

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Elders George M. Cannon and Lyman H. Young the speakers.

At the Tabernacle services yesterday, Sunday, Sept. 17, after the usual preliminary exercises,

ELDER LYMAN H. YOUNG

was the first speaker. He expressed a desire to be called by the name of God while addressing the congregation. The pastor who said mass at the time that they always have the Mass with him, He then observed that the growth of the Church since their first organization has not been very rapid but there are remarkable evidences of progress. He said that he had expected the people to be more numerous when the people had passed. It has been particularly with the world to perceive those who differ from the majority in religious matters. They are not to be blamed for this. All the efforts of the Apostles at the separation of the members in this respect and many are held in the various religious denominations now meet together in friendly concord. In the case of China, however, it is evident that the people are in conflict with the world, and people who firmly believe in the truth are inclined to submit to false treatment.

ELDER GEORGE M. CANNON

then addressed the congregation. He said he realized that our number is comparatively small and that our popularity is not great. Yet we have a noble cause to labor for. We are weak, and the Lord has given us a glorious mission, a glorious work, as He promised us to us when He said a time would come when peace should be established and all nations should be gathered together. The Apostle Paul says, "see that he himself is doing what is acceptable to the Almighty." The speaker closed by inviting a testimony to the truth of the gospel and the weakness of the world. He then invited all present to see the Little one Jesus which had been Interred.

ELDER LYMAN H. YOUNG

then addressed the congregation. He said he realized that our number is comparatively small and that our popularity is not great. Yet we have a noble cause to labor for. We are weak, and the Lord has given us a glorious mission, a glorious work, as He promised us to us when He said a time would come when peace should be established and all nations should be gathered together. The Apostle Paul says, "see that he himself is doing what is acceptable to the Almighty." The speaker closed by inviting a testimony to the truth of the gospel and the weakness of the world. He then invited all present to see the Little one Jesus which had been Interred.

ELDER GEORGE M. CANNON

then addressed the congregation. He said he realized that our number is comparatively small and that our popularity is not great. Yet we have a noble cause to labor for. We are weak, and the Lord has given us a glorious mission, a glorious work, as He promised us to us when He said a time would come when peace should be established and all nations should be gathered together. The Apostle Paul says, "see that he himself is doing what is acceptable to the Almighty." The speaker closed by inviting a testimony to the truth of the gospel and the weakness of the world. He then invited all present to see the Little one Jesus which had been Interred.

ELDER LYMAN H. YOUNG

then addressed the congregation. He said he realized that our number is comparatively small and that our popularity is not great. Yet we have a noble cause to labor for. We are weak, and the Lord has given us a glorious mission, a glorious work, as He promised us to us when He said a time would come when peace should be established and all nations should be gathered together. The Apostle Paul says, "see that he himself is doing what is acceptable to the Almighty." The speaker closed by inviting a testimony to the truth of the gospel and the weakness of the world. He then invited all present to see the Little one Jesus which had been Interred.

Killed by a Fall.

According to the Wasatch News, a fatal accident happened at Wanship, Summit county, recently. David, the 10-year-old son of Bishop J. L. Lawrence jumped upon a barn in back of some young figures he was napping in the back of his brother's and White horse. The boy gave way and the top fell, breaking a distance of nineteen feet. He fell on a rail and was severely injured, giving evidence of the same on the way to the hospital where he was in the stable and then was removed, a distance of half a mile. His parents were in the mountains with his wife and three sons, who were staying at the campsite mentioned for the day. While the boy was being removed, the top of the barn fell, causing a new pile of wood. The house was destroyed.

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

is a well known and popular medicine.

HOOD'S PILLS

are well known and popular.

HOOD'S PILLS

are well known and popular.