Colorado Midland railroad engineer, shot and killed his wife, set fire to the house and then blew out his own brains at Florissant, Colo., today. The shooting is supposed to have been the result of insanity. Neighbors were attracted to the scene by flames bursting from the kitchen. Mr. Price has been an engineer for the Midland about a year. He was 53 years old. There were no children.

HAD HIM GUESSING. TO APPLY FOR EXTRADITION.

"I want to tell you when those Mc-Whiters came into my office and told about josing money they had me guess-ing. I felt bad for them, but the thing ing. I felt bad for them, but the thing didn't look straight to me-it looked mighty queer. I tarned to Phillips, the newspaper man, and said, 'Phil, you're a newspaper man, get after these fellows; dig into them and en-lighten me as they've got me up a tree.' They say there are things which don't look right. That may be, and there were things that very day that didn't look right to me. Was I supposed to chase out on the streets when I had Sergt. Hempel, my sergeant for eleven years, there to look into the case? case?

MENTIONS CONTRACT.

"Do you remember-but of course you remember this man Hilton who came here from Denver to represent Parrent and then after getting Parrent's confi-dence turned against him and lined up with the state. Well, I'd like to see the contract he made with the county the contract he made with the county attorney's office. And there's a lot of things which haven't come to the sur-face yet, but believe me, they're com-ing. They've got to come and as I say, when they do, you fellows will have something racy.

DOESN'T WANT IT.

"I'm strapped right now, but I guess I'll get along all right. One thing, that office doesn't look good to me no mat-ter what's along with it.

"I am not much for religion, but I do feel that the Almighty was looking after me because I have always heard the Almighty is with the right." And turning to acknowledge the toast being drunk by clamoring newcomers the long defendant of yesterday said, "Go it boys.'

MULVEY'S VIEW.

M. E. Mulvey, one of Sheets' clos-est friends, was playing host with a lavish hand. "Sheets never took a penny," he said. "Eight men-real men been edited. whose political, religious or any other connections, could not warp their judgment said so without so much as a dissenting voice. What more near be said? Sheets does not want the of be said? Sheets does not want the of-fice of chief of police, and in my judg-ment would be unwise to yield to the importunities of friends. What he should do and will do, undoubiedly, is to strike out for bimself and do what he can to build up what his enemies have torn down. If he does, look out!"

"SANDY" FOWLER TALKS.

"Sandy" Fowler drifted in and con

"Sandy" Fowler drifted in and con-figratulated the center of attraction "Congratulations! "Twas a masty piece of work they tried to lodge against you and they tried a masty method of doing it, but it falled." Others came and went all morning and when little knots of followers gath-ered Mr. Sheets leaned back against th-bar and with one hand gesturing free-ity, told them what he is going to do and how confident he was of the result all the time. That George A. Sheets is to be prose-all the time. That George A. Sheets is to be prose-ential on no more charges is evinced by the statement of District Attorney Loofbourow, who, in discussing the case, says: "I em satisfied as all 1 ever wanted was the defendant to face a jury of eight men, and let these eight men adjudge of his innocence or solit. That has been done and the conspirat-charge pending in the district could will be dropped. He got a fair trial and the verdict came from eight men who viewed the law and evidence with open penitentiary. August Genetit and Louis Cologna, coal miners, were killed in Mine No. 17 at Collinsville on the night of June 19 last. Seadra was con-victed of having conspired with Joseph Genetit to kill August Genetit because he opposed the marriage of Joseph Ge-netti to August's sister. Joseph Genetti was recently sentenced to 15 years imprisonment for the same Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 28.-Thomas P. Cullen, superintendent of the Salt Lake railroad, was today fined $150 by murder.

Justice Frederickson for having failed to keep a gateman at a crossing at night. The proceedings followed a collision between a freight train and a street car in which the conductor of minds. The matter is now closed and I am glad of it."

WHAT MCWHIRTER SAYS.

Alexander McWhirter was at his place of business, working about his own affairs as if he knew of no Sheets' trial. "We told what we knew and can say nothing more. I regarded the con-spiracy as well founded but will not discuss the verdict in the case just nded. We are here to do business and ill welcome all who come."

WILLIAM SARCASTIC.

