OLD FOLKS' FESTIVAL.

Important Notice to those Who Intend Participating.

The annual excursion for the old folks will take place on July 12th, over the Utah Central, to Lehi. The train leaves the depot at 8 a.m.; returning leaves Lehi at 3:30 p.m. and arrives in Salt Lake at 7 p.m.

The committee in charge are compelled to announce that in consequence of the great popularity of the excursion, and the desire of as many to accompany the same, henceforth:

NO TICKETS WILL BE DISPOSED OF on any pretext to persons under seventy, the number of persons of this age and upwards being sufficient to make up a train of huge proportions—as many as the committee and their aides can handle.

We trust that this explanation will be sufficient, and that all those who have heretofore gone, or were urged to go, will be willing to wait for their turn until they become of age.

The movement to do honor to the aged is prompted solely by the desire to increase respect for persons of advanced years. We desire to see all who are entitled to these courtesies meet on a common level, whether rich or poor, for one day at least. We intend to distribute mementoes of the occasion to many who are needy. Whatsoever is handed to us will be given where it will do the most good.

Every person who is eligible is invited, independent of race, faith, or color.

TICKETS FOR ALL SUCH can be obtained of Mr. John Kirkman, at the Tithing Office, Salt Lake City. All persons entitled to the privileges of the excursion should observe the following rules: Those 70 years old and under 80 should wear a red rosette on the left breast. Those 80 years old and under 90 should have a blue rosette. Those 90 years old and under 100 should wear a white rosette. Any over 100 years are entitled to wear the golden star, which can be obtained of the committee. All wearing rosettes or badges of the colors named are entitled, through the kindness of Superintendent Arnold, to ride free in the street cars on that day, and the excursion having vehicles to render aid to take to and from the depot the veterans who may go.

On the return trip the train will stop at the Sixth Ward platform to enable all who live in that part of the city to leave the train.

The train will stop at the regular stopping places going south and will take up all who are of age and are provided with tickets, which must be obtained in advance of Mr. Kirkman.

The Old Folks' Choir will accompany the train and discourse sweet music in each car going and returning. Old persons are not entitled to take young persons along with them as companions. No person will be permitted to ride in the cars without a ticket. The entertainment is for the benefit of the aged only, and MONEY CANNOT PURCHASE the right to enjoy the festivities of the day. All who go should provide themselves with cups for drinking purposes.

Those whose generosity have aided us on this occasion will please remember us on this behalf.

Celebration at Provo.

As a fasion celebration of the glorious Fourth, Provo's effort of yesterday was a success. From Tuesday evening till midnight on Wednesday, the excitement of the impressionable was at fever heat. Expectancy was prepared for a rare treat in the procession to be formed at 9 o'clock in the morning, but several of the parts were poorly taken and some were omitted altogether. The beauty of the subjects and the taste in arrangement of those in line, went far, however, to make up the deficiency. The Goddess of Liberty was handsomely represented by Miss Rosa Jones. The "bouquet of beauty" was another pleasing feature, as was the representation of George and Martha Washington in the midst. The States and Territories were named by the children, and a few horrid and terrible scenes were enacted. After center-marching on Centre Street, the parade proceeded west to the exercises proceeded with.

The oration by George Suberland was a masterpiece of flowery eloquence. The responses to the toasts were full of patriotism and the patriotic sentiment, and the closing prayer by the Rev. Wm. B. Smith, was a fine thing. The Rev. Wm. B. Smith was summoned to Park City on Thursday, but the babe died before his arrival.

BROUGHT HOME ILL.

Elder Lloyd Returns from the Southern States.

Last evening we met Elder Thomas M. Holt, of South Jordan, Salt Lake County, who arrived on Wednesday evening from the Southern States, where he has been since the first of November last, engaged as a missionary. The occasion for Elder Holt's return was the serious illness of Elder William M. Lloyd, of Pine Valley, Washington County. Elder Lloyd left for the missionary field five months ago, and since that time has labored with Elder Holt in the West Tennessee Conference. He enjoyed good health until about three weeks ago, when he was attacked with violent pains in the chest, and his breathing became labored. He struggled manfully against the affliction, but at the end of a week found himself very feeble. Still he was strongly averse to being relieved from his missionary labors, and Elder Holt sought to obtain a place where they could remain a few days and the sick man receive proper attention and rest. This was near Dresden, Tennessee, and application was made at the hotel there, but when it was learned they were "Mormon" Elders, they could not hire accommodations, much of the residents in the neighborhood were applied to, but refused them admission.

Finally Mr. W. I. Brommet was called on, and extended to them great kindness and hospitality. Two Elders were several miles distant from the gentleman's home, and from every house in the place. They were four hours in going a distance of twenty miles. They were met by Mr. Brommet's wife, Elder Lloyd being still hopeful of recovering, and keeping his spirits up. Elder Holt, however, says that he is daily getting growing more feeble, and sent word to the missionaries at Dresden, Tennessee, on Saturday evening, June 30, he received a telegram to proceed to Utah at once with Elder Lloyd, his good stout driver, Sunday they took the train at Memphis.

On Saturday evening, Elder Lloyd rallied somewhat, and was able to walk slowly about for a few moments at a time, and at Provo, on Wednesday he was considered strong enough to make the trip to Milford, where his wife and children were to meet him with a team.

Elder Holt states that in West Tennessee, he and Elder Lloyd were very desirous to investigate the principles of the Gospel. He has experienced no change of mind, and is still a very kind man. He expects to return in a short time to his field of labor and complete his missionary work. He is hopeful that Elder Lloyd will recover now that he is among friends who will give him all needed attention.

THE FOURTH AT TINTIC.

Celebration of Independence Day at Eureka.

Editor Deseret News:

Preparations have been in progress for some time past to make the national holiday a time of rejoicing and enjoyment for the whole people. There was no question as to the principles of class or color. All shades of opinion with regard to politics or religion were for the time being laid aside, and all joined together to celebrate the anniversary of the nation's independence.

The effort proved to be an entire success. We had some trouble to secure the services of a brass band for the occasion, as one had to be imported from Salt Lake City or some of the settlements. Finally, however, we secured from Springfield, Mo., a band of twenty-five men, who were at the service of all the mines for the day, and there was a general turnout. There was a grand display of flags, and the very earth trembled with the