William McWhirter is quoted as say-

"I have nothing to say about the ver Italian grocer, endeavored today to convince the police that Pistro Cipri-There not ning to say about the version of the say about the version of the same set of the set ano, under arrest to whom he gave a check for $75 four days ago, was em-ployed by him to find the senders of black hand letters in which his life had been threatened. The police refused to believe Viviano's story, and will hold Cipriano pending further investigation into a bomb explosion that wrecked the front of Viviano's store in Biddle street three weeks ago. It is stated i just opening.

COUNSEL DELIGHTED.

Judge Thurman, Attys. Wedgwood and Christensen and Atty. Irvine, who manimous in expressing their satis-omposed the defense's counsel, are action at the result of the trial and a their assertions of their belief that defendant was innocent of graft at

The expressions of others are inter-Some follow:

SCOTCH VERSION POPULAR.

SCOTCH VERSION POPULAR. Colonel N. W. Clayton--To my mind its the Scotch verdict of "Not guility, but don't do it again." Joseph S. Wells--It appears to me to be the old Scotch verdict of "Not guilty, but don't do it again." I don't think the finding of the jury will much affect the sentiment of the public. Spencer Clawson--The verdict reads like the well known Scotch verdict of "Not guility, but don't do it again." Ex-Councilman A: W. Carlson--It is a had advertisement for the town; I don't like to talk about it. DIDN'T LIKE EVIDENCE.

DIDN'T LIKE EVIDENCE. Atty.-Gen. Breeden.-The verdict is not a surprise, considering the char-octer of the chief witnesses for the reascention who were unworthy of be-let. It would be very difficult to find jury who would convict on that kind f avidence, whether the accused were cally guilty or innocent. Ex-Gov, Wells.-I've no comment to make: I'm keeping out of politics.

Carpenter's Letter: "Among the Masal, an African Nation of Stock Raisers and Warriors," il-instrated. "TO CLEAN UP TOWN. "Britain's Leading Field Nat-uralist to Tackle the Nature Fakirs."

Councilman Black-It's a victory for horts. I never believed he was guilty, ad the efforts of the prosecution were he worst I ever knew; trying, as they be worst I ever knew; trying, as they d. to convict the man on such a class widence. I think Sheets ought to put back as chief of police, and told clean up the town.

EXPECTED VERDICT.

Judge W. H. King-I don't see how a trial could come out other than did, with the class of evidence of-ered by the prosecution. No man could be convicted on such testimony.

reflecting on the character of Mrs. Hartje,

SALT LAKE ROUTE MAN FINED IN LOS ANGELES

the latter was killed. The fine was paid, although the attorney for the railroad claimed that the company had no knowledge of such an ordinance

A similar charge against General Man-ager R. E. Wells was dismissed.

St. Louis, Feb. 28 .-- Vito Viviano, ar

pald to Cipriano by Viviano.

A Salt Laker Among

The

Pyramids of Mexico

(Illustrated), Forms a Feature

of the

SATURDAY IEVS

Tomorrow night. Other in esting articles will be:

"Italian Bachelors Fo League Against Matrimony.

"Mrs. Newhouse Taken for a Widow in London Society."

Form

IN ST. LOUIS BLACKHAND

under arrest to whom he gave a

PLOT GETTING THICKER

foot. The ill feeling of the local fac-tions in Teheran developed about Dec. 20 into hostile demonstrations. There was shooting on the streets of the capital and the opposing fac-tions gathered in large numbers near the parliament buildings and erected barricades. The constitutionalists loudly de-manded the abdication of the shah. The shah finally accepted the demands made on him by the constitutional leaders and this enlarde constitutional made on him by the constitutional leaders and this episode came to an end.

Mohammed Ali Mirza was born June 22, 1872.

PREPARE CELEBRATION IN HONOR OF TOLSTOI

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28.—The prepara-tions for the international celebration of the eightieth anniversary of the birth of Count Leo Tolstol are progres-sing under the auspices of the commit-tee having the matter in charse, which includes many of the artists and most public men of Russia. Tolstol was born August 28, 1828. In addition to a pro-position to raise a fund to purchase the count's present residence at Yasnaya-Polayana, his birth place, for a Tolstol museum, it has been decided to issue a book of Tolstolana which shall include articles by Octave Mirbeau. George Brandes, Knut Samson and other noted men of letters of all nations. The list of American contributors is not yet front of Viviano's store in Biddle street three weeks ago. It is stated that since the partial wrecking of his store, Viviano has paid trib-ute demanded in black hand letters he has received. In trying to trace the writer of a black hand letter received last Tuesday by Dr. J. S. Menestrina demanding $500 on pain of decapitation, the police learned of the check having been paid to Cipriano by Viviano. of American contributors is not yet complete, but W. J. Bryan and George Kennan have been asked to send in ar-

ITALIAN CONSUL INTERCEDES.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 28.—The Italian ambassador to Russia, Signor Melegari, today visited Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaievitch to request elemency for Calvino, the Italian newspaper corres-pondent who was yesterday found guilty by a military court of compilei-ty in the attenue last week in this city upon the lives of the grand duke and Minister of Justice Chischeglovit-off and sentenced to death, off, and sentenged to death.

CHAMBERLAINS TAKE A REST.

London, Feb. 28.-Joseph Chamber-lain, accompanied by Mrs. Chamberlain, left London today for the Riviera. They will remain there for several months. Mr. Chamberlain's health continues to improve slowly.

ARRESTED FOR STARTING FIRE-

Johnstown, Pa., Feb. 28.—Charged with having started a fire at Earnes-boro, near here, last week, which caused $100,000 loss and burned a woman to death. Leroy Adamosity, a tailor who occupied one of the burned buildings, was arrested today. It is alleged he started the fire in order to collect in-surance. surance.

FIRE IN KANSAS VILLAGE.

Wildow in London Society." "Death of Man Who Illustrat-ed 'Sherlock Holmes' and Rem-iscences of 'Ouida." And "Nothing too Good for a Congressman" illustrated. Great Bend succeeded in checking the frames, which threatened the business district. Origin of the fire is unknown.

GIRLS IN PANIC AT FIRE. Chicago, Feb. 23.-A fire that de-stroyed the plant of the Rubber Goods Manufacturing company at 762 West Lake street today drove 25 young women employes into the street in a panic. Several of them were slightly overcome by smoke but recovered in a short time. Loss $30,009. FAVORS FOWLER BILL.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The house committee on banking and currency today voted to report favorably the Fowler currency bill.

WU TING FANG ARRIVES.

San Francisco, Feb. 28.—The cleam-ship Siberia, with Wu Ting Fang, the new minister from China to the Unit of States, on board, is cotering this har-bor.

Although Lillian Carkins, the original name of the woman who now calls herself Glacia Calla, is known to have been born within the city limits of Portsmouth in 1871, no record of her birth can be found upon the city rec-ords, but an entry is found recorded in 1880 of the birth of "Glacia Calla." In this record the father's name is given as "George E, Calla, of Portsmouth" and the mother's name as Carrie E. Calla, of the mother's name as Carrie E. Calla, of justify a request for Roy's ex-

County Solicitor at Portsmouth Believes Roy Can Be Brought to Trial.

Portsmouth, N. H., Feb. 28.-Believ-ing that Paul E. Roy, the husband of Glacia Calla can be brought back from Glacia Calla can be brought back from France to answer the charge of mur-dering Mrs. Roy's brother, George A. Carkins, County Solicitor Batchelder and Attorney General Eastman left here today for the state capitol at Con-cord to apply for extradition papers. The attorneys carried with them the report of the medical referee on the autposy performed on Carkin's body as well as the affidavit of Glacia Calla, James L, Kelly, her stepfather, and Mrs. Kelly, her mother. It is expected the state authorities will take the mat-ter before the state department at ter before the state department Washington which will decide if

BIRCH RECORD OBSCURE.

Although Lillian Carkins, the original tradition.

New

up to noon.

glars escaped.

Epping." This does not appear in the same hand-writing is that which the births of 1880 are written in but it is said to re-semble the penmanship displayed in en-tries made several years later.

y Hampshire Officers Convinced They Can Bring Roy to Trial.

Concord, N. H., Feb. 28.—Atty. Gen. Eastman and County Solicitor Batchei-der held a conference here today with Gov. Floyd and Secy. of State Pearson,

The attorney general said he was firmly convinced that Roy could be ex-tradited. No action has been taken

KANSAS BANK DYNAMITED.

Wichita, Kan., Feb. 28.—The bank at Lincolnville, Kan., 96 milles northeast of this city, was dynamited last night and $1,800 in currency taken. The bur-

THINK THEY CAN EXTRADITE.